Public schools will open Monday morning at 9 o'clock. The general meeting of the teachers will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in the high school auditorlum. Superintendent E. U. Graff has announced the assignment of teachers for the year. The following changes result from shifts of principals;

Miss Abba Bowen, head of the department of English at the high school, retigns to become the head of the German department in the Peru normal school. Her successor has not been appointed. Miss Fannie Forsyth goes to Beals from Dupont.

Miss Margaret Hamilton goes to Dupost from Shorman.

Miss Mary N. Austin is the new principal of Sherman, being promoted from teacher in the grades. Miss Virginia White goes from Beals to Train. Mrs. Cora Anderson goes from Train to Edward Rosewater. Mrs. Martha Christiancy goes from Edward Rosewater to Mason. Two additional rooms will be opened at Miller Park and one additional room will be opened at Bancroft, where a manual training course will be installed. One additional room is opened at Central Park school. A room as an annex to Columbian school will be opened in the Child Saving Institute. During the winter a carryall will carry the children in the southwest part of the sity to Windsor school. Fort school, the new institution for boys, will open in about two weeks, with

E. D. Gepson as principal, J. W. Carver takes Gepson's place as probation officer. Owing to the establishment of the vaention school this summer many students who falled will be given credits and will take up advanced work.

POWER TO CUT THE WEEDS Protests against weeds growing on vacant lots and obstructing sidewalks have been received by Police Commissioner J. J. Ryder from scores of residents, but all his efforts to relieve the situation, he admits, have been futile, because he cannot under the present charter force nonresidents to out these weeds. As an example of the trouble each of these complaints puts his department to, insioner Ryder calls attention to one lot which has changed owners several times and whose present owner is a nonresident. Before the lot was sold the last two times the owner was out of the city on vacation and could not be served with notice to out the weeds. "What the city needs is power to go right ahead and clean up these filthy places and charge the cost to the prop-erty," said Commissioner Hyder. Under the proposed home rule charter, which is to be voted on at a special elec-
