GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Short Lines Are Considered Dangerous Things to Put Out. BIG DEALERS ARE BUYING. Table Practically Everything that is Offered and Sales Were Quite Heavy in the Chicago Grain Pit.

OMAHA, Sept. 26, 1913. When the fact is considered that the grain men in the grain trade at Chicago absorbed the wheat and corn that was sold yesterday in the way of liquidation by scattered holders it is believed by many to be a dangerous proposition to put out short lines in the expectation of securing a big profit...

There were many professionals in the corn market yesterday. The buying power was not so strong as it was yesterday. The receipts of 72,000 bushels at western markets yesterday were nearly equal to the receipts of the corresponding day last year...

The corn market followed wheat and corn. The market for wheat was not so strong as it was yesterday. The receipts of 72,000 bushels at western markets yesterday were nearly equal to the receipts of the corresponding day last year...

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS. Features of the Trading and Closing. Prices on Board of Trade. CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—The grain market today lifted the wheat market here, but the advance was not well maintained...

Reports from Minneapolis that the country districts tributary to that city were restricting and holding over any decline in wheat prices. A little export business here in hard winter grades...

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET. Some Improvement Noted, but Movement Still Inconclusive. UNION PACIFIC RISES STEADILY. Government Forecasts of Today's Bank Statement Indicate Gain of Eight Millions in Cash Holdings.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Although there was some improvement in the action of the stock market today as compared with the session immediately preceding, the movement was still inconclusive. Early transactions showed a confused mixture of small gains and losses...

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Dry goods. All cotton lines are very strong. Foreign goods are also strong. Sales are very strong. Prices are firm and advancing.
