

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

May Wheat is Being Held in a Strong Grip. SHORTS ARE QUITE STRONG. Bulls Are Meeting with Lots of Opposition by Other Elements of the Market.

OMAHA, May 6, 1914. May wheat is being held in a strong grip and the shorts in that month will be able to do up their position only by going into the pit and bidding for the grain.

It is said there is a big open interest in the May wheat at St. Louis and that there is a possibility of a change in the market there.

The longs of the bulls in May wheat at Chicago are likely to experience more or less trouble in changing their paper profits into actual money.

OFFERS NEW DEAL FOR LIGHTS

Company Would Lower Rate for Contract Extension. COUNCIL TAKES IT UP MONDAY. Would Install Nearly Twice as Many New Style Incandescent Lamps for Same Price Now Paid for Underground Wiring.

In seeking an extension of the contract for five years, or until 1919, the Omaha Electric Light and Power company, through President F. A. Nash, proposed to the city commission a material reduction in rates for municipal lights, as well as an increase in the number of lights.

President Nash's proposition is to install, within seven months after the contract is entered into, 2,000 incandescent lights of 60-candle power each, these to be furnished at a cost of $5 per year per light where the wires are overhead and $6 for underground wiring.

The city now pays $7.50 each for 137 incandescent lights. The electric light company maintains that the incandescent lights offered in the new contract are better illuminating mediums than the lights now in use, and that 2,000 of them could be secured for the price now paid for 1,387 lights.

It is also proposed by the company to install 300 ten-ampere flaming arc lamps in a district bounded by Cuming, Leavenworth and Twenty-fourth streets within six months after the contract is entered into, these lights to be maintained at an expense of $60 each per year.

Further, the company agrees to furnish electric current for the city hall at the rate of 6 cents per kilowatt hour for the first 2,500 kilowatt hours used per month; for current used the same month in excess of 2,500, but not more than 30,000, 3 cents per kilowatt hour, and all current used above that in the same month, 1 1/2 cents per kilowatt hour.

An ordinance authorizing the city commission to enter into this contract will be introduced at the next council meeting and the merits of the proposal will be then considered.

HARRIS PAYS BALANCE WITH WORTHLESS CHECK. After running up a $5 board bill at Mrs. Hilda S. Carlson's restaurant, 2027 Farnam street, Frank Harris, gave a forged check for $23 in payment and escaped with the $18 change before the check was found to be worthless.

Lewkowitz Blames His Conviction on Kansas City Officer

Maurice Lewkowitz, the former Omaha newsboy, who was recently sentenced at Kansas City, Mo., to serve ninety-nine years in prison, in connection with an assault upon Mrs. Shidder, a nurse, has written to Chief of Detectives Steve Maloney, who arrested him here. Lewkowitz still insists that he told the truth at the trial, and asserts that according to the judge's instructions to the jury, he should have been acquitted. He blames his conviction to his refusal to retain the friend of a Kansas City police officer as his lawyer, and says that as a result of his refusal, the officer took the stand and led about him. The prisoner's chief lament is that his aged parents had to hear such testimony against him.
