ESTIMATES OF HARVEST VARY CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS Reports from Different Localities

Peatures of the Trading and Closing

Prices on Board of Trade.

Chilcago, Aug. 20.—All grains advanced today, liberal buying in anticipation of the two-day holiday—Sunday and Monday (Labor day)—creating a strong and active market. Corn, the most active of the grain pits, made a net gain of act to 10 %0%c, wheat rose 16%c to 10 %0%c and oats finished with an upturn of %65%cf. Provisions closed fregular 12%6fc lower to 15s advance. In addition to buying of corn by shorts the market was strengthened by higher cables, by estimates that the year's crop would show a shortage of 458,000,000 busheds as compared with last year's output, and by the fact that offerings were comparatively limited. September advanced to 73c and December to 29%c. Both options showed firmness and except for a few small reactions, following profit-taking sales, values held up finally all day, closing at or very near the top. Firmness of cash corn also helped futures. Some experts predicted that corn prices next winter and spring will break all records.

Wheat was helped by firmness of corn after a rather easy opening on weaker cables and forecast for good weather. A feature of wheat trading was changing of large holdings of September to December. This helped support prices for the deferred months and yet it did not materially depress the near option, as there was renewed talk of considerable export business in prospect. Primary arrivals of wheat are beginning to show the effect of decreased sales by farmers, who are holding for better prices.

Oats were helped by firmness of other grain, but trade was not large. OMAHA, Aug. 39, 1913.

The bull longs in corn will not permit a further price recession in that grain if it is possible to prevent the market taking a downward course. This was clearly demonstrated yesterday by the many bullish items spread before the speculative world in the yellow cereal, and some of these items were of a most influential character. Sentiment on corn was moderately bearish, but those who felt values must seek a lower level because of the increased offerings of the cash article by country holders seemed to lack the necessary backbone with which to make a firm stand by putting out short lines. The September future was off as much as is at one time during the session and this was like below the highest level reported. There was buying on price setbacks, however, the support coming from the larger holders, as well as the eleventh hour bull. The more deferred months were independently weak and strong by turns and the net gains for the day were independently weak and strong by turns and the net gains for the day were

The secretary of the Kansas Grain The secretary of the Kansas Grain Dealers' association sent out a most ridiculous report on the prospective yield of corn in the "Sunflower" state, placing it at only three-quarters of a bushel per acre, while the best judges of the prospective crop in that country place it at one-half that of 1912, when it was 174,000,000 bushels.

prices.

Oats were helped by firmness of other grain, but trade was not large.

Provisions were dull and lower except in pork, which scored a 15c advance in the Saptember delivery on heavy covering by shorts.

Quotations ranged as follows:

One-half that of 1912, when it was 174,000,000 bushels.

The importing nations are grabbing all the available corn in the Argentine Republic as of the shipments of 5,670,000 bushels from that country this week 113,000 bushels were counting to the Corn Products company of New York and Chicago, and 119,000 bushels were consigned to Mexico. Cash corn was 1241/2 higher. It is believed by many in the trade that the liquidation in September & heat is about over, and that with this selling out of the way there will be a steadier and possibly firmer tone to the general situation. CATTLE—No cattle of any consequence were on sale today, but for the week receipts foot up about 20,000 head and are the largest of any week since the opening of the range season and slightly larger than the corresponding week of last year. Under the influence of large receipts at all the market points at the beginning of the week prices broke sharply, but later on, as receipts became lighter, the decline on most kinds of cattle was recovered. With the exception of Monday the market for the week has been in a very satisfactory condition.

Cornfed beeves of good qaulity have been in moderate supply throughout the week, and they are at the close, of anything, a little stronger than a week ago. On the other hand the common to medium grades are a little easier. Range beeves did not recover all the decline at the beginning of the week, and are still logific lower than one week ago.

Cows and heifers are steady with a week ago.

Stock cattle and feeders suffered a more severe break at the beginning of the week than any other kind of cattle, but they rapidly recovered under the logitude of the week are steady with last week's close.

first four days of the week. Packers were rather slow in getting started, but as soon as shippers had bought a few they commenced bidding about 5c higher, and most of the sales were made on this basis. Towards the last end the market reached the highest point of the day and some sales made at this time looked to be a flat dime higher. A few loads did not arrive until everything else had been sold, but the late arrivals were in keen request and prices remained fully steady with the best time. Generally speaking the market is fully a nickel before than yesterday's average. Bulk sold at $7.5053.05, and tops reached $5.50, just a nickel below yesterday's best price.

His Literal Wife. Mr. Ives has a mind that delights in facts. One evening he laid down the paper, was silent for a moment, and then said:
"That's odd."
"Why to it?" inquired his wife.
"Why, here is a man who says that it would take 12,000,000 years to pump the sea dry at the rate of 1,000 gallons a second."

second."

Mrs. Ives sat thinking the matter over.

Finally, she said:
