Neck.

"Bunk" Congalton, whom Pa Rourke hired to hit home runs at oportune times came across with the circuit clout in the ninth lining of yesterday's game with the Lincoln Antelopes and won the battle for Omaha by a score of 5 to 4.

From the fourth inning until the ninth the score was kept tied at 4 to 4. In the minth Coyle led off and was an easy out, Lloyd to Barbour. Then Thomason slammed an easy one to Dowling, who threw Tommie out at first. Congalton came up and struck at two balls. Then it was that Smith made the mistake of his life by grooving the ball and Connie caught it square on the nose. Miller, Lincoln's right garden man started back with the crack of the bat, but was content when he reached the fence to see the horsehide speed over the boards Then he solemnly walked to carry-all which was waiting for him and his teammates out side the park.

Came Full of Life.

It was a glorious game, full of life and Both sides took advantage of the cool weather and were on their toes at all times. Ehman started for Lincoln and pitched excellent ball until the fourth

Antelopes got to his offering for six hits and four runs. But after the there inning Vic kept his hits well scattered and allowed no runs. By winning yesterday's game he secured his third consecutive victory, which exceeds the record of any
