GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Decline of Corn Market Will Bring a Rush of Offerings.

SURPLUS CARRIED IS HEAVIER

Tellow Cereal Held in Reserve This Year Amounts to About Twice as Much as to Ordinarily Held Back.

OMAHA, Aug. 20, 19:3.
With good pastores for the stock to feed upon, the high-priced corn will be held for market, and in case of price decilines for the golden cerval there will be a rush of the graft now held in the hunca of farmers, as well as in the sountry elevators of the great corn belt. Countrymen invariably sell on declining markets. Many of the trade advance the opinion that a smaller supply of corn will mean a smaller demand.

that a smaller supply of corn will mean a smaller demand. A local statistician suggests there is still 84,000,000 bushels of corn in this country on the farms and in country elevators, which is over 200,000,000 bushels more than ever carried over before. This same that-istician in reviewing the prospective con-crop places it at 2,352,000,000 bushels, but this is contingent on the crop ging through without being damaged after this

Whether the selling of corn was led by the larger men of the traue, or whether scattered interests were pressing the grain upon the market, could not be learned yesterday, as the traue was big and commission houses and brokers were to be seen on both sides of the market.

The Patten crawd were on the selling side in a limited way only yesterday. Cash corn was ic lower.

Although the business in wheat was Although the business in wheat was amail yesterday, the feeling was nervous and prices closed lower. While the professionals gave the lower temperatures and rains in the apring wheat beit of the United States and Canada considerable attention they refused to buy a great deal of wheat. Cash wheat was unchanged to 'ac lower.

Oats shared the weakness with wheat and corn, though showing less relative

Lows and helfers do not show very much change, but the feeling if anything was a little weak and the trade slow. Perhaps the market could best be do acribed as slow to a shade lower than yesterday.

Heavy feeders continue rather slow, with the tendency easier, while on the other hand the demand for highter feeders and stockers is very active, with prices firm. Pretty much everything was sold early in the forenoon.

Conditions More Propitious and List Bohemian Catholic Turners Have National Meeting.

MEXICAN NEWS IS REASSURING A GREAT PROGRAM ARRANGED

Persons Expected to Be Held-Firemen to Get John, Today.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Conditions in the stock market were more propitious today and the list responded by regalining the ground lost yesterday, although it did not hold this advantage throughout the seasion. Relief from alarm over affairs in Mexico was the most definite force in formulating sentiment. Another important influence was cessation of heavy selling by Europe. European operations here were on a reduced scale, and were about equally divided between buying and selling.
