

Nebraska BAD GRUB AT BRIDGE CAMP

Pure Food Inspector Finds Supplies Not Worth Cooking. SERVES NOTICE ON THE COOK Refrigerator in Bad Condition, Meat Tainted and Canned Goods Spoiled, but Caution is Issued by Officials.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 20.—(Special.)—The attention of Pure Food Commissioner Harman has been called to the condition existing at the cook camp at the Ashland bridge, where the Burlington railway is putting in a new bridge. An inspector was sent to investigate the matter and discovered that the place needed looking into. The refrigerator contained tainted meat and canned goods unfit to be used. The boss of the cook camp was ordered to use greater care in keeping his meat and other goods from the flies and to keep it covered. The inspector was told that a portion of the canned goods had been bought in Lincoln and that when purchased the cans showed to be swelled because of the spoiled condition of the contents. An investigation is being made.

The railway commission has received information from an unofficial source that the railroads are considering the matter of withdrawing their application to the Interstate Commerce commission for permission to increase the minimum rate of carload shipments of flour to 40,000 pounds. The application for the increase brought a strong protest from Nebraska millers who ship flour out of the state.

Opposes Tax Levy. W. J. Courtright of Fremont has appealed to the supreme court from the district court of Dodge county denying the right of the assessor of that county to tax him for an automobile which he says he did not own on April 1. A copy of the assessment shows that Mr. Courtright was assessed $250 on all personal property. After the assessment had been made the automobile assessment of $1,000 was added. Courtright appealed to the board of commissioners of the county and they upheld the assessor. He then took the matter to the district court and the court upheld the board. Now he appeals to the supreme court.

HEMINGFORD, Neb., Aug. 20.—(Special Telegram.)—The three children aged 2, 5 and 8 years, respectively, of J. B. Pitman, a farmer living four miles north of here, were burned to death and the home destroyed this morning as a result of a gasoline stove explosion. Mrs. Pitman, who was getting dinner at the time and who was surrounded by the children, was so badly burned that she is not expected to live. Mr. Pitman, who was working in the field, ran home when he saw the smoke pouring out of the doors and windows, but only reached there in time to save the baby, which was in a room the farthest away from the kitchen. In doing so he was overcome by the smoke and fire so that he narrowly escaped.

WOMAN GIVEN PARDON FOR MURDER ON MARRIAGE

SEWARD, Neb., Aug. 20.—(Special.)—Jessie Carmon, a former Seward girl, who, while a resident of Sheridan, Wyo., shot James McCoy, was convicted of manslaughter by the district court of Johnson county, Wyoming, to which the case was taken on change of venue. Her sentence was an indeterminate one, of from four to fourteen years. She commenced to serve her sentence in 1911. On account of the Cheyenne (Wyo.) prison not having a woman's ward the woman was taken to the prison at Carson City, Colo. After being there a year she was paroled to her parents, who reside at Beaver Crossing, this county. She was married Tuesday, August 19, to James W. Teal, ex-sheriff of Johnson county, Wyoming. He was sheriff during the trial of Jessie Carmon and had charge of her. He is a widower with two small children and is in the ivory business at Buffalo, Wyo. The bride is 28 and the groom 44 years of age. The governor of Wyoming pardoned the woman on her marriage to Teal.

FINE HOGS ARE DYING; NO SERUM TO BE HAD

ORD, Neb., Aug. 20.—(Special.)—Hog cholera is ravaging a number of fine herds of swine in this vicinity and already thousands of dollars' worth have died. The disease seems to be prevalent among unimmunized herds of fancy hogs. W. L. McNett of this city has lost twenty-three head of fine hogs, nearly all registered animals. J. W. Mather has lost quite a number, while Nels Peterson has had sixty-five of his fine herd succumb to the disease. J. D. Tolson is also another heavy loser. None of the herds has been immunized against cholera, with the exception of several herds in the Hather herd, which Mr. Hather exhibited at Chicago last fall. Hog raisers are greatly excited and there is a great demand for cholera serum, which is almost impossible to secure at the present time.

A few fields are entirely and some are spotted, but a good many will make an average yield. The sand flats will have a big crop. The worst damage is in the southeastern part of the county. LEAGUERS HAVE TO HURRY

North Platte Defeats Columbus Men, Five to Four.

ARTLEY KNOCKED FROM BOX Bono Takes Place and Stops Scoring—Norfolk and Fremont Play to Tie, Walworth Opposing Conway.

NORTH PLATTE, Neb., Aug. 20.—(Special Telegram.)—North Platte defeated the Columbus state league team here today, 5 to 4. The game was hotly contested from start to finish and with men on base in every inning, there was plenty of fireworks. Columbus started the game with Artley in the box, but he was knocked out in the second and relieved by Bono, who stopped the scoring. With the score 5 to 4 in the ninth, Krann went out, third to first. Bono singled to left. Reed, a pinch hitter, went in to bat for Bono and struck out, as also did Rondeau, ending the game. Bright's fielding of Rondeau's Texas leaguer in the fifth with two on was the feature. Score: Columbus... 0 0 1 1 0 0 0 2 0-4 7 1 North Platte 3 2 0 0 0 0 0 0-5 10 1 Batteries: North Platte, McClure and Danze; Columbus, Artley, Bono and Grainger. Water Users Asking For Legislation

SCOTT'S BLUFF, Neb., Aug. 20.—(Special.)—Five hundred water users under the government project have placed in definite form the legislation which they deem necessary for the success of the project. They ask a definite and fixed policy of payment, and terms which the settlers would be able to meet. They recommend that no charge be made for two years, and after that, for five years the charge be $1.00 per acre. The next five years it is proposed to pay $2 per acre, and then $3 per acre until final payment is made and the project becomes the property of the water users.

Kearney County Corn Crop is a Failure

MINDEN, Neb., Aug. 20.—The corn crop is as near a total failure in Kearney county as it can be. The stalks are being cut up for feed. Corn binders are running night and day. Hay is very light. The only comparison that is made is with the year 1910. Corn is being bought at 30 cents a bushel and ground corn is bought at $1.00 per 100 pounds. No higher price has been known in the history of the county. Wheat is not being sold, farmers keeping it for feeding purposes. Farmers are quite optimistic and look forward to better years, believing that the cycle of dry years have now passed and wet ones are to follow.

MONUMENT TO MEMORY OF VETERANS OF WARS

MINDEN, Neb., Aug. 20.—(Special.)—The veterans' committee, consisting of J. R. Maxon, C. P. This monument has been planned for about two years and the contract is now let for its purchase. It will have all the names of the veterans of the civil and Spanish-American wars inscribed in raised letters. The number of veterans who have resided in Kearney county surprised those looking the matter up. All told, there will be 62 names on the monument.

ORD, Neb., Aug. 20.—(Special.)—Efforts are being made by the business men of Arcadia to secure paving for the main street of Ord. WESTERN IOWA FIELD YIELDS CORN FIFTEEN FEET HIGH

That the corn crop in western Iowa has not been affected by the rather hot and dry weather that has prevailed for so long a period is indicated by a stalk of corn brought in yesterday by John Thomas, a tenant on one of the farms of Dr. Mel J. Bellinger, located several miles northeast of Council Bluffs. The stalk was fifteen feet high and bears an ear of corn a foot long hanging downward nine feet from the base or ground line. There are cornfields in the vicinity of Council Bluffs whose owners are confident that they will yield seventy bushels to the acre. There has been sufficient moisture, and the rich soil and intense heat has done the rest. Stock Tanks Made to Order. We carry in stock and build all kinds of stock tanks in order, but of whom else. See Dr. King's New Discovery, which helps them. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Free by Boston Drug Co.—Advertisement.

HOWARD HOLDS UP THE PAY

Auditor Refuses to Issue Warrants on Brian's Vouchers.

NEW MOVE IN INSURANCE FIGHT Employees of Department Under L. G. Brian Will Have to Wait for Pay Until Courts Move.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 20.—(Special.)—Auditor W. B. Howard will not issue warrants on vouchers signed by the new insurance commissioner L. G. Brian, and consequently the job holders in the department will have to work without pay, and in addition pay their own expenses. This might not be so bad were it not that the supreme court may decide that the new law is unconstitutional and that all the hard work and the money paid out for expenses will be for naught. The same condition which exists regarding the salary of the insurance commissioner, L. G. Brian and that of the two young ladies working under him, Miss Lillian Peters and the Nettie Kades. However, in the case of the young ladies who held positions under L. G. Howard when he had charge of the insurance department, L. G. Brian has offered to issue their vouchers up to the time the department was under his control, July 31, or to August 1, if they desire, which was the time they were notified that their appointments under the auditor's department expired. Vouchers were made out for both Miss Peters and Miss Marks with the request by Mr. Howard that they sign them so that warrants could be drawn for the pay they were entitled to. Miss Marks recently signed her voucher and received her warrant, but Miss Peters has so far refused to sign any voucher which would contain the name of Auditor Howard in order to get the money coming to her earned while she was working for Mr. Howard in the auditor's department. Auditor Howard will refuse to issue warrants to employees of the insurance department on vouchers signed by Mr. Brian as insurance commissioner for the reason of the fact that by so doing he will be recognizing the rights of the new insurance board when he has filed in court an application for a rehearing of the case wherein he was deprived of the department, on the grounds that the law as passed by the last legislature is unconstitutional and that the bill passed by the two houses is not the same bill that was signed by the governor.

Council Bluffs Business Men Raise a Protest On Walk Display

A distinct note of protest was heard yesterday among business men concerning the action of the city council instructing City Solicitor Stuart to draft a new ordinance prohibiting all displays of merchandise on the sidewalks for sale purposes. The action of the council was upon recommendation of the Retail Merchants' association, and the initiative is thus altogether with the merchants themselves. It was asserted yesterday, however, that there was only a bare quorum of the Merchants' association at the meeting when the resolution calling for the new ordinance was passed, and that the action did not thus represent the sentiment of a majority of the merchants who are members of the association. It was stated yesterday that the council would be asked to defer action until the merchants are given an opportunity to express themselves. If the majority of the merchants do not acquiesce, it is said the minority will gracefully acquiesce. That there has been complaint and excellent grounds for it concerning the obstructions of the sidewalks by second-hand dealers is admitted. These men have piled up masses of nondescript and unsightly-looking stuff on the sidewalks to a degree that they have really obstructed the walks. On the other hand, many merchants have wares that cannot be satisfactorily displayed inside the stores. This particularly refers to hardware stores, where such things as lawn mowers fall to attract attention unless placed on the walk in front of the stores. "Such displays are in the interest of cheaper cost of living," said a retailer yesterday. "There should never be any provisions displayed on the streets, but where an attractive sidewalk display is one of the chief means by which reduced prices to the consumer may be brought about, I am certain it is in the interest of the poor man to display on the streets real bargains he is in need of, and I believe the poorer classes were distinctly harmed when some of the shoe dealers were forced to discontinue displaying bargains on the streets. "I know of one instance where fifty cases of shoes were bought of an Omaha wholesaler at less than $1 a pair and sold within a few days when they were displayed on the street with bargain prices marked on them. Another lot of even better bargains was purchased soon after by the same firm, when the sidewalk displays were prohibited, and the stock was not sold for months. This display attracted attention and the prices made the sale. This was a positive benefit to the poor man and did not in any degree harm the regular trade. We want to attract trade, and that such displays do is evidenced by the fact that half of that shoe stock was sold to out-of-town people."

CENTRAL CITY FAMILY IS SEEKING LOST SON

An appeal that greatly interested Sheriff Lindsey was received yesterday from Sheriff Scudder of Merrick county, Nebraska, asking him to assist in locating Joseph Trainor, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Trainor of Central City, Neb. The information is that the young man left home on the evening of July 3 last and that his parents have received no tidings from him since. The Nebraska official says the aged parents desire "to see and talk with their son and set their minds at ease concerning him." They offer $100 reward to any person who will put them into communication with him. They describe the youth as being five feet nine inches tall, sandy complexion and red hair, which he commonly wears in a bushy style. There are several scars on the back of his neck below the hair. The Nebraska sheriff says Joe is a good boy, but that his conduct now is breaking the hearts of his parents. He begs Sheriff Lindsey as a brother officer to make every effort to assist in getting word to the boy and asks him to secure the co-operation of the local police. The reward will be immediately paid when the boy is placed in communication with his parents.
