BRENNER PLAYS GREAT GAME

Rourke Pitcher Hurls Well, and His Hit Scores Three.

DOUBLE BRINGS WINNING RUN

Schlipke Walked to Take Chance on Omaha Pitcher, Who Lambasted Ball in Fashion Not Expected.

WICHITA, Kan., Sept. 4.—(Special Telegram.)—Pitcher Brenner pitched a great game and held Wichita to one lone hit for eight innings. Omaha won, 5 to 4.

Trouble started in the ninth, however, and it looked like the Jobbers were going to slip across the winning run. Waabob batted for Durham as an opener and walked. Rapps beat out a slow hit to Schlipke. Nicholson bunted to Grubb and the bases were full when Kane dropped the ball.

Middleton drew a walk, forcing Waabob. With Hughes up, the most dangerous pinch hitter on the Wichita team, Brenner tightened up and forced Hughes to pop to Schlipke. Bills stung to right and Rapps and Nicholson scored. Burke sent a short fly to Congalton.

Middleton was allowed to score and Bills was held at first. Smith forced Bills at second, justice to Schlipke, and the game was won, 5 to 4. Durham played a good game, but had poor support.

Kane doubled in the second and scored on Rapps' boot of Schlipke's hit to short. Thomson doubled in the third and scored on Smith's error. Thomson and Congalton led off with hits in the sixth. Kane was out when he bunted foul in third strike. Johnson forced Congalton at second. Thomson was out at home plate on an attempted double steal.

Congalton led off with a double in the ninth. Kane New to Bills, Congalton taking third. Johnson was walked intentionally. Grubb hit to Durham and Congalton was tagged out after Johnson and Grubb had reached second and third. Schlipke was walked to take a chance on Brenner, but it proved to be a big mistake. With two strikes on him Brenner delivered the goods with the blow that proved to be the one that scored the winning run.

It was a double to right center and Johnson, Grubb and Schlipke scored. Justice flew out to left for the third out.

GIANTS AND DODGERS DIVIDE

New Yorks Lose First Game When Marquard Blows Up.

SECOND IS DUEL OF PITCHERS

Terrace and Yngling Both Effective, but Three of Five Hits Off Latter Bunched, and Result in Defeat.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—New York and Brooklyn split even in a double-header today, Brooklyn taking the first game, 5 to 4, while the champions captured the second, 2 to 1. The first game went Brooklyn's way when Marquard experienced one of his old-fashioned blowups in the sixth inning, the visitors scoring all their six runs in this inning on singles by Moran, Cutshaw, Collins and McCarty, Smith's double, a pass, a sacrifice fly and an error by Hendrix. The New Yorkers made their two runs off Walker in the third inning on three hits and a pass. Walker broke a finger in this inning and was relieved by Egan, who pitched well for the rest of the game.

The second game was a pitchers' battle between Terrace and Yngling. Both were effective, but three of the five hits made off Yngling were bunched in the third and resulted in Brooklyn's defeat.

Meyers opened with a double and Markie scored. Yngling pitched well, but the batter singled scored Meyers and the batter reached third on Collins' wild throw. He scored on Doyle's single. Smith's home run drive in the fifth saved Brooklyn from a shut-out.

McGraw gave his batting order the most radical shift since the club became a pennant winner in 1911, the positions of only two men and the pitcher being left unchanged.

What suffered from a strained groin and had to retire after two innings of the first game, though he appeared later as a pinch hitter. Showers fell through-out both games. Score, first game: Brooklyn 5, New York 4.
