COMPANY CONTRACT

Road Absolved from Liability by Agreement Which Will Now Be Tested in Pederal

Courts.

A test of the value of a contract beween employers exempting one of them from all liability for injuries to employer a to be tried in the federal court at council Bluffs with the Union Pacific Railroad company and the Pullman company as the employers.

The matter was presented to the federal court at the Bluffs yesterday in the form of an application for an injunction restraining Frank J. Laughlin, a former Pullman car conductor, from prosecuting a $30,000 damage suit against the railroad ompany. The terms of the contract beween the Pullman company and the Inion Pacific railroad company are that the Pullman company is to furnish the equipment and employes to operate its business, and that the railroad company is relieved of all liability for any accidents to the Pullman employes.

McLauglin was an employe of the Pullman company, assigned to a car operated on the Union Pacific lines. On March 14 last the train of which this car formed a part was in the wreck at Gothenburg and he was badly hurt when several of the passengers were killed and injured Soon after his recovery McLauglin instituted a suit against the Union Pacific ompany at Independence, Mo., asking judgment for $30,000. The railroad company notified the Pullman company of the violation of the terms of their con tract and attorneys for the Pullman company yesterday applied to Judge McPherson's court for a writ of injunction restraining Laughlin from prosecuting his suit and asking for an order from the court directing its dismissal. Former President Will Make Ad dresses in Principal Cities of Brazil, Chill, Argentina and Paraguay.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29 .- From about the niddle of December to the end of March. Colonel Theodore Roosevelt will wander in the wilds of South America. Arrangements for this feature of the colonel's South American trip were described today. Little was said about times and places, because the colonel himself is not sure just where he will go or when he will emerge into civilized country. Colonel Roosevelt will sail from New York October L and will spend about two months visiting various cities in Brazil, Argentine, Chile and Paraguay, where he will be the government's guest and he will deliver several formal addresses Late in December a little river steamer will leave him and his party of natural ists at Cuyaba, Brazil, the head of nevigation, on the Paraguay river, where the hardships of the journey will begin.

Mr. Fiala will look after the equipment of the expedition. Mr. Cherrie will have charge of the collection and preparation of bird specimens and Mr. Miller will superintend the collection of animals. The ex-president will be the party's chief huntsman.

These four, with native Indian bearers, cance men and servants, will embark at Cuyaba, in light draft motor boats and canoes, although later canoes alone may have to serve.

It was said today that when Colonel Considerable difficulty was experienced Roosevelt first received invitations to lecin securing service upon Laughlin, who ture in South America, his first idea was lives in Omaha. It was intended that to decline, but that the opportunity to the suit should be instituted in the fed- hunt and collect scientific specimens in eral court at Omaha, but Laughlin left the wilds of Brazil was too attractive for the city. It was learned that he had him to resist. This opportunity was crossed the river into Iowa, and the brought to his attention by the Rev.
