Stock Shipments Early to Avoid Car Shortage on Roads

Early orders to move range stock into Omaha and other river markets are being received by the railroads this week. In a few weeks the business will be heavy and it is probable that several of the roads that carry the bulk of the business will experience car shortage. Those shippers in Wyoming and the Dakotas. who have been having ideal weather con ditions, are shipping their stock as soon as possible in order to avoid any possible shortage. Some of the sellers hold their stock until later in order to receive the advantages of the increased prices, but railroad officials are trying to discourage the tendency this year because they say prices are likely to rise and the shippers will be delayed by car

Chicago Women Try It on the Reporters

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.-Chicago women voters blossomed out yesterday as stump speakers before an nudience of reporters. For several weeks they have been holding classes in public speaking at the headquarters of the woman's party, but no outsider has been permitted in the room. A group of newspapermen who had been refused admission to former classes were gathered outside the party headquarters when Mrs. Charlotte Rhodus, president of the organization, invited tham in-"Come right in." she beamed, "the women need practice and they might as well start in on you. I guess everybody concerned can stand the ordeal." She hustled the half dozen reporters into the small hall where they did not make much of a showing among the tiers of unoccupied seats. "I wish there were more goats for maiden speeches, but I guesa you'll have to do for the present," said the president as she led the first speaker to the platform.

A dozen women made short talks on various political subjects. Each appeared nervous at the start, but gained confidence as she became enthusiastic about her theme and finished with the delivery of a veteran.

The women who graduated from the class will be used to organize and arouse departments on the amount of money interest in the wards and a second class that will be needed for each department of beginners will start in next week.

Hoctor and Department Heads Will Meet This Afternoon at City Hall to Discuss Finances

City Attorney Henry C. Murphy yes terday afternoon refused to permit the street railway company to remove the stones on Q street lying between the tracks and the rails of the street car company. The company had already crushed and removed several carloads o the stone, which Contractor George Parks of the National Construction company had agreed to pay the city 30 cents streets, and intends to enlarge the build- a yard for, it is said. Marle Pavlik, a pretty young woman iving in the Brown park district, has appealed to the police against her former over, Frank Jindra, who in a fit of jeal usy against a rival withdrew his affection and all the presents which in the haloyon days of love's young dream he bestowed on her. Accompanied by her mother, Miss Pavilk called at the police station. There she told the story of the pleasant evenings when she and Jindra were lovers twain. Later, however, another admirer came on the scene and she says Frank grew jealous. She says he threatened her with a gun. One night while she and her new admirer held sweet converse, she says Jindra came down unexpectedly and demanded back the presents he had given her, including jewelry and furniture. She says he got some of the jewelry by force and she told him to come back for the furniture. Then, she says, he obtained a writ of replevin for the rest from Justice of the Peace Collins. She filed a charge of assault and battery against her whilom swaln.

Wrenowich a Nemesis. George Wrenowich, after using his best endeavors to have Peter Wozniak, a saloonkeeper, pinched for selling liquor at last aucceeded in getting action against Wozniak by suing him in Judge Collins court for an $8 pair of trousers which Wrenowich claims Wozniak destroyed. The complaint does not specify just how the said trousers were destroyed. Wozniak says that Wrenowich fell out with him some time ago. Later he says Wrenowich obtained a bottle of beer somewhere and took it to the police station alleging that Wozniak had sold it to him. The police disbelieved Wrenowich, who then worked out the plan of the destroyed trousers to get even with Wozniak, it is said. Wozniak denies all knowledge of said trousers.

Department Heads to Meet. Mayor Hoctor, the city council, the city attorney and the heads of the departments of the city will meet this afternoon for a conference on the proposed levy ordinance about to be drawn. The idea of the conference is to hear the estimates of the heads of the different during the coming year. The conference is in the nature of a budget caucus. One of the propositions advocated by Mayor Hoctor is the reduction of the firemen's pay. It is the contention of his honor that the pay now received is too high. Business Men of Omaha Favor the Gas Franchise Compromise

To the Users of Gas in the City of Omaha: We believe that the proper and speedy settlement of the gas controversy s of the greatest importance to the people of Omaha. Individually, and as citizens, we have given the proposed gas franchise careful consideration and recommend that the same be approved by the voters at the election August 19 for the following reasons: It is in effect an extension of the franchise rights of the gas company for but twenty years the present franchise has over five years yet to run; it is immeasurably superior to the present franchise from the standpoint of the consumer, because it will secure an immediate reduction of 15 cents per 1,000 feet in the price of gas-a saving to the consumers of over $500,000 during the remainder of the term of the present franchise; it is not in perpetuity; it is not exclusive; it will be neither bar nor obstacle to municipal ownership, because the city will be free at all times to build and operate a city gas works, or to condemn and appropriate the present gas plant; it will not increase the price the city will be required to pay for the present gas plant, if the city purchases or condemns the same, because provides that in such case "no value shall be allowed for the franchise;" it ecures to the city the power of regulation over future gas rates by short erm contracts; and it will enable the gas company to make extensions and iditions as the growth of the city requires.

The growth of On.aha demands progressive public utilities. We cannot exect a utility corporation either to obtain or invest large amounts of capital

We know that the course of Bigation in the federal courts is slow and the esults uncertain. We know that at the expiration of the present franchisenore than five years from now-no court will uphold any effort which the city night make to force the gas company to sell gas for less than cost plus a asonable return on the fair value of its property.

We therefore recommend that this franchise be voted for as the best settleent of the gas controversy; rine & mammer bry woods Co., by Sunderland Bros., by J. A. Sunder-
