Senators Win Twice.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Washington took two of the hardest fought games of the season on the local grounds from New York today by scores of 1 t 2 and 1 to 2. respectively. It took both of Washington's premier pitchers—Boehling and Johnson—to bring both ends of the double header to the locals. Johnson saving the day for his teammates when he went in in the ninth inning of the first game after Boehling had weakened. The bases were loaded at the time and two runs had crossed the plate, with none out. Johnson retired the side without further scoring. Schultz, who opposed Boehling, was batted rather freely. Boehling was presented with a gold watch by some of his local admirers when he came to bat the first time.
