HUNDRED THOUSAND TO BRING AMERICANS HOME FROM MEXICO

Senate Agrees to Joint Resolution Proposed by the House Without Division.

BRISTOW CRITICIZES ORDER

Says Effect of President Wilson's Request Is Bad.

CONDITIONS ARE MUCH WORSE

Letters Say Lot of Refugees Is Now Much Harder.

ALARMIST REPORT IS DENIED

Tumor that Americans on Way from Torreon Are in Hands of Bandits Doubtful at Washington and Mexico City.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Without reference to a committee, the senate today unanimously agreed to the house joint resolution appropriating immediately $100,000 for the relief and transportation of American citizens from Mexico.

Senator Bristow of Kansas, however, did not grant his consent to the passage of the resolution until he had criticized the administration policy.

Reports of Danger Exaggerated.

One hundred Americans, fugitives on the Mexican desert between Torreon and Saltillo, harassed by bandit bands, according to unconfirmed reports, were not mentioned in the early official dispatches today and the State department had no information of them.

Officials here were inclined to believe the Americans were in no grave danger. Agents of the constitutionalist movement maintained the Americans were in no danger at all and would be protected by the constitutionalist forces against any roving marauding bands.

Officials of the consular service pointed out that the Americans named Ferras on September 11. That town is in the hands of the constitutionalist troops, having been taken last May.

An American consular agent recently took two days with a fast automobile to make the run between Torreon and Saltillo. The fugitives, hampered by women and children and more primitive means of transportation, are expected to require much longer.

The territory through which the Americans are traveling is controlled entirely by the constitutionalists and their agents have been given to understand the United States looks to them for protection of the fugitives.

Minister of Interior Resigns.

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 15.—Dr. Aureliano Urrutia, Mexican minister of the interior, has left the cabinet. His resignation was accepted at midnight by Provisional President Huerta.

Dr. Urrutia is under charges preferred by Senator Manuel Calder, former Mexican ambassador at Washington, for arresting him in defiance of his immunity as senator.

Dr. Urrutia gave as the reason for his resignation from the ministry of the interior that the post required qualifications which he did not have. He is a surgeon and has never before had experience in politics.

His anti-foreign sentiments have not been disguised during his term of office, and it is said that the foreign diplomats here were opposed to his retention in the cabinet.

Dr. Urrutia was the author of the so-called Huerta ultimatum to the United States, which was promptly repudiated by President Woodrow Wilson.

Refugees Pass Parais. Up to noon today no further news had reached here of the party of 100 American refugees from Torreon, who are on their way to Saltillo through the rebel country. The American embassy is inclined to the belief that reports of their detention by rebels were without foundation.

Congressman Cole Says He Told Mulhall to Leave His Office

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Former Representative Ralph D. Cole of the Eighth Ohio district told the house lobby committee today that Martin M. Mulhall's testimony and correspondence regarding his conduct as a member of the house were so full of half truths and false statements that he would confine his own testimony to a general denial.

"I never received a contribution from the National Association of Manufacturers," declared Cole. "Mulhall once came to my office and started to tell me that I had to stop my fight on Speaker Cannon. He never got any further than that. I ordered Mulhall out of the room and I told him if he ever returned I would throw him out of the window. From that day to this I've never seen Mulhall. That is the way I served the National Association of Manufacturers. It's the first time and the last time I ever talked with any one from that association about legislation."

Cole said at the time he ordered Mulhall out of his office, C. R. Painter of Bowling Green, O., a friend, was there and heard it all. He produced an affidavit from Painter corroborating his own testimony.

Congressman Burke Decides to Retire from Politics

PIERRE, S. D., Sept. 15.—(Special Telegram.)—Congressman Burke today gave out the following statement: "My physical condition the last year has caused me to consider the advisability of retiring from public life and I have contemplated for some time not being a candidate for re-election. I have now decided not to be a candidate for the reason stated, and for the same reason will not be a candidate for any other office. I am deeply grateful to the people of South Dakota for their long continued confidence and particularly to those personal friends who have for so many years made my political success possible. I shall continue to reside in Pierre."

Attorney General Roy C. Johnson has decided to make the fight for the republican nomination for congress in the Second district to succeed Burke. Mr. Johnson has been four years attorney general and is secretary of the National Association of Attorneys General.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 15.—Following the announcement of Congressman Charles H. Burke today that he would not seek re-election, Judge Frank McNulty of Aberdeen announced he would seek the republican nomination for congress.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Frederick J. Yonkers, regarded as a star witness against Governor Sulzer at his forthcoming trial on impeachment charges, has disappeared, according to announcement made by the assembly board of impeachment managers.

"Information in the possession of the board is to the effect that Colwell is absenting himself from the jurisdiction of the board at the direct instigation of the governor and for the purpose of avoiding testifying against the governor at his trial," reads a lengthy statement issued on behalf of the board by Aaron J. Levy, its chairman.

After waiting with much light on these Wall street transactions. This is well known to Governor Sulzer. Where is Colwell? Will Sulzer aid in accomplishing his return?

Norman E. Mack Brings Libel Suit Against Hennessey

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Norman E. Mack, former chairman of democratic national and state committees, failed to appear today before John A. Hennessey, Governor Sulzer's special investigator, to answer charges of having failed to account for moneys contributed to him in the gubernatorial campaign of 1910.

Instead, Mr. Mack, through his secretary, served a subpoena, failed to appear and complaint in a $500 action for libel was filed.

Following the publication of Mr. Hennessey's charges, Mr. Mack announced his willingness to appear before the investigator at any time and place he might designate. Mr. Hennessey then fixed the hearing at Albany this morning.

After waiting with stenographers for half an hour, Mr. Mack failed to appear. As neither Mack or Arthur A. McLean of Newburgh, treasurer of the democratic committee, had appeared the session stood adjourned.

Mr. Bryan Nettled at Public Criticism

(From a Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—(Special.)—While at Phoenixville, Pa., Secretary Bryan is said to have disclosed that he is much nettled by the ridicule heaped upon him in connection with his chautauqua lectures. He took occasion there to deny most emphatically that he is a mountebank, a vaudevillian, a peanut trader or a member of a vaudeville team. He objects strenuously to being cartooned on a stage between two perfectly capable members of the theatrical profession.

"How is it," the secretary demanded from his interviewer, "that some newspaper men so color their descriptive work as to make their stories untruthful and ridiculous?"

"The editorial attacks by the newspapers of England and the continent have bothered the secretary more than he is willing to acknowledge.

"What right have they to declare I am making a travesty of diplomacy?" he asked in a petulant manner.

"They do not know the real facts. They do not stop to investigate, and they certainly should make an investigation before making wild statements. The statements that I am neglecting my duties at Washington so that I may continue this lecture tour are absolutely untrue."

GIRL WHOSE BODY FOUND IN HUDSON SLAIN BY PRIEST

Mystery Surrounding Finding Twelve Days Ago of Parts of Disembodied Corpse Solved.

ADMISSION MADE, POLICE SAY

Rev. Hans Schmidt of St. Joseph's of New York Confesses.

KILLS WOMAN AS SHE SLEEPS

Had Wedded Anna Aumuller Without Witnesses.

FIVE TRIPS WITH SIX PARTS

Dropped Burden from Ferry Boat in Midstream—Tries to Cut Throat with Safety Razor Blade— Pillow Is Clue.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—In the hope of branding as an impostor and pseudo priest the Rev. Hans Schmidt, the alleged self-confessed slayer of Anna Aumuller, victim of New York's river murder mystery, church authorities began today a sweeping investigation of Schmidt's record and his pretensions to ordination.

"We hope, of course, to be able to prove that this unspeakable monster was an impostor and that he has been using forged papers," declared Monsignor LaVie, vicar general of the arch diocese of New York. "That is something which we are trying to clear up now. He came to this diocese with credentials which were apparently in every way authentic and genuine, but we know practically nothing of him. His crime is too horrid to conceive. We can only hope that he may prove to have been a pseudo priest."

In his cell in the Tombs, with his coat as a pillow, Schmidt slept soundly through the night and arose this morning to partake of a hearty breakfast. He had little to add to his alleged confession of last night in which he is said to have told the police that he killed his victim as she lay in bed, cut up her body in the bath tub of the apartment and bearing the established her, wrapped it in five bundles and dropped the bundles in the Hudson river.

Makes Two Confessions. To the Rev. L. J. Evers, the Tombs' chaplain, Schmidt was said to have made the following declaration: "I was directed to kill her by St. Elizabeth, who was my patron saint and bearing the name of the priest and the murdered woman. This license had been used. According to Schmidt's confession, he went through a marriage ceremony with the girl. In this ceremony Schmidt was both priest and bridegroom. There were no witnesses.

A gaily-colored pillow of unusual pattern led to Schmidt's apprehension. This pillow, stained with blood and soiled with the filth of the river, was wrapped around a portion of the torso. The detectives traced the pillow to its manufacturer; the manufacturer traced it to the dealer; the dealer traced it to Schmidt. And the police, tracing Schmidt and the girl, knew all about both of them hours before they arrested him.

The Message of Advertising

Every day this newspaper, and others of like reputation and standing, carry to their readers little messages about hundreds of human wants and necessities of life. These messages, in the form of advertising, are planned to answer all of our needs and to make easy and economical all of our purchases, great or small.

Therefore we profit to the degree that we pay attention to advertising and the messages it brings.

It is said that fifteen minutes a day spent in reading "Five Feet of Books" will give one a liberal education. It is just as true, and probably more practical to say that the same amount of time spent daily with our advertisers will net you just as valuable and beneficial results.
