ROW OVER MONOPOLY CLAUSE

Senator Kenyon's Amendment Re-committed After Debate.

BRISTOW ATTACKS M'REYNOLDS

Senator Says Harriman Case Was Handled in Way that Deprived Public of All Benefit of Disposition.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Free raw wool was agreed to in the senate today without a roll call. No objection was made to ratification of the paragraph, though republican senators will later demand roll calls on pending substitutes for the woolen schedules when the bill leaves the committee of the whole.

The finance committee amendment providing that free wool should not become operative until December 1, 1913, also was agreed to.

The entire free list was approved with the exception of paragraph relating to work of art, which was recommitted.

Senator Kenyon's amendment to automatically free list products of a concern adjudged a monopoly by the courts precipitated a prolonged debate, with the conclusion of which it was referred to the finance committee. A division of opinion among republicans and democrats was developed.

Senator Cummins declared that necessity for free listing monopoly products would disappear when the Sherman law was amended to send offenders to jail and when courts appointed receivers to sell monopoly properties so that the guilty ones could not continue to profit.

"How can monopolies be ended when the supreme court declares a combination violates the law as it did in the Union Pacific case and then the attorney general goes around to devise a plan with those interested to keep the monopoly alive?" demanded Senator Bristow. He added that it seemed to him that in the Standard Oil, the tobacco case and the Union Pacific case the Department of Justice had connived to continue their monopoly.

Later Bristow explained, he did not charge the attorney general with seeking to annul the dissolution, but charged that the result of the attorney general's consultation with railroad interests had been to deprive the public of any benefits from the dissolution.

HECK WILL INVESTIGATE MURDER OF MISSIONARY

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 25.—The United States embassy here has dispatched Lewis Heck, acting vice consul, to open an inquiry into the circumstances attending the murder last week of Dr. Charles H. Holbrook, an American missionary, at Soussehr, Asiatic Turkey.

According to the official reports, Dr. Holbrook, who was a native of Lynn, Mass., was sleeping in the garden surrounding the house of an Armenian, who had been paying attentions to some Turkish woman. Two Turks, determined to punish the Armenian, forced their way into the garden and shot the sleeping doctor Holbrook in mistake for the owner of the house.

This version of the affair is discredited by private advices to the Bible house, which indicate that the murder was a deliberate one.

NEW RECORD RECEIPT OF CATTLE AT KANSAS CITY

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 25.—Thirty-eight thousand cattle were received today at the Kansas City stock yards, the greatest single day's receipts in the history of the yards. The heavy shipments were caused by burned pastures and scarcity of water, due to the recent drought.

Latter Day Saints Hold Reunion at Magnolia, Iowa

LOGAN, Ia., Aug. 25.—(Special.)—Attendance at the reunion of Latter Day Saints of the Little Sioux district at Magnolia reached 4,000 Sunday, according to conservative estimates. Idaho, Michigan, Missouri, Iowa and Minnesota are among the states represented by the grounds. Among the church officials in attendance were Heman C. Smith, church historian, and Comer Wells, returned missionary from Austria, now of Lamoni, Ia.; Bishop E. L. Kelley of Independence, Mo.; also W. A. Smith, missionary, and James A. Gillen, missionary in charge of Nebraska, Dakota, Minnesota and western Canada; Bishop E. A. Blakesley of Glen, Mich. Heman C. Smith spoke on the question of polygamy, denouncing the practice and charging Brigham Young with being the founder of the practice. In verification of assertions Mr. Smith quoted from the books of the church published before Joseph Smith's death, also from church publications since the reorganization of the church.

The remarks on polygamy were leveled at such lectures that of Mrs. W. W. Coleman of Boston, who, in a recent lecture in Omaha, asserted that polygamy was wisely and openly practiced by members of the Latter Day Saints' church. Mrs. Coleman was asked to name the guilty and was advised that the Latter Day Saints' reunion would be held at Magnolia and that the district court would be in session here and that she would have ample time to make good her assertion that polygamy was "widely and openly practiced" among the members of the church.

It was also pointed out that the Reorganized Church of Latter Day Saints was the first among the different churches of the United States to send missionaries to Utah to combat polygamy. Edmond C. Briggs, who recently passed away at his home at Lamoni, went to Utah in 1833 as a missionary from the reorganized church and Elder Charles Derry of Woodbine, Ia.; Elder Blair and other followed. It is also pointed out that Heman C. Smith, Bishop E. L. Kelley and other influential members of the church have been instrumental in securing legislation for the suppression of the practice of polygamy.

East Indian Prince and Princess Are Wedded in London

LONDON, Aug. 25.—Two of the most powerful native ruling families of British India were united today when the Princess Indira, only daughter of the reigning Maharajah Gaekwar of Boreoda, was married to Prince Jitendra, son of the Maharajah of Cooh-Bihar, after a romantic courtship.

The initial ceremony, which took place in the strictest privacy, was performed at the hotel where the young bride had been staying and was accompanied by the customary Hindu rites. Prior to the marriage the Princess Indira had been received into the Brahmanist faith, the creed of the bridegroom.

Subsequently the forms of a civil marriage were gone through at a registry office. Intense interest had been aroused in the attachment of the couple whose wedding had first been fixed to take place in India on May 5, but was suddenly called off. Immediately afterward the bride and her parents sailed from Bombay for England and were followed by Prince Jitendra.

It is understood the Gaekwar finally yielded to the importunities of his daughter and consented to the marriage, at which, however, he was not present.

The bridegroom created a sensation this morning by appearing at the hotel in his magnificent Indian robes of white silk heavily embroidered with gold.

The bride's father and brother, Shriani Jalainrago, are both well known in the United States, where the latter studied at Harvard. Her mother, the maharani, is a woman of advanced ideas and is the author of a book on the position of women in India.

Suffragettes Take Few Weeks' Vacation

LONDON, Aug. 25.—Rumors which have been current of a truce between the militant suffragettes and the British government, seem to find support in a letter written today by Mrs. Pankhurst to her followers advising them to take a holiday for the present. She says: "I am gathering up strength for a renewed battle when the holiday season is over. I hope that every one of you will take advantage of the present lull in political activity to take the rest and change you have all so richly deserved."

ULTIMATUM ISSUED BY THE STATES

President Wilson Says Mexican Government Must Change Its Attitude Before Today.

MESSAGE TO CONGRESS IS READY

Will Be Read to that Body Unless Huerta "Comes Across."

NOT AIMED AT MEXICAN PEOPLE

Couched in Very Kind Terms, — Executive Avoiding Harshness.

FOREIGN POWERS USE OFFICES

Training of Refugees from Madera Will Not Be Allowed to Proceed to El Paso Until Supplies Arrive at Border Point.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—President Wilson made it plain today that unless there was a change in the attitude of the Huerta government before tomorrow morning he would carry out his intention to personally read to congress tomorrow a message outlining the policy of the United States toward Mexico. He discussed the message tonight at the White House with the entire membership of the senate foreign relations committee and the house foreign affairs committee. The message is couched in very kind terms because the president feels that the world generally ought to recognize that the situation in Mexico is abnormal being controlled by a small group of men. That circumstance, the president believes ought not to obscure the real feeling of the United States toward Mexicans which is one of the generous friendship. The president does not wish to use words of harshness or hostility.

Foreign Powers Aid. That foreign powers generally are exercising their good offices in Mexico City, pressing Huerta to yield to the American proposals, now is openly admitted by administration officials. When questioned today whether such participation by European governments in the politics of the western hemisphere was considered an infringement on the Monroe doctrine, it was pointed out by administration officials that the United States did not constitute an act of friendship as imparting, at any time, the Monroe doctrine.

It was pointed out also that the activities of foreign governments were not due to any request by the United States for assistance, but that this government had decided on a policy of keeping the nations of the world generally informed of the steps being taken to bring about peace.

Will Notify All Nations. A copy of President Wilson's message will be delivered to the diplomatic corps here after his reading to congress. The document is longer than usually has been the case with messages from President Wilson. It is expected to make about 4,000 words.

At the White House it was said there was nothing pending so far as this government was concerned, from reading the message tomorrow.

There are in Chihuahua ninety American soldiers, twenty ready to leave as soon as a specially guarded train can go north. Forty Americans, according to reports to the State department, were ready to sail today from Vera Cruz for New Orleans, most of them destitute refugees from the Durango district.

Boosting to Make Nebraska's Favorite G. A. R. Commander

SUPERIOR, Neb., Aug. 25.—(Special.)—The managers for C. E. Adams' campaign for commander-in-chief of the Grand Army are looking very favorably for his election. New York and Illinois, two of the strongest departments, have unanimously endorsed his candidacy. This, together with Nebraska's endorsement, is a mighty good start. Pennsylvania and the New England states are generally quite favorable, fully one-half of the southern states are for him. The above, combined with his strong standing in the west, gives great assurance of his election.

Mr. Adams served in the Fifth Wisconsin battery during the war; was in the Army of the Cumberland and took part in many of its battles; was in General Sherman's campaigns from Chattanooga to Atlanta and with him in his march to the sea; also Sherman's North and South Carolina campaigns and was at the surrender of General Joseph Johnston at the close of the war. His friends also point to his successful business record, his good citizenship and executive ability. Three hundred enthusiastic Nebraskans are expected to go to the encampment to boost his candidacy.

CORN CROP BELOW AVERAGE SOME DISTRICTS MORE LUCKY

Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa and Missouri Suffer from Drouth. Reports to Railroads Indicate that Average Crop Per Acre Will Not Be Above Fifteen Bushels in This State.

Officials of railroad lines operating in the great corn belt of Nebraska and Kansas agree that instead of the normal crop, it will be much below the normal. If it averages fifteen bushels per acre in the two states, it will be beyond their anticipations. The same opinion is held by the members of the Omaha Grain exchange.

Both railroad and grain men believe that in the country south of the Platte river the crop in Nebraska will be nearly a failure and a complete failure in Kansas. During the past week there has been no rain to speak of, and conditions are said to be more serious than one week ago, when the crop and soil reports for the week were given out.

Conditions in Missouri. Equally as bad conditions maintain throughout Missouri and the south half of Iowa, where it is said, little, if any, corn will be matured.

In Nebraska, north of the Platte, while the ground is very dry and rain is badly needed, it is estimated that with rain during the present week, corn will make from 50 to 75 per cent of a full crop, with about the same average over in Iowa.

Omaha Division Fares Better. The Burlington's weekly crop report, which heretofore has been rather optimistic, this week is pessimistic. On Omaha division, which includes the lines

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Aug. 25.—Fred Robertson, of this city, a chauffeur, was killed, and W. B. Sennebaugh, a negro living in Chicago, probably was fatally injured last night when their automobile left the road and struck the wall of a hydraulic canal here. The machine turned a somersault over the wall and went into the canal, which is twenty-two feet deep. Sennebaugh landed clear and was rescued. Robertson's body is believed to be pinned in the car at the bottom of the canal.

MULHALL UNDER CROSS FIRE

Lobbyist Testifies in Hearing of McDermott Defense. SHARP TILTS WITH LAWYERS. Testimony Sparked with Invitations to Come Outside—Why Hearst Refused to Buy Letters.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Representative J. T. McDermott's defense to charges brought out in the house lobby investigation began today with cross-examination of Martin M. Mulhall, author of the expose which pictured the National Association of Manufacturers as the maker and breaker of many congressmen.

Mulhall swore the New York World, which published the story, was now paying him $100 a week. His passages with McDermott's lawyer were fiery and sprinkled with invitations to "come outside." Cross-examination developed that on one recent visit to the World office Mulhall was accompanied by Senator Reed of the senate lobby committee.

G. G. West, private secretary to McDermott, told the committee he did not know Mulhall and branded the latter's story of the use of the "secret room" in the basement of the capitol as a head-quarters for spies on congressmen as false.

YOUTHFUL HIKERS ARRIVE

Nine School Boys of Columbus Make Trip to Omaha on Foot. ALL PLEASED WITH EXPERIENCE. Physical Director Who Accompanies Leads Them Trip Beneficial After Year's Work During School and Vacation.

Natally attired in bright, new khaki uniforms, members of the Columbus Young Men's Christian association, under the leadership of O. E. Anderson, physical director, arrived in Omaha Monday morning at 9 o'clock after twenty-four hours and fifteen minutes of actual hiking, covering ninety-one miles from Columbus to Omaha.

The hikers are all school boys, most of them students in the Columbus High school, and the hike was in the nature of a vacation recreation before the school term begins in September. Most of the boys have relatives and friends in Omaha and will remain here several days visiting and recuperating from the effects of the march.

Twenty-Five Men May Be Engaged in Work on Commission

It is likely that twenty-five men instead of fifteen as originally planned will be appointed on the Agricultural Development commission, which is to be appointed as a result of the agricultural development conference here last week.

All the boys said they had received physical benefits from the trip. They wore out several pairs of shoes on the cinders of the railroad tracks and some of them were footsore, but they overlook these minor troubles.

Three Wise Men

Really wise men are hard to find, but now and then each one of us qualifies without realizing it. The man who takes his newspaper home with him each day is a wise man. The man who not only takes his newspaper home, but carefully considers the advertising columns as well is also a wise man.
