Prosecutions for Law Violations Lead Makers to Go into Court—Ridge Camp for Consumptives Closed.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 30.—(Special Telegram.)—Another of the laws of Iowa is to be declared unconstitutional by the courts if the lawyers can put up a good case. Because of activity of the pure food department of the state three local ice cream companies went into court today to have the law declared void which requires 12 per cent of butter fat in ice cream. State inspectors have found much ice cream offered that is below standard and prosecutions are under way.

Ridge Camp Closed.
"Ridge Camp" in Des Moines was closed today. It has been maintained for several years as a resort for consumptives, and most of the time supported by private philanthropy for the benefit of the poor people. The withdrawal of county aid caused the abandonment of the camp and will compel thirty victims of tuberculosis to go elsewhere.

"There is great alarm here," reads the telegram, "over the American government's order for the withdrawal of all citizens of the United States residing here. You will understand that there is no reason for this order."

"The American colony of this republic is at the most numerous of those among us in its totality and, with very few exceptions, it is satisfied and tranquil, dedicated to its work and attending to the necessities of its life, being respected and esteemed throughout the country. It would be seriously prejudiced in its welfare and its financial interests were it to abandon a country in which it is considered and esteemed and where it has acquired numerous and cordial relations."

"I do not doubt that the president of the United States and his truly just government will consult with the principal members of its colony here regarding the terms of what I say."

"I beg that you will acquaint President Wilson with what I have stated, calling his illustrious attention to the tremendous damages which will result from his determination, for which in all loyalty, I state there is no reason and which undoubtedly has been dictated against the sentiments of justice, of right and of human consideration, not

Athletic Contests for Men, Women and Children Will Be Held—Speeches on Erin's Final Self-Government.

Old South Omaha Country club will echo to the sound of Irish wit and Irish eloquence Monday, when the Emmet Monument association, organized to promote the interests of "The Irish Republic" meets for a picnic for the first time in five years.

"Time was when 2,000 Irishmen attended the picnics of this association," said John Coffey, of the committee on arrangements. "But for five years we have not met. Now we are to meet again and we intend to have a high old time."

Police Commissioner John J. Ryder will be chairman and the address of the day will be given by Arthur P. Mullen. Dr. William J. Leary and John and Mr. Coffey have arranged for the entertainment for the picnickers.

Several athletic events between men, boys, girls and married women will be held, with cigars, umbrellas, mirrors, gold rings, skirts, peaches, shirtwaists and gold necklaces as prizes.

Mr. Coffey was enthusiastic about the picnic. He said: "The Emmet Monument association picnic and getting to be given Labor day, will bring together in Irish sports and pastimes a race which has ever been foremost in that which tends to brotherhood and the cause of freedom. This organization has for its purpose the complete independence of Ireland and the establishment of an Irish republic. This spirit fostered by such men as Wolfe Tone and Robert Emmet and given their undying attention still lives in the heart of every true Irishman and will continue in its existence as long as Ireland shall live and an Emmet man shall breathe. This organization has ever been a factor in the community in which it exists, not only for good citizenship, but for what tends to good citizenship. Every project and enterprise in which this organization has had a hand always met with success, for behind it were Irishmen, and everyone knows that an Irishman counts no failure. So on this day, then, the Irish will unite in sociability and in hospitality, enjoying, as all Irishmen can, the sports and pleasures arranged for the day."

For the convenience of those attending the picnic, the following information is offered: Take Fort Crook car on the half-hour at Twenty-fourth and N streets, South Omaha. Children under 15 admitted free.

Old Bullet Wound Troubles Gaynor

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—The bullet wound which Mayor Gaynor sustained three years ago this month, when an attempt was made upon his life, still causes him serious troubles, which has detained him at his Long Island home for the last two days. In response to a health inquiry as to his health, the mayor described his trouble as a "fish hook" in his throat. In one of his characteristic letters he said: "My right lung, pneumogastric nerve and stomach have again taken it into their heads that by combined and violent effort they could succeed in casting the 'fish hook' out of my throat which that bullet lodged there. But, as in their former occasional attempts they succeeded in casting every thing out except the 'fish hook' and have completely done themselves and me up in the bargain."

"These members of my body which try to do this thing now and then are just as foolish as are people you and I know, who want something done all at once, which can only be done gradually and little by little. But they won't have it that way. And so to work they go night and main to do it all at once with violence, with the result that instead of doing it they do much hard mischief and exhaust themselves."

LARMON OUT OF THE PLAYING Guards Are Charged With Conspiracy to Smuggle Opium

Eliminated from Junior City Tennis Tournament by Will Adams. HANDICAPPED BY A BAD ARM Play This Afternoon Between Powell and Adams to Determine Championship—Other Matches Scheduled.

Although he was suffering from a badly wrenched shoulder, which sent sharp pains through his arms every time he swung at the ball and which prevented him from smacking it, Russell Larmon, the high school champion, gamely stuck to the game and played four sets of tennis with Will Adams before he was eliminated in the junior city tennis tournament at the Omaha Field club yesterday afternoon.

Larmon wrenched his arm in delivering an overcast serve the other day and he received strict orders from his physician that he was to refrain from making quick or hard strokes with that arm. The doctor strongly recommended that he play no tennis whatever, but did not absolutely require it. Larmon had been selected to win the tourney, but with the injured arm he was not expected to do so.

Adams took advantage of Larmon's disability and played a strictly lobbing game. At no stage did he hit the ball on a line, or with any speed, but constantly lofted it into the air and Larmon was unable to smash it without endangering his arm.

As Larmon is particularly effective in killing lobs, he received his worst handicap in not being able to put his strength behind his strokes. He was compelled to bat the ball back easily and Adams would lob. Larmon soon became exasperated at the game and practically gave the match to his opponent.

The most interesting match of the day was the Stockings-Fullaway combat for the consolation prize. Stockings, a red-headed player with an iron constitution, broke down Fullaway's defense by his unlimited staying power. It appeared impossible to wear him out, while Fullaway soon got tired and was then easily defeated.

Finals in the Doubles.

This afternoon Ralph Powell and Will Adams will play for the junior city championship. The match is not arousing the interest as neither player is either brilliant or steady. Both play a slow game with no smashes or lawlords and either one, or both, is very likely to go up in the air and play wretched games.

The players are universally agreed that there are several players in Omaha under 18 years of age who are capable of defeating either man in today's match.

The finals in the doubles, consolation singles and consolation doubles will also be played this afternoon. In addition, the match for the kid championship will be played. Paul Nicholson and Will Nicholson, brothers, will play each other for the honor. Paul Nicholson is two or three years older than his brother and is looked upon as the one to win the championship.
