While Crazy Dr. Dabney Dissects His Live Subject

MARIETTA, O., Aug. 13.—With the commitment to Longview asylum in Cincinnati today of Dr. William R. Dabney, there has come to light one of the most remarkable chapters in medical history. Not until the crazed surgeon had undertaken to perform vivisection upon a patient was it realized by the attendants in the operating room that madness was directing the arm and scalpel as it sought to uncover vital organs.

It was the death on the operating table of an aged and wealthy farmer, Jacob F. Schaud, that brought Dr. Dabney's career to a climax. Schaud had a tumor growth on his upper jaw. He consulted Dr. Dabney and was assured that a minor operation would remove the disfigurement. Besides Dr. Dabney and the nurse, there were present when Schaud lapsed into unconsciousness under the influence of an anesthetic, Dr. C. S. Ballard and J. B. Fennore.

When the two doctors had left, according to the story of the nurse, who had remained trembling beside the unconscious patient, Dr. Dabney began to dissect the face and throat of the unconscious man. Both sides of the face were laid open and deep incisions were made in the throat. But the skill of the mad surgeon was shown in the dexterity with which he avoided inflicting a fatal wound on his living subject.

WILSON TALKS ON CURRENCY

President Makes a Statement to the Democratic House Caucus. MORE LEGISLATION FOR FARMER Should Be Afforded Means of Handling Financial Needs Easily and Without Any Great Expense.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—President Wilson issued a statement before the democratic house caucus resumed consideration of the administration bill today, announcing he believed it not advisable to amend the measure at present with provisions for rural credits, but to postpone that phase of banking reform until the December session, when the government commission now studying the subject in Europe will be reported.

Special Machinery Needed.

Such proposals were not adopted because such credits could be only imperfectly provided for in such a measure. The scope and character of the bill, its immediate chief purpose, could not be made to reach as far as the special interests of the farmer require. "Special machinery and a distinct system of banking must be provided for, if rural credits are to be successful and adequately supplied. A government commission is now in Europe studying the interesting and highly successful methods which have been employed in several countries of the old world and its report will be made to congress at a regular session next winter. It is confidently to be expected that the congress will at that session act on the recommendations of that report and establish complete and adequate systems of rural credits. There is no subject more important to the welfare of the industrial development of the United States; there is no reform in which I would myself feel it a greater honor or privilege to take part, because I should feel that it was a service to the whole country of the first magnitude and significance.

Articles of Impeachment.

One.—That Governor Sulzer in filing his statement of campaign expenses, set forth that his entire receipts were $5,649 and his expenditures $7,734; that this statement "was false and was intended by him to be false and an evasion of the statutes of the state"; that his list of contributions ranged in amount from $100 to $2,500; that the governor's false statement made "wrongfully, wilfully and corruptly," caused "great scandal and reproach of the governor of the state of New York."

Unlawful of Duties.

Three.—That Governor Sulzer, "unmindful of the duties of his office and in violation of his oath of office, was guilty of mal and corrupt conduct in his office as governor and was guilty of bribing witnesses." The specific charge is that while the Frawley committee was investigating the governor's campaign accounts he "fraudulently induced" three witnesses (his campaign manager, a personal friend and a stock broker) "to withhold their testimony from said committee" and that in so doing he "acted corruptly and was guilty of a felony."

GOVERNOR SULZER RESISTS REMOVAL FROM THE OFFICE

GOVERNOR SULZER RESISTS REMOVAL FROM THE OFFICE

Two hundred spectators, remnant of a throng that surged in overwhelming numbers through the capital last night, walked out of the chamber with the legislators. They had sat or stood up all night to see the governor impeached. The heaviest guard of uniformed police ever sent into the capitol, so armed with night sticks and revolvers, walked out, leaving the assembly chamber to solitude.

Among the Contributors.

Among the contributors mentioned are Jacob H. Schiff, $2,500; Abram L. Sikus, $500; William F. McComb, $500; Henry Morgenstau, $1,000; John Lynn, $500; Theodore W. Myers, $100; Lyman A. Spaulding, $100; Edward F. O'Dwyer, $100; John W. Cox, $500; Frank V. Strauss company, $1,000; John T. Deoling, $1,000, and cash aggregating $2,800.

Gov. Sulzer Resists Removal from Office

The governor consented to permit Mrs. Sulzer's declaration to become public late last night, only when he found that he could not prevent it and that it lived as a rumor on the lips of every member of the assembly in the city. A close friend of both Governor and Mrs. Sulzer so asserted today.

In her husband's behalf before the court of impeachment, tell her story in detail and submit to examination by hostile lawyers, or take the hazard that the impeachers will prove their case, the governor's friends believe. Either her reputation or her husband's, these friends fear must suffer. They say she will take the stand if she has no other choice. They add that she brought the governor over a week ago to permit her to tell her story to the public.

What attitude Governor Sulzer will take in this matter, as well as toward the question of vacating his office when the senate should reach the articles of impeachment, brought forth wide divergences of views among his friends and opponents today.

The majority leaders were reasonably certain, they said, that he would attempt to continue to hold office, but would recognize what they asserted was the law and give way to Lieutenant Governor Glynn.

Louis Marshall, the governor's counsel, is quoted as placing a different interpretation on the law. According to the quoted expression of Marshall's views, the language of the constitution is not clear on this point and Governor Sulzer could give himself the benefit of the doubt by refusing to vacate the office.

He said he had found no such check.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 13.—Central Nebraska is again in the grip of a heat wave today. MORE RAIN HELPS THE CROPS

Most of the Corn Belt of the State Gets Soaking. HEAVY TO THE NORTHWEST Farmers Now Say that the Corn in the Eastern Part of the State is Safe and that a Crop is Assured.

A good heavy general rain fell in parts of Nebraska Tuesday that again helps the growing corn crop. The territory north of the Platte river received good rains, while the western part of the state received the first rain in weeks.

The Northwest reported that rain fell along their lines from Fremont to Long Pine and extended north to Plainville and south to Albion. The Albion line that runs south of Norfolk between Oakland and Seneca received heavy rains the entire distance. The block where this precipitation fell is all in a good corn belt and, as that part of the belt has been getting more rain than any other part of the state, the Northwest predicts that it will be practically impossible for any kind of hot and dry weather to ruin the crop.

The Union Pacific reported heavy rains along the first district from Omaha to Grand Island and light rains along the second district from Grand Island to North Platte. The rain in the first district will help crops materially, but the rain in the second district arrived too late to remedy the serious situation.

The neighborhood of Beatrice and Wahoo the Union Pacific reported precipitation varying from one-quarter to an inch. The Stromsburg and Norfolk branches also reported rains of more or less general nature, while the lines running to St. Paul and Loup City reported rains that amounted to an inch and two inches respectively Monday.

North Platte reported light rains and showers fell all over the division as far as Ogallala. This is the first rain received in the extreme west portions of the state and arrived too late to save the corn crop.

Women of Eight States Asking for the Right to Vote

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Women voters, representing 4,000,000 of their sex in many states, gathered today as delegates to a three days' conference of the National Council of Women voters. Plans will be laid for the extension of universal suffrage in states now extending the franchise to women, and ways and means for the prosecution of a vigorous campaign will be discussed. When the conference went into session, delegates from eight suffrage states and the territory of Alaska were in attendance.

The women will hold both morning and afternoon sessions, but the public will be excluded, not even women in sympathy with the cause, but natives of non-suffrage states being admitted. The only exceptions will be tomorrow, when the conferees will appear before the house rules committee to ask for the creation of a woman suffrage committee at that body and Friday night when a mass meeting will be held in a downtown theater.

States represented at the opening conference included California, Colorado, Idaho, Illinois, Kansas, Oregon, Utah and Wyoming.

Quick, Inexpensive Way to bleach Skin

(Ladies' Favorite Magazine.) There's no more dependable bleach than buttermilk. Dependable not only because of its effectiveness, but because it can be used with entire safety on any skin. Applied daily to a rough, red, freckled or sallow skin, it will gradually chase away the ugly tints and make the skin as soft as a rose petal. The most convenient form in which buttermilk may be used for this purpose is the presalted buttermilk paste. Most any druggist will have this in stock. The best way to use this is to put a liberal coating over the face, neck, arms or hands, rubbing it in gently while applying, and when dry taking it off with soap and water.

The cleansing power of presalted buttermilk paste, its freedom from grease, its economy (one application costing less than a cent), are other reasons for using it. By keeping the pores scrupulously clean it is an excellent blackhead preventive.—Advertisement.
