JOE TINKER READY TO QUIT

Something Doing, He Says, if Herrmann Doesn't Change Policies.

HE REFUSES TO BE "GAGGED"

Manager of Reds Asserts He Would Rather Go Out to Oregon Farm Than Handle Club Not Backed Up by Owners.

BOSTON, Aug. 17.—Joe Tinker, manager of the Cincinnati National league team, is ready to quit, he says, unless President Garry Herrmann of the club changes its policies.

Tinker today received a telegram from President Herrmann notifying him that he had violated base ball law by publicly airing the differences in the club and requesting him to make no further statements at present. In refusing to be "gagged," as he termed it, Manager Tinker said:

"I realize that I must take a stand with regard to the management of this job or step down and out. The showing of the team has been a great disappointment to all concerned and I have held off as long as I could because I felt that I am not a success myself, so far as I have gone; that the club has not been making money, owing to its low standing in the race, and therefore that it was up to me to stand for some things that I would not otherwise have endured."

"But when I found that our players were being sold outright to minor league clubs without options, and that I was constantly being urged to cut off players against my best judgment without waiting for a chance to make a trade which would help the team, I decided that I must make a stand."

"If this statement does not meet with the approval of President Herrmann I can't help it and he has the right to let me out at any time. I would rather go out to my fruit farm in Oregon than try to handle a club when I am not backed up by the owners. So long as I continue as manager I shall not let another player go unless I know just what he will do."

"I greatly admire and respect President Herrmann personally, but his ideas of building up a ball club do not correspond with mine."

TEAM CAN'T PLAY WITH SEVEN GAME FORFEITED

MISOULA, Mont., Aug. 17.—The Salt Lake City team of the Union Association lost a base ball game to Missoula in a peculiar manner today.

In the thirteenth inning, with the score a 6 to 6 tie, Captain McCloskey and Fielder Huselman were ordered off the grounds by Umpire Elsey for protesting a decision. As the team had used up all its extra men as pinch hitters this left it with only seven players and the game was forfeited to Missoula.

LARMON BEATS HARRY KOCH

High School Lad Wins in Challenge Round at Happy Hollow Club.

SWARTZ WINS CONSOLATIONS

Adams and McCague Beat Larmon Brothers in the Doubles Finals and Will Meet Koch and McConnell.

Harry Koch, present city and state tennis champion, went down to defeat Saturday afternoon at the Happy Hollow invitation tournament before the unmerciful smashing game of Russell Larmon, the high school crack, in the challenge round 6-1, 10-8, 6-4.

The playing of Larmon was sensational, to say the least. He had the city champ at his mercy all through the first set and took it 6-1. Koch strengthened in the next set and put up something like his regular game, but Larmon was right and forced the title holder to the limit, and lost it only after he had gone into the deuce. Larmon came back strong in the
