WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Pitcher Love, a recruit from Atlanta, who stands six feet seven inches, started his first game for Washington today and was returned the winner over Detroit, 2 to 1, in the last game of the season between the two teams. The pitcher was hit hard and got into many holes during the seven innings he was on the mound. Detroit had thirteen men left on-bases, eleven of them being stranded during Love's regime, the hit needed to win always failing to materialise. Boehling pitched the last two innings for Washington and held Detroit safe. Washington's first run was helped along by Detroit's only error. Moeller hit in front of the plate and McKee, in fielding the ball, threw over Onslow's head, Moeller taking third. he scored when Milan singled. In the sich celler walked and on the hit and run went to third when Milan again hit safely. He scored a moment later on an out. Bush scored Detroit's only run in the seventh.
