PREDICTING A CLOSE SERIES

pinion Regarding Outcome Appears Unusually Divided This Year.

BETTING IS GENERALLY EVEN

Chief Advantage Accorded Ginnts' Strength in Pitching Department, While Athlettes' Heavy Hitting is Counted On.

NEW YORK, Oct 3.—Opinion regarding the outcome of the world's series appears to be unusually divided this year. Promment base ball players and writers are redicting a very close series of games with low scores predominating. All speak of the luck or break of the game being an important factor in the ultimate winning of the championship. The same situation has developed in the betting. Outside of the home cities of the two competing clubs the wagering is at even money. In Philadelphia the Athletics are slight favorites over the New York team and local supporters are quoting odds of 10 to 9 on the Giants to defeat the American league representatives.

Expressions of opinion on the part of the managers and players of other clubs are beginning to be heard here with the gathering of the advance guard for the opening game next Tuesday. Among those who are favoring the Athletics are Frank Chance, Napoleon Lajole, Clark Griffith and Umpire Billy Evans. Some of those who are naming the Giants as probable winners are George Stallings. Johnny Evers, Fred Clarke and Ty Cobb. Hughey Jennings and Bill Dahlen have stated that the teams are so evenly matched that the outcome of the series is a tossup with luck playing a leading part Majority for Glants.

A consensus among thirty of the leading base ball writers of the big league circults shows that eighteen favor the Giants to win against nine for the Athletics and three frankly undecided. Almost without exception, however, they qualify their predictions by stating that the series of 1913 will be very evenly contested and that the slightest break in the luck of the game will swing the championship one way or the other. The chief advantage accorded the Giants is their strength in the pitching department. The Athletics' adherents concede this point, but contend that the superior batting ability of the Philadelphia club will more than offset this advantage.

Manager McGraw had all his world's series regulars, aside from Fred Snodgrass, the center fielder suffering from Charley horse," in action today and in addition put Mathewson and Marquard through their paces. Larry Doyle, team captain and second sacker, whose shoulder has been lame since he nort it in an automobile accident last week, got into he harness in the second game of the uble header with Philadelphia. Doyle falled to show all his wonted spryness and case of movement, but it is expected that he will have limbered up sufficiently by next Tuesday to play his usual dash-

Combination Works Well. It was counted significant by some, however, that McGraw did not put Larry in with the rest of the regulars in the first game when Shafer played second and Herzog third. The combination worked well both at bat and in the field. But Shafer was back at third at the start of the later encounter and worked a while in that position with Fletcher, Doyle and Merkle-the infield that all along has been expected to man the inner defense of the Giants in the battle with the Athletics. It was in the first encounter that Mathewson and Marjuard, one or the other of whom is likely o twirl the opening world's series game. Hanley was spectacular.

'Matty" possibly has been in better form this year, but in the four innings he worked the heavy hitting Phillies were able to score but once and would not have counted then had not Shafer made a bad throw to first on Mages. who later crossed the plate on Luderus' louble.

Marquard had fine speed and control n the five innings he pitched and the only run scored for which his pitching was responsible was that in the sixth when Lobert tripled and counted on Magee's sacrifice fly to Thorpe. It was Thorpe's muff of an easy fly in the eighth that was responsible for the Phillies' third run of the game.

With another double-header tomorrow McGraw will have plenty of opportunity to tune up his other boxmen. Tesreau and Demarce are expected to show in these games. The little manager was

Creighton Squad Showing Up Well

The Creighton foot ball team is looking better each day. Never before has such a lot of ginger been displayed this early in the season, and those who have been watching the hightly practices, are beginning to predict big things for the blue and white. Under the snappy cross fire of signals from Captain Morey Miller at quarter, the entire squad gets into every play with every ounce of speed available.

A final scrimmage was held Thursday afternoon. The varsity ripped holes in the scrubs, and tore off big gains with the forward pass. Terrific line plunges were made by Coady and Walworth, while the defensive play of Miller and
