DISPOSE OF INDICTMENTS

Several Federal Cases Ended When Culprits Plead Guilty.

SOME ARE GIVEN SENTENCES

Others Yet Remain to Be Tried and Dates of Such Cases Will Be Set at Some Future Time.

A number of federal indictments were disposed of when the persons charged pleaded guilty before Judge Smith C. Pherson in the United States district court.

Samuel Koefelt, charged with the theft of corn from a boxcar in the local yards while the shipment was in transit, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to forty-five days in the Dodge county jail at Fremont by Judge Smith C. Pherson.

Fred Countryman, Chadron, Neb., restaurant keeper, pleaded guilty to selling liquor to Indians and was given sixty days in jail together with a $100 fine and remanded to jail until both fine and costs are paid.

Young Sang and Young Toy, both Chinamen, and W. O. Patton, colored, all of Omaha, were each sentenced to thirty days in the Douglas county jail on pleading guilty to selling and handling opium.

Philip Nugent, alias Jack Lynch, of Phoenix, Ariz., pleaded guilty to cashing a postal savings certificate not belonging to him, but because he reimbursed Postal Clerk Clara Southard for the amount of the certificate was given the minimum sentence of one year in the federal penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth, Kan.

John E. Harrison of Omaha, who is charged with stealing from a boxcar in interstate shipment, pleaded not guilty. His trial has not yet been set.

Louis French charged with introducing whiskey at the Winnebago Indian reservation, pleaded guilty to the charge. This is the third time that he has been convicted for such an offense. He received a sentence of sixty days in the Grand Island prison and was fined $200 cash.

John E. Harrison of Omaha, who is charged with stealing from a boxcar in interstate shipment, pleaded not guilty. His trial has not yet been set.

ence property today on account of the great development this part of the city has seen in the last dozen years. This plot of ground lies just one block west of the site of the new Fontenelle hotel. The property has been on the market for some years. Offers have frequently been made on the property. Real estate men say Dr. Tilden has always specified that something over half the sale price should stand in the shape of a mortgage at 8 per cent so that he might continue to have an income from it. This stipulation is said to have blocked several negotiations for the purchase of the property in the past.

CORSON IS TEACHING MANY AT Y. M. C. A. HOW TO SWIM Fancy diving and other special stunts in the water will be featured by George H. Corson, the swimming expert, in his exhibition at the Young Men's Christian association Friday evening. His five daily classes for beginners are proving very successful. Many men and boys have already learned to swim from one or two simple lessons, given free to all comers through the courtesy of the association, which is paying Mr. Corson $29 for a week's instruction. Almost 1,000 men and boys are enrolled in the classes.
