

SEEK EACH OTHER'S TRADE

Wholesalers and Retailers to Commune on Relationship.

WILL SETTLE ALL DIFFERENCES

Grievances of Both Sides Will Be Aired at Home Extension Dinner, with Warm Co-Operation at the End.

Wholesalers in Omaha are prepared to make the statement that $500,000 worth of buying by the retailers is done in eastern cities when the same amount should be spent with the wholesalers in Omaha where the same goods can be obtained at the same price.

The retailers are prepared to ask them to prove it.

This is part of the discussion that is likely to come up at the big harmony dinner that was planned for this evening at the Commercial club under the name of the "Home Trade Extension Dinner."

Then when the wholesalers get through proving this point, if they get through before morning, the retailers are prepared to make the charge that some mighty good people in Omaha, including wholesalers and others, are buying entirely too much stuff for their families from itinerant merchants who come into Omaha and rent a room in a hotel for a few days, while the wives and families of the leading men of the city hustle to the hotel to buy their goods.

Instead of patronizing the home retailer, Exhibit No. will probably be a bill recently sent to a prominent Omaha man for 12 neckties at $2.50 apiece. This bill is from a Chicago house. The point will be made that this gentleman or any other gentleman in Omaha need not order from Chicago, for ties of the $2.50 brand can be had in Omaha as well as elsewhere.

Not Good Boosters. Then, if all these little differences are amicably settled at the "harmony" dinner, the manufacturers are prepared to pipe up with the charge that the retailers in Omaha do not properly boost Omaha-made goods.

But after all this "harmony" meeting, with all these little matters to be argued about, need not necessarily be unharmonious. It is all to end well. That is the hope of the committees in charge. They hope for a peaceful settlement without the help of mediation and without requiring the resignation of "dictators," Carranza or Villa.

In other words, if these charges, that have long been made under the breath of the men in the various lines of business, are really true, then they need correcting, say the committees. If they are not true, they need "harmonious" refutation. The idea is to come to some good fellowship understanding, so that all will be well in the future, with all the evils corrected.

Agreement at the End. It is the hope of those in charge to impress upon all for all upon the minds of all Omaha consumers that if the demand is made here the $2.50 and $3.00 gown will be carried in stock. It is charged that the reason it is not carried in stock is that no one makes a demand for it; that those who want such a gown do not ask the local dealer for it, but send to New York and Chicago for it. It is the hope to impress upon all that the ties of the $2.50 brand are carried in stock in a dozen stores in Omaha and that it is not at all necessary to send to Chicago for such articles.

Ad Club Wants to Have Big Special Train to Toronto

If as many as 100 men from Nebraska want to go to Toronto for the national meeting of the Ad clubs, the Burlington will put on an all-Nebraska special. This work has been given the Ad club in Omaha. Some twenty-five Ad club men are to go, although delegates have not yet been chosen. Leaders here indicated that ten or twelve men will go from there. All will start together from Omaha. Victor White, chairman of the local committee on arrangements, is communicating with the Commercial clubs of the various towns and cities of the state with a view to raising a delegation large enough to make the all-Nebraska special a certainty. The crowd is to leave Omaha over the Burlington the evening of June 15. From Chicago they are to take the Michigan Central to Detroit. They are to stay over the afternoon at Belle Isle and the guests of the Detroit Commercial club. From there they are to take the Grand Trunk line to Toronto.

CITY DADS BUY TWO MORE MOTORCYCLES FOR COPPERS

The city commissioners have just purchased two brand new Harley-Davidson motorcycles for the use of the police department flying squadron from Victor H. Root, the local agent for the machines. While the Harley-Davidson bid was $70 higher than the next bidder Commissioner Kugel advised the purchase of Harley-Davidsons because he had previously learned them to be very satisfactory and their upkeep expenses small.

MOCKETT WILL TELL HOW TO VOTE ON UNI LOCATION

Having settled all the pressing problems of municipal government in Omaha, the Economic league, at its next session, will let folks know how to vote on university consolidation. The speaker of the evening will be John H. Mockett, Jr., of Lincoln, who is a standpatter for the vested interests who want the university kept divided between the down town campus and the farm site. The time is this evening and the place the court house.

Believes Bladder Distress and Weakness

Painful bladder weaknesses and irregular, sleep-disturbing action soon disappear when the kidneys are strong and healthfully active. Take Foley's Kidney Pills for that burning, scalding sensation—irregular, painful action—heavy, sore feeling and distress. You will soon be rid of the irritating acids that inflame and acidify the bladder, and will like the prompt tonic and restorative effect—the quick relief from pain and distress and the decided good results. No others work so well and so quickly. For sale by all dealers everywhere.—Advertisement.

JASPER MANZONE HURT IN FALL DOWN ELEVATOR SHAFT

Jasper Manzone, a dishwasher at the Stoddard & Meredith restaurant, 214 South Fourteenth street, fell down an elevator shaft in the building early Sunday morning and sustained a fractured skull and other injuries, from which he is still unconscious. Attending physicians consider his condition very serious and say that he may die. He came to Omaha recently from Pueblo, Colo.

STATE CROP REPORT IS GOOD

Burlington's Report of Conditions is Warm with Promise.

WHEAT STOOLES AND THICKENS

Weather and Moisture is Doing Much to Foster Development of Small Grain in Every Part of Nebraska.

The Burlington's Nebraska soil and crop report for the week ending May 2 is the most rosy document of the kind that has ever come from the company's agricultural department. Never was one of the reports more optimistic and this is what it has to say relative to the condition of the winter wheat along the lines of the several divisions, which cover practically all of the agricultural area of the state.

Division. Condition. Omaha 100 per cent. Lincoln 100 per cent. Wyoming 100 per cent. McCook 96 per cent.

The comparison in condition is made on the basis of the ten-year average of the cereal at this season of the year. And adding to the percentage figures, the report continues:

"These estimates are too low. Estimates of agents are always conservative, as they have little opportunity to observe conditions and their information comes from farmers and grainmen. Farmers are never too hopeful and grain dealers' opinions are sometimes influenced by previous transactions."

"Conditions were entirely favorable during the week, with low temperatures and plenty of moisture, with low wind velocity. Under these conditions the wheat has 'stooled' and thickened and developed slowly, while with a high temperature, lack of moisture and wind in April there is likely to be a premature

Walters on Inspection—General Manager Walters of the Northwestern is out on an inspection trip that will cover the Nebraska lines. He will look over points where betterments are contemplated this season.

Collins Gets Thirty Days—Alleged passing of worthless checks at the State and Triumph hotels, resulted in the arrest of H. C. Collins, who said he lived at the Millard hotel. He was sent to jail for thirty days as a suspicious character.

Hayden Bros. Buyers Return—Thomas J. Flynn, manager of the ladies suit department at Hayden Bros., and Pat Johnson, manager of the mens department, have returned from a buying trip to New York where they secured large assortments of summer stocks.

Sentence Imposed—A 60 day sentence for drunkenness proved too much for Tom Cluck of Florence in police court. He had a fit in the bull pen as soon as sentenced, and the services of Surgeon Floyd H. Kinyon were required to convince him that the end of the world had not come.

Butler Gets Ten Days—"Jimmy" Butler an erstwhile beneficiary of kindly ministrations by Captain Kline of the Salvation army, allowed his "cloak of religion" to wear rather threadbare, according to Kline, and as a result was locked up by the police, for ten days on a charge of vagrancy.

Mrs. Elsassers Hurt in Fall—At her home in Benson, Sunday, while in the pantry and reaching for some article on a shelf, Mrs. G. Fred Elsassers, slipped and fell through an open doorway into the basement, a distance of nearly ten feet. While no bones were broken, she sustained serious bruises and is reported to be in a critical condition.

Murphy Bound Over—Alfred Murphy, the man who held up the richman grocery, Twenty-fifth and Davenport streets, and had a running fight with a crowd after robbing the money drawer, was bound over to the district court by Police Judge Foster. He waived preliminary examination and was unable to give $2500 bond, so will have to wait in jail till he is tried.

Wright's Fugitive Bond—A brick thrown at Joe Wright of Council Bluffs by a gang of small boys missed its mark and smashed a plate glass window of the American Radiator company, 415 South Tenth street. While Wright was waiting, brick in hand, to return the compliment to the lads when they reappeared, he was arrested on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. After sobering up, he was released on bond, which was declared forfeited when he failed to appear in police court.

REAL PROFITS NOT SO LARGE

Records Show County Pays Most to Various Departments.

PAYS HALF OF SHERIFF'S FEES

Register of Deeds Shows Good Surplus of Which the County and City Do Not Pay, as in the Other Branches.

Popular opinion that some offices in the courthouse earn large profits for the county by means of surplus fees is hard hit in the annual report for 1913 rendered to the Board of County Commissioners by County Clerk Dewey. By separation of various sources of income it is shown that a large part of the supposed "surplus fees" results from a system of paying money from one of the county's hands to another made necessary by legal red tape.

The office of County Treasurer Ure shows a deficit for 1913, expenses being $4,488 and the receipts $4,654. Most of the receipts are fees paid by the city, county and state for collection of taxes.

The sheriff's office earned fees amounting to $3,488 but of this $2,002 was paid by the county itself, the balance coming from outside sources.

The office of the district court which derives large revenue from district court filings collected a total of $38,570 fees but $13,519 was paid by the county, itself.

In the other offices revenues derived from the county are small as are also their apparent profits with the exception of the register of deeds' office which each year shows a balance of about $2,000.
