Beats His Horse—Joe Adams, 1455 South Fourteenth street, was fined $5 and costs by Judge Foster for reckless driving and beating a horse. MOVEMENT OF GRAIN TO THE SOUTH IS VERY HEAVY

Omaha's grain trade to the south continues to increase, the shipments last month exceeding 1,000 cars of oats and corn. An increase of 25 per cent over the corresponding month of one year ago. It is expected that September shipments will be far in excess of those of August, notwithstanding the fact that that is less corn to move. A big movement of oats and barley is in sight and added to this it is expected that during the latter part of the month there will be a heavy increase in the wheat export, going by way of the gulf.

At the Theaters

ATTRACTIONS IN OMAHA.

Boyd: "The Navoo." Brandeis: "Stop Thief." Empress: Vaudeville. Gayety: Musical Burlesque. Krug: Vaudeville. Orpheum: Vaudeville.

Thanks to the cool evening after the shower of yesterday, society night at the Orpheum showed the heaviest patronage since the theater opened in August for the new vaudeville season. The feature attraction, of course, was the operatic star of international fame, Marie McFarland. She, with the masked singer mysteriously billed as Madame—?; comprise a duo that is said to be the rarest vocal acquisition of the Orpheum circuit. They have a well chosen repertory, made up of the best known "golden melodies from famous operas." All the reviews of the Omaha newspapers have commended in high terms the work of these two operatic sopranos.

"Stop Thief." At the Brandeis, is a veritable cyclone of laughter, punctuated by many exciting moments, an irresistible combination that is attracting absolutely capacity audiences at each succeeding performance of this cleverly constructed play.

The Boyd Theater stock company continues to draw large houses at each performance. The bill this week is Henry Miller's big success, "The Navoo," and it is most excellently presented. Miss Florence Stone, leading lady of the company, has a very strong part. The balance of the company handle their parts with excellent care. During the week matinees will be given on Thursday and Saturday. Next week's offering will be "La Tosca."

Ever have a prayer answered? Manager Johnson of the Gayety did. In his "Dear Reader" portion of the Gayety's ad in last Sunday's Bee, Mr. Johnson caused to be inserted the words "Pray for rain." Intimating that he wanted everybody to join with him in the request for moisture. Well, anyway, it rained yesterday morning, cooled the atmosphere, and up jumped the attendance at the popular Gayety, where "Girls of the Gay White Way," Harry Dutch Ward and Sam Hearn are putting laughs over the footlights with such rapidity that it's difficult to keep up with them. Ladies' dine matinee today.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Council Orders Allowance for Briggs' Auto Discontinued.

PARKS GETS PAVING CONTRACT

Appointments to New Park Board Confirmed—City Officials to Make Call on Burlington Officials in Regard to Viaduct.

After having tied the city up in a legal tangle that stopped all paving for more than a year, because he claimed that he had not been given a square deal, Contractor James Parks won last night the paving of M street from Thirtieth to Twenty-fourth street—the street over which the trouble first started.

The National Construction company bid $ cents per square yard on the rock to be taken up from between the tracks on Q street and won the contract. For the same rock a few inches away, the same company is paying 50 cents per square yard.

The council ordered that the allowance for maintaining Briggs' automobile be discontinued and that the auto company be notified of the resolution. The council claims that considerable money is wasted in the maintenance of the police department. Erling used his automobile for city calls and under the old rule the city paid for the upkeep of the machine. A number of automobile men will bid on the proposition of keeping an auto for the convenience of the police department.

Again the city officials will make a pilgrimage to the Burlington railroad officials for the purpose of having a viaduct built over the Burlington tracks at Forty-third and F streets and Thirtieth to Fortieth streets.

The appointments to the new park board of Robert Wheeler, A. N. Hagan, John M. Mullen, E. O. Mayfield, C. F. Leppert, Joe Breen, J. F. McReynolds, Mrs. Ella M. Sloan and Mrs. C. L. Talbot, were confirmed.

School Bonds Sold. Secretary of the School Board James P. Sullivan yesterday made the final arrangements for the sale of $50,000 school bonds to the Omaha Water board. The sale of the bonds makes possible the raising of the old holdover debt on the school district so long.

Call Proves Disastrous. John Stephens, said to be a Bulgar, was arrested last night on complaint of Joe Livingstone. Livingstone called at a house at Twenty-fifth and M streets to see a young woman who had invited him over the telephone to visit her there. Instead of her Livingstone found Stephens. The latter took the visitor, so the people of the house say, for a burglar. Stephens proceeded to treat him as one. Livingstone told the police.

Please Live Stock Men. The introduction of a bill in congress providing against the killing of calves under certain age has brought considerable joy to the hearts of many local live stock men who have been urging such a measure for a long time. Only recently through the united efforts of the live stock exchanges throughout the country an effort was made to have the different state legislatures take the question up.

Run is Heavy. The western run of grass cattle and sheep was on in earnest yesterday on the local market, the receipts registering over 11,000 cattle and 57,000 sheep.

Organization of Board. A report in yesterday's paper made it appear that Mayor Hector had appointed Edgar Jackson as head of the park board and John M. Tanner as secretary. Fred Hefflinger is resident of the board and John M. Tanner secretary by election of the park board. The mayor nominated Edgar Jackson to succeed J. H. Kopetski, a member who resigned yesterday.

Fifty Omahans Join Knights Last Chance

The theatrical season for Ak-Sar-Ben wound up last night with a blaze of glory for the performers and a deep feeling of apprehension for the fifty daring Omahans who signified a willingness to "belong." The Den was packed and the S. R. O. sign was hung out long before the orchestra struck up for the opening number.

Addresses were made by Charles H. Picken, D. J. O'Brien, Father Gannon and Rev. T. J. Mackay.

FAIR CHAUFFEURS HELPS OUT FARM POWER SHOW

Miss Deanie Kenefev is proving herself a charming assistant to the management of the Farm Power show at Fremont. She is piloting one of the many automobiles that have been volunteered for the accommodation of visitors to the show, and is busy all day hauling strangers to and from the exhibition grounds. It was the promise of the Fremont Commercial club that no visitor should have any trouble or expense in getting out to the fields where the big farm tractors are at work, and the club is making good on this promise.

RETAIL CLERKS DECIDE TO KEEP UP THE FIGHT

A scanty twenty-five persons out of the organization of several hundred of the Retail Clerks' association, met at Seymour hall in the Board of Trade building last night for a business meeting and impromptu entertainment. The meeting was short on members and therefore short on business, but it was long on enthusiasm and therefore long on entertainment.

CITY TO SELL LOT AND BUY ANOTHER FOR ENGINE HOUSE

The city commission has ordered the city clerk to advertise for bids for the lot at Nineteenth and Harney streets, where the city proposed to construct a fire engine house. Such a protest was raised against the building of a fire engine house at near the public library that the city commission will, if a satisfactory price can be secured, sell the property and buy a block south, where property has been offered at what is believed to be a reasonable consideration.

Quaker Quips.

An ounce of prevention is generally worth a pound of curiosity. What little flattery isn't expended on women is saved for temptations. Even the man who is in the commission business may commit sins of omission. If you treat a man like a dog you can't very well blame yourself if he is bitten. We never quite realize the sting of hard words till we have to take them back. He who strikes while the iron is hot doesn't always succeed in making warm friends. Old friends may be best, but that doesn't prevent a fellow from making young ones. It's all right to cultivate a thirst for knowledge, but it brings with it mighty few free lunches. Now that there are no longer any Indians to fight, an ambitious, energetic boy has little to which he may look forward. Talk confidentially to the man who is opposed to theatrical performances and he will admit that he never attended one.—Philadelphia Record.

MAY COLLECT GARBAGE FREE

This is Part of Scheme of Public Workhouse.

ALSO OPERATE A BRICK PLANT

Captain Klein of the Salvation Army is Enthusiastic for a Workhouse, Having Argument on Experience in Other Places.

If a workhouse for Douglas county and city prisoners is established a system of free garbage collection, which is expected to be self-sustaining and a brick plant, which will turn kale from the beds near Louisville into paving brick to be used in improving the public roads will be features of its operation.

The proposal to build a workhouse is the center of all discussions of members of the Board of County Commissioners now. Captain Frank Kline of the local Salvation Army appeared before the board and made an enthusiastic plea for a workhouse, having his argument on the experience of the Salvation Army with similar institutions which, he said, have been uniformly self-sustaining and have made men out of thousands of derelicts.

County Commissioner Lynch is insisting vigorously that some action be taken by the board with regard to the proposal to build a workhouse. If such a plan is decided upon the city will be asked to assist and the labor unions will be asked to endorse it, since the plan is to employ prisoners only in such labor as will not compete with union workmen.

The commissioners agreed that the making of brick to improve the roads would be one of the most desirable means of utilizing such labor. In Minneapolis garbage is handled free of charge to the residents of the city, and all members of the board believe this plan also is feasible here.

Commissioner Lynch is asking that the other members of the board go to Minneapolis to inspect the workhouse system there, but the board is uncertain as to whether Judge Troup's junket decision would apply to such a trip and decision as to the trip was postponed.

Dempster.

In anticipation of Ak-Sar-Ben festivities and as a protection to citizens and visitors alike, Chief of Police Dunn has issued a proclamation to the force to clean up the city by ridding the streets of vagrants, suspicious characters and all individuals whose appearances are questionable. Pickpockets and prowlers will find Omaha tough picking during the carnival, as every precaution for their apprehension is going to be in order.

More than 1,000 delegates are in Louisville for the nineteenth annual encampment of the supreme lodge of the Knights and Ladies of Honor.

Cunningham, circulation manager were fined $1,000 each in the United States district court in Boston yesterday for conspiracy to defraud the government in an attempt to secure second class mailing privileges for the publication.

Loans increased $3,527,000, while individual deposits decreased $12,122,000 and cash decreased $14,513,000. The government had not begun the deposit of crop moving funds when this call for condition was issued.
