Pitches Twenty-One Consecutive Scoreless Innings in a Double-Header.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21-A sequence of mummal events and performances marked go eday. August 12, as a red letter day base ball history. William Whittaker of the Keekuk Central association team pitched twenty-one consecutive scoreless nnings in a double-header between the Waterloo and Keokuk teams, But fiA hits were made off Whittaker and his erument's credit in time of war or other team won both games by a 1 to 0 score. The first game went nine innings and the second twelve. In major league base ball, Reulbach of the Chicago Cubs, on September 26, 1608, pitched a doubleneader consisting of two nine-inning games against Brooklyn, winning both without giving the Superbas a run. Dur-ing the same year Watter Johnson of the Washington club shut out the New York Americans un September 4, 5 and 7, pitched twenty-seven consecutive in-hings without allowing a run.

London club of the eastern association was pitching a double-header of eightsen innings in which he shut out the New Haven team without a run and allowed but eight hits. At the same hour the Toronto and Jersey City clubs of the In-ternational league were playing a twin-twining scoreless its game in which Pitcher Hearne of the Toronto auth twirjed the full distance, allowing but six hits. Minor league history shows that this twenty-iming scoreless game was duplicated by the Cleburne and Fort Worth clubs of the Texas league on July 1, 1966, when, as in the case of Jersey

Service starts at 11 o'clock in the morning. At fifteen minutes of the opening service not a soul is in the church, but when services commence every one is in his or her seat and no one ever comes late, unless on account of some great ac cident.

Leaving off from his experiences in Great Britain Dr. Marshall gave a brief outline of the rise of Christianity on the British Isies. He told of the early invasion of Romans and the beginning of Christianity and then of its downfall and gradual rise from Paganism until today it stands out as the greatest Christian center of all Europe.
