RAIN SPRINKLES THE DIAMOND
Feeble Showers Continue Almost Throughout Game, but Moisture is Never Sufficient to Stop Play.

In a loose and uninteresting game, Omaha won the second contest of the series with St. Joseph yesterday by a score of 9 to 5. The game was featured by errors and poor pitching. St. Joseph rung up seven errors before the game was over and Omaha had two. Each team used two hurlers, none of whom did any remarkable work. The visiting twirler handed out seven walks and the Roukes flinched four. The only redeeming feature of the game was the showers. There were about as many showers during the afternoon as there were hits, and for the entire two hours and twenty minutes of playing there was about two hours of rain. At no time, however, did the rain come down so hard that it was necessary to postpone play.

New Pitcher Starts Well.
O'Byrne started in to work for Omaha and got by the first two innings in first class shape, but in the third he walked the first two men up. Then an error gave the visitors a run and O'Byrne beamed Western, filling the bags. Here it was that O'Byrne was relieved in favor of Robinson, who retired the side, allowing but one run. Robinson finished the game.

Bell, former White Sox twirler and late of the Winona club of the Minnesota-Wisconsin league, began for the Jostes, but was left on the bench when the Roukes came to bat in the sixth inning. Busher was next and finished the game, although the Roukes touched him up almost at will.

Omaha Starts Scoring.
Omaha opened the game with one run. Thomason was safe on Meink's error and Congalton walked. An error by Watson allowed Tomie to register.

Grubb opened the second with a single to center, Schipke was safe on Western's error and Grubb scored. Schipke scored on Tomie's error of O'Byrne's grounder. Coyle's beat out a bunt and O'Byrne scored on Thomason's single. Dawson and Kelly walked in the visitors' third. Swilling was safe on Kane's error and Dawson scored. Western was hit with a pitched ball, filling the bases. Gylli walked, forcing Kelly. Dawson singled to center in the fourth and scored when Thomason let the ball go through him.

Thomason was safe for Omaha in the fourth when he forced Coyle at second. He scored on Congalton's double. Grubb walked in the fifth and Schipke was safe on Watson's error. A passed ball advanced both and they scored on Justice's single to left.

In the eighth Coyle singled and Thomason walked. Both advanced on a wild pitch. Kane beat out a bunt and Coyle

With the close of the Western league season a little over a month away and but fifteen more games to be played on the home grounds, Omaha is out of the running as far as the pennant is concerned, but a desperate fight has been started by Manager Charley Babb and his Rouke players to land a berth in the first division. With this object in view Omaha has added renewed vigor to its fighting spirit and is now on the road to the first division. Omaha has been handicapped considerable this year for the want of pitching material, but there is not a fan in the city who will complain against the fighting qualities of the team. Omaha has not lost a game this year without putting up a big battle, and every manager in the league will agree that when they run up against the Roukes they know that in order to win they must fight until the last man is out. Following are the names in the latest picture of the Omaha 1913 base ball team: Top Row—Left to right: Kane, Shestak, Johnson, Justice, Robinson, Payne, Thomason, Congalton. Bottom Row—Closman, Manager Babb, O'Byrne, Brenner, Hicks, Grubb, Schipke and Coyle.

But Two Lincoln Players Reach First Base During the Game and Both Score—Knapp Hit Unmercifully.

WICHITA, Kan., Aug. 30.—Wichita fielded well behind Durham's effective pitching and won the shortest game of the local season. Not a Lincoln player reached first until Knapp doubled in the sixth and scored on Lloyd's single. An error and McCormick's double scored Coyle with two out in the ninth. Knapp was hit hard and received ragged support. Score:

FREMONT, Neb., Aug. 30.—(Special Telegram)—Hastings' hits came at opportune times and the Reds took the third game of the series from the locals, 6 to 5. Bennett and Wallace each made a sensational play in the field. Hinkley opened for Fremont, but lasted only a part of an inning, Conway taking his place. Tackley relieved Riley in the fifth and stopped the scoring. Bechtold scored the winning run when he circled the bases on a drive to the right field fence, Stange dropping the throw at the plate. GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Aug. 30.—(Special Telegram)—Grand Island defeated Beatrice today in one of the best games of the season, bunching hits on their former teammate, Haley, who was on the mound for the visiting team. It was "Bobbie" Roberts, the newest and youngest member of the Third City pitching staff, that did the fine pitching stunt, keeping the opposing batters guessing and their hits scattered. The game was fast and clean, without wrangling and without feature playing. Ernie Ruchmberg rapped out a three-bagger and a single in three times at bat. The Beatrice crew was disappointed in not making a clean sweep of the series. Score:

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—The tallend New York Americans sprang a big surprise on the pacemaking Athletics today, by defeating them in both ends of a double-header, the scores being 5 to 2 and 6 to 4. It was the Philadelphia team's last appearance here in an American league contest this season, and marked their first defeat in New York since the spring of 1912.

Caldwell pitched the best game of his career in the opening contest, holding the hard hitting visitors to two singles. Shawkey was knocked out of the box in the third inning. Houck, who succeeded him, pitched well until the eighth, when the locals scored three runs on two passes, an error and two hits. A bare handed catch by Walsh, one of the greatest ever seen on the Polo ground, featured this game.

In the second game the New Yorks gained a commanding lead by bunching hits on Brown in the first and second innings, when they scored four runs. Bush, his successor, was an improvement. Fisher pitched well for New York until the seventh, when four Athletics' hits drove him off the mound. Keating finished the inning, but Caldwell, who had held the visitors scoreless in the first game, was sent in the eighth and struck out the three men that faced him.

In the two games, Wolter made four hits and drew three passes in eight times up. He scored three runs and drove in four. Outfielder Gihobley purchased from Montreal, made his first appearance in a New York uniform and did well, showing brilliant bursts of speed on the bases. Score, first game:

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 30.—Umpire Brennan forfeited today's game between Philadelphia and New York to the latter in the ninth inning by the score of 7 to 6. At the time the home team was leading, 5 to 6.

McCormick, batting for Merkle in the ninth, had been retired. Manager McGraw complained to Umpire Brennan that spectators waving their straw hats in the centerfield bleachers reflected the sun's rays into the eyes of the batsmen. Umpire Brennan appealed to Captain Doolan of the Philadelphia team to have the spectators moved away from the centerfield section. Doolan consulted Manager Doolan, who had previously been banished from the bench. Doolan said he could do nothing and then the police were called on. None of the crowd, which filled every part of the park, was on the playing field, but it was requested that those occupying seats directly in line with the pitcher and batsmen move to some other place. There was little space to move to and the spectators, who had been there almost from the start of the game, would not budge.

Game Forfeited.
After a long consultation the game was forfeited. Manager Doolan said that he proposed to Manager McGraw that they play out the game under protest. Doolan said that McGraw refused, and so Umpire Brennan made the announcement awarding the game to New York.

As soon as the word had been spoken the New York players made a rush across the field to the clubhouse. As quick as they were, some of the fans were ahead of them and showered upon them all kinds of names. Some missiles were hurled, but no one hurt. Meanwhile the umpires lost no time in seeking cover. They had to pass close to the grandstand and before they were safely in their dressing room they had been pelted with seat cushions. One cushion struck Umpire Brennan in the back of the neck. A large detail of police was called to scatter the crowd that hung around the park and in the grounds. The police saw that the umpire got away from the park in safety and also gave protection to the New York players. Several of the New York men were struck by missiles on their way from the grounds to the railroad station. It was a long time before the crowd was dispersed, but no serious disorder resulted.

Game Will Be Forfeited.
After the game Manager Doolan said the game would be protested. He explained that the club was powerless to remove the spectators, as they had paid their money and were entitled to occupy the seats. Doolan also said that the crowd had been in the seats from almost the start of the game and that because of
