

The Society Bee-Hive

BY MELLIFICIA. Friday, August 8, 1913.

WHAT is happening at the country clubs, I wonder that they should be curtailing and trimming down so in various directions? Omaha used to be regarded as almost country club mad, and it seemed that we could not possibly get too many of them, but apparently the multiplicity has reached close to the point of surfeit, for here is notice from the Field club discontinuing the table d'hote dinners on Wednesday and Sunday evenings for the rest of the summer, retaining them only for Saturday evenings, and also closing down the bowling alley altogether. I am told that last Wednesday there were only four advance reservations for dinner, and other country clubs, except only the Happy Hollow, are having the same experience, if not more so, for the Field club is the most popular of them all.

No, I won't venture to guess at the causes, but it is perhaps well to remember that an awful lot of society folks are out of town, and a lot more are now running around in automobiles every evening, starting out early and stopping here or there in this village or that neighborhood town to take dinner, coming back to the clubs later if they feel like it to join in the dancing, but without helping materially to support the club case.

SUES HIS WIFE FOR DIVORCE

FIRST WIFE SECURES DIVORCE

Jensen Sets Forth Many Instances of Alleged Cruelty in His Petition for Divorce from His Second Wife.

Dr. Robert P. Jensen, Creighton '96, who was divorced several years ago by his first wife, "formerly Miss Nellie Coad, daughter of the late John F. Coad, has sued his second wife for divorce on charges of cruelty.

Dr. Jensen alleges that five weeks after their wedding, which took place in South Omaha, June 15, 1911, Mrs. Jensen attacked him while he was asleep and beat him and disfigured him to such an extent that he was unable to go to his office for a week. Mrs. Lucile Jensen once had her husband arrested on a charge of wife desertion.

The plaintiff husband also alleges that his wife annoyed and interfered with the practice of his profession to such an extent that he was compelled to leave Omaha. He alleges in his petition that she did these things:

September 10, 1912, in Omaha, seized the telephone when an old patient was talking to him and told the patient not to call him again.

April 28, 1912, at Louisville, broke into his office while he was treating a man patient and smashed the windows and broke his instruments.

May 10, 1912, at Louisville, did damage to his office amounting to $1,000; struck him in the face with a broken glass; tried to stab him in the back and ruined his suit of clothes.

June 12, 1912, at Louisville, attacked him in the street and ruined his new Panama hat.

In September of the same year in the same town struck him in the eye with a mesh purse.

Dr. Jensen also alleges that his wife is in the habit of calling him vile names.

The plaintiff is the son of the late Dr. H. P. Jensen, a noted Omaha physician. Dr. Jensen in 1898 went to the Philippine Islands as assistant surgeon in the First Nebraska volunteer infantry.

With a yellow silk "votes for women" flag flying from the front of the canoe, the couple will start Sunday from their home on Staten Island. Their route will be up the Hudson through the Erie canal to the great lakes, thence by way of the Ashtabula canal, Beaver and Ohio rivers to the Mississippi, which they will follow to the Gulf of Mexico. They will return around the Atlantic coast, and wherever they stop they will endeavor to further the suffrage cause.

Koller Says Corn is in Bad Condition

Assistant General Manager E. S. Koller of the Burlington lines west of the Missouri has returned from a tour of inspection of the lines under his jurisdiction. Mr. Koller reports that the corn is in a pitiful state. "With immediate and heavy rains," said Mr. Koller, "the corn in the east part of the state between Omaha and Lincoln may yield an average crop, but it is practically impossible for anything but a very poor yield in other sections."

Mosquito Crop in New Jersey is Short

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—The mosquito pest around New York and New Jersey has been reduced more than a half by the anti-mosquito campaign this year, according to Dr. Alvah H. Doty, former health officer of the port of New York, who has been interested in the mosquito problem here for more than fifteen years.

On Staten Island, in New York bay, the breeding of mosquitoes has been diminished about 80 per cent and the malarial variety has been practically exterminated, according to Dr. Doty, by swamp drainage, aided by an unusually dry spring. Similar work on the Long Island, New Jersey, Massachusetts and Connecticut coasts has brought about a reduction of about 80 per cent in the breeding.

Now, on Saturday we intend to make a host of new friends—

If the tales here told will not attract, nothing will, for we have never made more meritorious offerings.

TALE 1—And this is really mainly a tub tale for it tells of tub dresses—Dresses for Infants, up to the full legal age limit. In other words, dresses for wee bairnies—tiny tots—misses and missies from their advent up to 18 years old—BIG GIRLS AND SMALL WOMEN—Now the Meat in the Coconut. One big lot for all ages up to 6 years, will be sold at 29c. Many worth $1.00.

SECOND LOT—Big variety, many makes will be sold at 49c. Very many worth $2.00. These for children of larger growth.

THIRD LOT—Finer fabrics, dainty in style, wide variety, 89c, and if you have bought dresses for children, you have paid $3.50 for poorer than this lot contains.

FOURTH LOT—Biggest and best. Biggest assortment for biggest of girls and biggest of all values, $1.49 for the pick. Scores similar sold at $5.00. And most of these can be tubbed, for they are made of materials which can stand tubbing.

Our full force of saleswomen will be ready to wait on you at 8:00 a. m.—thanks to the last legislature. We believe 9 hours is a long enough day for women, or men either, for that matter. (You can help to make it a permanent institution, but will you? Regardless of what Cain thought—You Are Your Brother's Keeper, and Your Sister's, Also.)

A truce to sermonizing, let's have another Tub Tale. This one for the fully grown-ups—announcing the most remarkable sale of Women's Dresses ever held by us—not all tub dresses either, but summery, shimmery, many of them dainty and delicate, suited for practically all occasions from the useful and ordinary to the dress-up or festive time.

This will be a sort of a RACK HIT sale, for there will be again 4 divisions on 4 large racks. Whichever rack you hit, you will hit a great bargain.

RACK 1—Dresses for women, tub and other kinds, considered good value at $5.00, Saturday at $1.19.

RACK 2—Splendid assortment every color and every size (except extreme), hundreds sold this season at $7.50, Saturday, $1.59.

RACK 3—Beautiful dresses, indeed; gowns the most aristocratic name, applies in many cases, sold previously up to $10, Saturday, $2.49.

RACK 4—Elegant, prettily trimmed, splendidly made, costly materials, stylish, really superior (adjective). Dresses sold before up to $20.00—indeed you'll easily find some that sold even higher, Saturday, $3.75 each.

Here also the full force (barring the vacationers) will be on hand to serve you at 8:00 a. m.

Silk Story, Saturday, the 9th, at 9

After you have filled your fill of dresses for mother and family, hie to the Silk Section.

Silk which sold, and lots of 'em, at 59c, 75c, 85c $1.00, $1.25—

39 cents Saturday—Remember, 9 o'clock, Starting Time—

Did You Ever Take a Picture?

Art thou going away? Hast thou been? Dost keep photos or collect postals? If so, list to this tale—We bought a big lot of photo books, the better kind. Some loose leaved, others not, many leather bound and well bound. We're going to sell them Saturday, and your chance to get one will be as good as any one's, 4 lots here also. Most books hold hundreds of cards.

Special Sale on Undermuslins, 2d Floor—All Day Long.

SILK GLOVE SALE SATURDAY
69c for Elbow Lengths.

WE WILL CLOSE AT 6:00 P. M. We want to close all the time at that hour, but we cannot afford to do it unless the three big department stores will do so. If they agree, we believe most of the other stores will. What if the haberdashers don't? Let some of the small stores keep open if they want to. Give them a chance to live. We will close. You can help us. Will you?
