DEPUTY SHERIFF IS KILLED

One Officer Shot by Another During Bandit Hunt.

TRAIN IS ROBBED IN ALABAMA

Safe on Express Bound for New Orleans Blown Open by Two Robbers. Who Escape with the Contents.

COTTONDALE, Ala., Sept. 26.—Two mere boys were the bandits who rifled the mail car and dynamited the express safe on Alabama Southern train, No. 7, near this place after midnight and escaped with booty variously estimated at from a few hundred to $50,000.

In the search for the bandits this morning, Deputy Sheriff James Bonner of Birmingham was shot and killed by a member of another posse from Montgomery who mistook Bonner for one of the robbers.

After stopping the train at Bibbville Station at 12:30 a. m. by means of a block danger signal, the young bandits, with drawn revolvers, forced the trainmen, express messenger and six mail clerks to line up at the side of the track. The robbers then compelled one of the trainmen to detach the engine, express and mail cars, after which the bandits boarded the locomotive and with one robber at the throttle drove several miles down the track, where the express safe was blown to bits with dynamite and the registered mail pouches were rifled.

The robbers then threw upon the throttle of the engine, leaped to the ground and escaped with their booty into the swamps, while the runaway engine with the express and mail cars ran on through several towns until steam was exhausted and it stopped at Englewood, Ala.

Special trains brought sheriffs and their deputies from Montgomery and Birmingham and at least 100 armed deputies and farmers are searching for the bandits in the swamps surrounding the scene of the robbery.

Booty Probably Heavy. The trainmen believed the robbers not much booty. One of the trainmen said: "The train was stopped by a darker black signal tied with the red danger signal showing. When Engineer Daniels stopped he looked into two revolvers in the hands of an 18-year-old boy.

"L. Pool, the express messenger, was setting his lunch when the robbers entered his car. 'Go away from here or I will throw the pot of coffee on your head,' said Pool. As he spoke a bullet fastened his cheek so closely that he fell to the floor, thinking that he had been shot. Six mail clerks were made to leave their coach and stand on the right-of-way with their hands up. Then the bandits forced the porter to cut the two front coaches and engine from the sleeper. The front section pulled away from the other section with one of the bandits at the throttle. Conductor Cook already had gone through the sleepers, locking the doors, arousing the passengers, and advising them to hide their valuables.

Clue Is Found. MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 26.—A clue was found this afternoon to the robbers who held up the Alabama Great Southern Express train near Cottondale last night, according to a dispatch from Tuscaloosa.

Members of a posse found the remains of a fire and several whiskey bottles in a swamp near Tuscaloosa. The fire had been built from the planking of one of the railroad cars, which had been wrecked with explosives.

According to the dispatch, Deputy Sheriff Bonner of Birmingham, who met death between Cottondale and Tuscaloosa at 8 o'clock this morning, while in pursuit of the train robbers, was shot accidentally by Deputy Sheriff W. J. Cope of Montgomery.

Iowa Falls Farmer Buys Patch of Sky; Wants Notes Back

IOWA FALLS, Ia., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—Officers are looking for two men who are alleged to have sold G. W. Hall of this city the county rights to sell a natural bath tub to farmers in Hardin county for $100. It is stated that two young men came to town a few days ago and started to advertise and sell a bath tub with heater attachment to farmers in the territory adjacent to Iowa Falls. They made the trip in Ford automobiles, and on some of the trips Mr. Hall accompanied them and he became quite well acquainted with the strangers. It is stated they represented to him that they had obtained of the county rights for the tub in Grundy county in a man named Smith of Grundy Center and that they were going to sell the rights in this county to someone who was looking for a splendid opportunity for investment in a proposition that would bring big returns. In the course of a few days Mr. Hall signed four notes, two being for $50 each and two for $100 each. The notes were given on a written note bearing the name of R. W. Denny as payee. When it came to negotiating the notes, the banks were informed by Mr. Hall that the notes were given by him and were bona fide. The parties negotiating the

ASKS WITNESSES TO GO EASY

(Continued from Page One.)—Wanted even in Sulzer by former Senator Stadler. The governor thanked Hoffman "for all you have done in my behalf." The letter to Elias expressed appreciation for "your letter and services." Judge Lewis Cullen of New York, the first witness, told of handing Sulzer a check from Daniel M. Brady. "What kind of a contribution was it?" asked John B. Stanchfield of counsel for the impeachment managers. "It was a contribution to help him along in his campaign," said Judge Cullen. The witness said he had received acknowledgment of the receipt of the money from Sulzer. In the cross-examination Judge D. Cady Herriot questioned him as to a conversation he had with Mark M. Potter, who the witness testified yesterday had given him a check for $500. Sulzer's Financial Condition. "Did you have any conversation concerning Mr. Sulzer's financial condition?" Objection to this question—that it was not competent—was overruled by Presiding Judge Cullen, who gave a lengthy opinion as to the admissibility of testimony tending to show whether it was the intention of contributors that the money could be used for private purposes or only to meet campaign expenses. "In my opinion," he said, "the respondent has the right to introduce evi-

High School Sorority Girls Under Ban of Ames Greek Women

AMES, Ia., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—The high school sorority girls, as such, is not a desirable subject to be invited to join either of the four Iowa State college chapters of the four of the national Greek letter collegiate societies, and she cannot hope to be a college sorority girl at Ames if she is a member of any high school sorority or club. The local chapters of Alpha Delta Pi, Kappa Delta, Delta Delta Delta and Phi Beta Phi sororities have, as the Ames Women's Pan-Hellenic association, put their foot hard down on the high school sorority by legislation against the academic sorority. The following notice was published as an advertisement in an Ames newspaper today: Resolved, That we, the undersigned, in accordance with the laws of Iowa and the ruling of the local board of Education, pledge ourselves not to issue invitations to membership to anyone affiliating herself in any way with a high school club or sorority by Ames after September 23, or to anyone who has not withdrawn herself from such club or sorority before October 1, or to anyone who shall be initiated into any secondary school sorority after graduation from high school in Ames. Signed: THE ALPHA DELTA PI, KAPPA DELTA, DELTA DELTA DELTA, DELTA AND FI BETA PHI. The sororities were not asked to take the action by the faculty of Ames; the legislation was conceived by sorority alumnae living in Ames. The alumnae proposed the ruling and the active girls pushed it through at a recent meeting of the Pan-Hellenic association.

Aldrich is Refused License for Company

(From a Staff Correspondent. LINCOLN, Sept. 26.—(Special Telegram.)—The Western Savings Investment and Loan company, which sought through the Lancaster county district court to secure a writ to compel the State Banking board to grant it a charter, was denied the writ by a decision of Judge Cornish handed down this afternoon. This is the company in which ex-Governor Aldrich, L. E. Fuller, his former private secretary, and seven others are interested. Mr. Fuller and one of the other members of the company called on Commissioner Reed of the busy city department of the state and sought permission to sell stocks and bonds in the state. They guaranteed a per cent on the bonds and a per cent on the stock. Judge Cornish also refused to issue a writ of mandamus to compel the State Banking board to examine the First State bank of Ulysses on application of Homer Earle and John D. Lemmon. They questioned the stability of the bank and called on the banking board to make an examination. An examination had recently been made they were turned down, with the result that her sought to compel the board to make another examination.

DEEMER LIKENS OTHER DAYS TO KINGS OF PEOPLE

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 26.—A plea for the independence of the judiciary was made by Thomas E. Deemer, chief justice of the Iowa supreme court, in an address today before a session of the annual meeting of the Missouri Bar association. "The independence of our judiciary," Judge Deemer said, "is threatened by the growing aspirations of the people. Just as in earlier centuries kings sought to intimidate the judiciary, now, the people having wrested the sovereign power from kings, are coming also into the age-old notion of exerting the sovereign power uncontrolled." Judge Deemer declared himself strongly opposed to the recall of judges and judicial decisions.

Horse Leaps Into a Automobile. GREENHILL, Ia., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—A serious accident happened a few days ago in the eastern part of this county. A horse, driven by a driver, met an auto on a highway. The horse had shown no fear of the auto and both were going at a very moderate speed when the horse suddenly made a leap and landed on the running board of the auto, breaking the fender and the wind shield and also breaking his own leg, necessitating his being killed. There was plenty of room for both vehicles and no blame is attached to any one but the horse.

Baby Drowns. GRINNELL, Ia., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—The 18-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dhanmarg, living east of this city on a farm, wandered out a few days ago to a high pile beneath which some old beans had been thrown. One of these that had contained concentrated lye had been partly filled with water from the recent rains, and the little girl got hold of the jar and drank enough of the contents to cause her death. She was in agony from 4 o'clock in the afternoon until nearly noon the next day.
