Omaha Loses the Last Game of the Lincoln Series, One to Three-

THOMAS MAKES THE LONE RUN

Many Women Frenent and Indica tions Are that They Frustrated the Ball Players, Making

Them Nervous. As has been decreed by custom since time immemorable Omaha lost the ladies' day game to Lincoln yesterday afternoon, 3 to 1. Omaha was lacking in ginger and pep, and no amount of enticement on the part of the large assembly of women could induce the members of the home to come to life. in the seventh inning symptoms of reluvenation made their appearance, but probably thinking he was doing Omaha favor. After two outs Willie Lee rosby slammed the ball for a single. Then Leater Stevenson hopped on a fast toward left, but McGaffigan got in the way of it and threw to first. Thomas had the ball beat casily, but the umpire was evidently thinking that some kind of a play was to be made at second base as he certainly didn't look toward first. When he discovered that the excitement was at first he yelled out, much to the indignation of the women, who expressed their on of his decision in unexpurgated mas was the victim of some doubtful umpiring in the first. Thomas was walked and he stole second. The pitched ball bit Chase on the leg, but for some on the ampire called the pitch a ball, sed to allow these to take his base
