HAVE BEEN REAVY ALL YEAR Over Ten Million Bushels More Have

Been Handled So Far in Comparison to Corresponding Months of 1912.

The month of August just closed brought to the Omaha market over 2,000,-000 bushels more of grain than the largest receipts recorded any month since Omaha has been a market. The total receipts largest receipts for any single month up to this time had been 6,315,600, which was reached last January. As compared to August, 1912, the recelpts of the last month exceeded them by 3,502,200 bushels. The receipts of August, 1912, were 5,455,900. The shipments out of Omaha during the last month were almost double those of August a year ago. The figures are for August, 1913, 6,642,200, as against August, 1912, 3,616,200.

Heavy Receipts All Year. The receipts for the first eight months of the present year exceed those of the first eight months of last year by practically 10,000,000 bushels. The figures are for the first eight months this year 42,-116,700, as against $2,245,900 for the first eight months last year.

This would mean the start of the return trip to the asylum on the Hudson.

Crowd for Thaw. From his counsel Thaw heard able arguments against sustaining the writ; from them also he heard ineffectual pleas for delay; from the crowd that packed the court house and streamed over the lawn he heard cheers and shouts and words of encouragement. He was nervous throughout the ordeal and returned to his cell tired out with the excitement.

At 6 o'clock the management was confident that the attendance record would very nearly equal that of any other Tuesday in the history of the fair, The grounds seemed to be comfortably crowded and the large crowd which hung on the race track fence during the races in the afternoon indicated a good business at the turnstiles.

Yesterday's record of attendance was not quite up to the attendance of Monday of former years, but came within 788 of being up to last year, the number this year being 12,426.

There was a great deal of disappointment among the fair people this morning on account of the fallure of the clouds to leak last night when everything looked favorable for a good rain. Every section of the country around Lincoln was visited by showers but not a drop fell in the capital city. This afternoon the hopes of the management brightened when a small shower fell about 5 o'clok of such dimensions as to drive people from the bleachers. In former years Iowa has stood at the head as having the largest exhibit of swine at a state fair, while Nebraska has stood second, but this year there is little doubt but that this state will carry off the honors.
