Engagements and weddings are of special interest and many large and interesting weddings are to be celebrated this season. An engagement of local interest is that of Miss Shirley Castetter, daughter of Mrs. F. M. Castetter of Blair, to Mr. George Warren Donaldson of Lincoln. The wedding will take place in the early winter. Miss Castetter has been much entertained in Omaha where she has a large circle of friends. She has much beauty and charm and has served as maid of honor at the Coronation ball on two or three occasions.

The engagement is announced of Miss May O'Brien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Brien, to Mr. James H. Hanley, private secretary to Congressman C. O. Lobeck.

The wedding will be celebrated October 25 at St. Cecilia's cathedral. After a wedding trip the young people expect to spend part of the year in Washington, D. C.

Summer Clubs Close. The closing dates for most of the summer clubs have been definitely decided, most of them being closed before the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities.

Happy Hollow is the first to close and will have its last dinner dance this evening. Many large dinner parties will be given and about 100 reservations for dinner have been made by club members. There will be an informal dance Tuesday evening, when light refreshments will be served, and this will close the season for this club.

Next Saturday evening will be the last dinner dance at the Country club, but it will keep open until January 1 for formal affairs. Next year's eve the club will probably close for three months.

The Omaha Field club will close next Saturday evening with a dinner dance, after which only the grill will be open for the golfers.

The Seymour Lake Country club will close next Friday evening with a dinner dance.

The Carter Lake club plans to keep open for a few weeks longer, the exact date of closing has not been decided.

Returning from Summer Outings. Mr. Edgar Morrison, Jr. has returned from Westport, N. Y. Mrs. Margaret and children and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Buck, are expected next Tuesday.

Mrs. F. B. Johnson and children are expected today from Ogunquit, Me., where they have a summer home.

Mrs. Hatty Bryan of Chicago arrived Thursday and is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Tuley, until Sunday evening.

Bishop and Mrs. A. L. Williams arrived Saturday from their summer home at Richards Landing, Ontario. Mrs. Griffin, sister of the bishop, and Miss Leonora Williams came Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Hamner and Miss Hamner arrived home Wednesday from Winona, Minn., where they spent most of the summer. They are at the Carlisle.

Mrs. T. J. Mackay and Miss Eleanor Mackay arrived home Thursday from a summer at Alexandria, Minn. Their fortune was delayed by Mrs. Mackay's misfortune in breaking her arm several weeks ago, but it is believed that the cast can be removed in another week.

Miss Eleanor Mackay will return to Mrs. Somers' school in Washington, October 5.

Mrs. E. C. McKean leaves Thursday today and will be home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bures, who have been in Wyoming for two weeks, return today.

Mrs. Frederick Lake and small daughter have returned from Milwaukee, where Mrs. Lake visited her father and brother.

European Travelers. Dr. and Mrs. Henry B. Lemese sailed from Hamburg for home after two months abroad. They spent most of the time in Vienna.

Mrs. Arthur Remington and Mrs. D. H. Wheeler, Jr. plan to return from Europe in November.

Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Lord landed in New York last Saturday from a summer abroad. Dr. Lord reached Omaha Tuesday, Mrs. Lord remaining in Chicago to visit her daughter, Mrs. Vaughn, before coming home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Burgess and sons, Charles and Lewis, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kountze and their children, and Robert Burns landed Wednesday in New York from Europe. Mr. and Mrs. Burgess are expected home Sunday, having left the two boys at St. Paul's school. Mr. and Mrs. Kountze will remain east a few days. Their son Dennis also entered St. Paul's and their daughter Eleanor has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Kelly arrived Saturday from a summer in Europe. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Burgess, who traveled with Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, stopped in Chicago and will reach Omaha Thursday.

Cavalry Wedding. A pretty wedding Saturday evening was that of Miss Marion French, daughter of Major and Mrs. Charles French, Fourth United States infantry, to Lieutenant Eben Swift of the Eleventh United States cavalry.

The ceremony took place at 2 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents at Fort Crook. Rev. Thomas J. Mackay of All Saints' church officiating.

The rooms were beautifully decorated in roses in ivory, yellow, shades, and were lighted with yellow tapers.

The bride, a brunette of unusual beauty, wore an exquisite wedding gown, a Lucile model of white chambray, draped with court trains, the only trimming was duchess lace. She wore a veil of real lace and carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor was Miss Ethel Elliot of Minneapolis, who was gowned in yellow chambray and carried a basket of yellow rose buds.

Little Miss Edith Farnham, daughter of Lieutenant and Mrs. Clarence Farnham, was flower girl. She wore a dainty lace finger ring and carried a basket of yellow rose buds.

Lieutenant Burton Reed, Eleventh United States cavalry, served as best man.

Following the ceremony there was a reception for the guests, when Mrs. French was assisted by Mrs. Clarence Farnham, Mrs. Glendinning and Mrs. Youngblood of Manilla, P. I.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Swift left last evening for a wedding trip to New York and Washington, D. C., after which they will go to Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., where Lieutenant Swift is stationed. The bride wore a traveling suit of dark blue, trimmed with moleskin, and a black velvet hat.

It was originally planned to have a large military church wedding, but owing to so many officers being on the Mexican border, the plans were changed, and only relative and a few intimate friends in the army were present.

Returning to College. Miss Irma Gross will leave the latter part of the month to resume her studies at the University of Chicago.

Miss Mary Gifford, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Gifford, left Sunday for the Hillside school in Wisconsin.

Miss Alice Gidson left Friday for Lincoln to enter the University of Nebraska.

Mr. George Chaffin of Lincoln is visiting for a few days with Mr. Casper Blackburn. Both are students at the Annapolis navy academy and return the first of October to resume their studies.

Mr. John Schlichter, Jr. of Fort Crook, is entertaining a class friend, Mr. Claude Seahorn, of Spokane, Wash., who arrived Tuesday, and who will leave with Mr. Switzer for the University of Michigan, where they will resume their studies.
