CUBS WIN IN THIRTEEN TAILENDERS OPEN SERIES

Defeat White Sox, Six to Five, in Thrilling Battle.

CONTEST IS A RAGGED ONE

Victory of Nationals Mainly Due to Courage and Coolness of 'Big Jim' Vaughn, Who Stands Fat Before Onslaught.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—In a thrilling thirteen-inning battle the Chicago Nationals made the standing in the Chicago championship series one and one this afternoon, downing the American leaguer, 6 to 5, before 25,368 persons.

The victory of the Cubs was due mainly to the courage and coolness of 'Big Jim' Vaughn, who refused to give way before the vigorous attack of the south siders.

The game was a ragged one and poor plays were as important factors in it as good ones. Though Cloutte was hammered hard, he might have lasted if some poor playing back of him had not been punished in the fourth round—a disastrous inning for the White Sox.

That inning Chappelle, whose timely hit in the eighth pushed Chase over with the tying run, let loose a wild throw that struck the grandstand; Schalk muffed a throw from Lord that let in a run and Bodie, later delivering an opportunistic single, misjudged Archer's short fly so badly that two runs counted on the hit and the Cub catcher drew up at second.

Singles by Evers and Seckler, and a double by Zimmerman had opened the inning, which ended only after the west siders had scored four runs.

Benz succeeded Cloutte in the fifth after Leach's safe drive, a pass to Evers and Schulte's hit scored the former, and after that he pitched a great game until the thirteenth. Then Zimmerman singled, Saler walked, Good flied out and Bridwell pitched into left and Zimmerman counted the winning run, Saler being caught at the plate on the throw-in.

The Sox bunched six hits in the fourth for three runs. Lord made the first of them and in trying to score from second on Bodie's single a moment later collided with Zimmerman in rounding third base.

To Umpire O'Loughlin, as well as to most of the spectators, it looked like a deliberate attempt at interference by the National's third baseman and Lord was allowed to score.

Score Tied in Eighth. Evers' fumble gave Bodie a life in the sixth and Collins hit two infield outs gave the American leaguers their fourth run. They tied the score in the eighth. Chase opened the round with a single and Bodie laid down a perfect sacrifice. Collins' fly to Leach was too short to help, but Chappelle drove out the needed hit and Chase scored.

MACKMEN TRIUMPH AGAIN

Beat Out Victory in Early Innings of the Game.

BUSH'S FINE WORK WINS

Big Jeff Tesreau Fought for Five Runs at Start and After that It Was All Off for the Giants.

him a hearty welcome to the association of home-run boys.

Philadelphia fans are now confident that Mack will send in Chief Bender Friday and that the big Indian will be able to duplicate his game of Tuesday.

The Athletics and Giants came on the field together shortly before 1 o'clock and the greeting cheers of the crowd had scarce died away before the Giants started in a long batting practice.

The sun succeeded finally in burning a hole through the clouds about 1 o'clock and the indications of a probable clear afternoon helped keep the crowd in good humor.

The crowd had now filled all the upper and lower grandstands and every seat in the backfield bleachers was occupied, with hundreds pressing for admittance as the gates, Bush and Lapp and Shawkey and Thomas warmed up for the Athletics on the side line.

Umpire Rigler gave the decisions on balls and strikes; Connolly took care of the bases while Umpire Clem was in left field and Egan in right field.

First Inning. Philadelphia.—The announcement that Bush would pitch caused hundreds to murmur in the stands: "This is the pitcher that Connie Mack has kept under cover for the last six weeks in order to use him in the world's series."

Thomas, the Athletics' catcher, said that Bush had a world of speed and a fine breaking curve when he warmed up.

Tesreau's curve broke over the plate for a strike. His second pitch was a ball. Fletcher threw a curve for a strike.

There was a close play, the ball beating the runner by only a step. Tesreau had plenty of speed, and break to the ball. Oldring singled when Tesreau sent up the ball. Collins took a strike, the ball curving over the plate near his knees.

Tesreau then shot over another strike, putting the batter in a hole. Collins singled over second, Oldring going to third. Then came Baker to the bat and the Athletics' rooters gave a mighty cheer. Baker missed the first one. The New York infield laid back to try for a double play.

Baker missed the second one, putting the batter in a hole. Collins singled over second, Oldring going to third. Then came Baker to the bat and the Athletics' rooters gave a mighty cheer. Baker missed the first one.

New York.—Bush put over the first one for a strike. The second one was a foul. After having two strikes on the batter, Fletcher pitched a curve for a strike.

Bury to Collins, Bush held a basket full of speed, but seemed somewhat shy of control. Doyle got an infield hit, which Bush was unable to field in time. Doyle had a good start on the pitcher in an attempt to steal second, but Fletcher fouled the ball. Fletcher was hit by pitcher. Burns flied to Collins, who tossed to Barry, doubling Doyle at second. No run, one hit, no error.

Second Inning. Philadelphia.—Schang struck out, being unable to gauge Tesreau's spitter. Bush flied out to Murray. Murphy beat out a hit to short, Fletcher making a nice stop back on the grass, but could not get his man at first. Oldring got his second single to right, sending Murphy to third.

It was the hit and run play cleverly worked. Oldring stole second, Murphy being held at third by groundsman and Tesreau's line drive over Doyle's head. This made six hits off Tesreau in two innings and the third man still to be put out. Collins was out at second when Doyle took Baker's burning smash and touched second. It looked like a sure hit and only wonderful fielding by Doyle prevented the ball from going to center field. Two runs, three hits, no error.

New York.—Shaffer out when Collins took his slow roller and tossed to first. Murray sent up an easy fly, which Collins smothered. McLean walked when Bush struck at struck "stuff" on the ball, his course breaking very wide at times, keeping Schang busy going after them. Bush gave Fletcher three balls and then put over two strikes. Fletcher singled over second. Collins stopped the ball, but could not recover to make the throw.

Burns flied to short, who nearly caught the ball to McInnis, who nearly caught Fletcher off the bag. Fletcher single, no error, having a good lead on the pitcher and Schang's throw being wide. Collins' throw out Shaffer. No run, one hit, no error.

Third Inning. Philadelphia.—McInnis flied out to Burns, the Giants' balls taking the line drive over the foul line. Burns took care of Strunk's high fly, not having to move but a few feet to get it. McLean took Barry's weak foul. No hit, no run, no error.

New York.—Merkle sent up a high fly to Strunk. Tesreau went out on three straight strikes. The last ball Tesreau struck at struck "stuff" on the plate and bounced into Schang's hands. Collins took Herzog's liner and the inning was over. The crowd applauded Bush as he walked to the bench. No run, no hit, no error.

Fourth Inning. Philadelphia.—Schang struck out for the second time in the game. Bush got a Texas leaguer which Burns trapped on the tops of the grass and it looked like a put out. Murphy out to Shafer. Doyle threw out Oldring at first. No run, one hit, no error.

New York.—Umpire Rigler cautioned the Athletics players on the bench from coaching. Doyle fouled out to Baxter. Bush had plenty of "stuff" on the ball, his course breaking very wide at times, keeping Schang busy going after them. Bush gave Fletcher three balls and then put over two strikes. Fletcher singled over second. Collins stopped the ball, but could not recover to make the throw.

Burns flied to short, who nearly caught the ball to McInnis, who nearly caught Fletcher off the bag. Fletcher single, no error, having a good lead on the pitcher and Schang's throw being wide. Collins' throw out Shaffer. No run, one hit, no error.

Fifth Inning. Philadelphia.—Collins made the New York fans sick by sending a liner to right which was only fouled by inches. Collins out on a smoking liner to Murray. Fletcher took Baker's pop fly on the left field line. McInnis out on a fly to Murray. No run, no hit, no error.

New York.—Bush pitched three balls, then shot over two strikes on Murray. Murray walked. It was the first base on a ball given in the game. Murray stole second and went to third on Schang's wild throw to right center. Murray scored.

when McLean's hit shot by Baker. Cooper ran for McLean. Merkle flied to Murphy. Cooper easily stole second. Schang's throw being very high. Baker threw out Tesreau, Cooper going to third. Schang threw out Herzog at first. One run, one hit, one error.

Sixth Inning. Philadelphia.—Wilson now catching for New York. Strunk flied to Burns. Barry singled sharply to right. Schang sent a long foul ball into the left field stand and the crowd groaned, thinking it might be a home run. Wilson took Schang's foul after a long run to the Athletics players' bench. Bush flied out to Doyle. No run, one hit, no error.

New York.—Score now 5 to 1. Doyle out on a smolder to McInnis, unassisted. Fletcher walked. A double play ended the inning. Bush took Burns' splash and tossed it to Barry, forcing Fletcher at second. Barry then completed the double by a rifle shot throw to McInnis. No run, no hit, no error.

Seventh Inning. Philadelphia.—Murphy sent a spitter to right for a single. Murphy was forced at second when Fletcher took Oldring's smash and tossed to Doyle. Collins sent a long foul into the upper right field stand, the ball falling almost into fair territory. Oldring scored on Collins' three-base hit along the right field foul line.

The ball took a wicked bound past Murray, enabling Collins to make third base. Collins scored on Baker's single to center. The Athletics' hitting was too much for Tesreau and he was called from the pitching mound. Crandall went in the box for New York. McInnis out when Doyle took his liner and touched Baker on the line for a double play, unassisted. Two runs, three hits, no error.

New York.—Shaffer doubled to left. Shaffer scored on Murray's single to left. Wilson fanned and Schang threw out Murray at second. Collins three out, throw and completing the double play. The Athletics' hitting was too much for Tesreau and he was called from the pitching mound. Crandall went in the box for New York. McInnis out when Doyle took his liner and touched Baker on the line for a double play, unassisted. Two runs, three hits, no error.

New York.—Herzog lined fly to Baker. Doyle out to Innis, unassisted. Fletcher fouled out to Schang, trying to bunt. No run, no hit, no error.

Ninth Inning. Philadelphia.—Murphy out on fly to Murray. Oldring out on a foul to Herzog. Collins out on a fly to Shafer. No run, no hit, no error.

PLAYERS AND FANS CONFIDENT None Dismayed by Results of First Two Games. POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The New York Giants and the Philadelphia Athletics, pennant winners of the National and American leagues, crossed base here this afternoon in the first contest of the world's base ball series.

Thirty-five thousand persons, undismayed by a constant threat of heavy rain, swarmed the vast concrete stadium to view the struggle. Each team, with a victory to its credit, was determined to win the day's game to obtain what the players call "the jump on the other fellow."

"You know luck breaks better for the leading team," said Larry Doyle of the New York Nationals, "and that's why we will be out there today to beat the Athletics."

A rainy field, drenched by hours of hard rain, showed up the fielding of both Giants and Athletics. Water had soaked through the coverings during the night and a dozen ground keepers worked from dawn to game time to dry out the moisture. Gallons of gasoline were sprinkled on the base paths and the early spectators saw what appeared like the start of a fire. The ground was then carefully sanded and the puddles in the outfield were sponged up.

Umpire Rigler inspected the grounds at 10:30 o'clock and reported it a diamond in shape to play if there was no more rain. The gates were immediately opened and a file of weather-anxious spectators, who stretched for four or five blocks away from the entrances, passed into the unreserved stands. Scores of women stood for several hours waiting for the gates to open. And they were just as lively as the men in the rush for the front row seats.

Comparison of Teams. "We're a chipper team," remarked John McGraw grimly, "but we will have a good club in the field today, as Mack's men will find out."

The Athletics came to the Polo grounds with every member in fine playing condition. Filled with far greater assurance than on the opening day before the teams had tested each other's mettle, New York fans began to flock to the grounds. The wonderful pitching of the great Matthewson yesterday and the fine way his mates had rallied to his support and with a crippled team preventing a single Philadelphia pitcher from teaching the Athletics worked wonders with the spirit of the club's followers.

On the other hand, Philadelphia were in no wise dismayed by the defeat their team had sustained in the first game at Shibe park. Again, as in the first game, he worked in the 1913 series, the wisardry of the veteran Matthewson had been too much for the Mackmen, but they had their partisans recalled that they had hit him freely on other occasions two years ago. Tesreau and Demaree, one of whom McGraw was expected to start today, are practically strangers to the White Elephants.

In number of available, the superiority lay with Mack, who had given a season's hard work for the schooling of Brown, Bush, Houck and Shawkey and by working them through when fit and in relays when the acting twirler began to show signs of wavering, successfully won game after game in the regular league season in 1912; however, New Yorkers claimed that McGraw was far ahead with Tesreau, a man who has been through the wire of a world's series and who showed so brilliantly in the few innings he pitched on Tuesday at the Polo grounds, and Demaree, a leader among this year's National league twirlers.

"In comparison with what our opponents have left my remaining pitching staff looks mighty good to me," said McGraw. Connie Mack was less explicit, but apparently he had no fear of the outcome.

"We are not a bit discouraged by our defeat," he said.

The Giant with the mighty Matty McGraw down the Philadelphia hitter in a row and giving the Mackmen a coat of white wash got away with yesterday's game in splendid fashion. But it was not to be denied that the crippling

TURN DOWN KANSAS PROTEST

Nebraska Athletic Board Will Not Draw the Color Line.

KANSAS MAY NOT BE CLEAN It is Said the Jayhawkers Have Several Players Whose Eligibility Might Be Questioned by the Authorities.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Oct. 9.—(Special.)—The Nebraska Athletic board, at a meeting here this evening, decided to turn down the protest of the University of Kansas and the Kansas Aggies against Clint Ross, Nebraska's big guard, on color lines. Secretary Clapp was notified to immediately wire the Kansas schools of the action of the board.

Not a dissenting vote was cast against the resolutions, which Coach Steigm himself drafted, declaring Ross eligible to participate in the games. The resolutions called attention to the fact that Nebraska had never enforced the color line and had always allowed colored players to participate. The board took the attitude that now was not the time to invoke the rule.

The sentiment prevailed that both schools were protesting from insincere motives. Nebraska's action may lead to an athletic split between Nebraska and Kansas, but the board announced today that the resolutions passed indicated its final attitude in the matter.

Guy Reed, manager of athletics, has several letters indicating that Kansas had better clear its own skirts before taking up protests against players in other teams.

It is said the Jayhawkers have several players whose participation is questioned. Practice tonight was light, without much scrimmaging. The varsity scored four touchdowns in its turn against the scrubs.

Creighton to Play Wesleyan Today at University Place

The Creighton foot ball squad, thirty strong, is at Lincoln today, where the Blue and White meets Nebraska. Wesleyan at University Place this afternoon.

In the squad are the regulars, about twenty in number, who will take part in the game, and the most faithful and valuable members of the scrub lineup.

In addition to the players, Coach Harry Miller, Manager Justin Young and Trainer James Kelly will accompany the team. They leave the Omaha Union station via the Burlington at 8:15 and leave Lincoln for the return trip at 6 p. m.

The wearers of the blue and white will be supported by a large delegation of students from all departments of the university and extra accommodations will be furnished by the railroad for the rooters. This is one of the two games which Creighton plays this year on foreign territory, the other being in St. Louis.

Creighton will enter the game in good shape, as none of the regulars are suffering from injuries. Parker has recovered from an injury to his arm, while Coady is now wearing a cast made especially for his injured leg and expects no trouble from that member. Creighton is well fortified with subs, having two sets of backfield men, three quarterbacks and three sets of ends.

WEBSTER CITY TROTTER'S REMARKABLE RECORD

WEBSTER CITY, Ia., Oct. 9.—(Special.)—George LeValley just returned to this city with his remarkable trotting horse, "The Deacon," from a tour of the racing circuits of Iowa, Missouri, Illinois and Wisconsin. "The Deacon" has a phenomenal record, which probably can not be equaled in all the United States, or perhaps, in the world.

During his five years of racing this horse has never finished worse than fourth, staying always inside the money. And at that he has but three fourth places in his record. "The Deacon" has been much written about in the big horse and sporting magazines, and the Horse Review but recently having carried an illustrated story on him.

Two years ago "The Deacon" was one of fifty-six horses in all the United States that had won fifty-eight heats during his racing career. This remarkable horse now, however, has a total of eighty-six heats won to his credit. His record as a world beater, though, will probably stand on the record that during five seasons he has never been behind the money, and that even then he has only three fourth places to his credit.

His season this year was comparatively short. Mr. LeValley started him in only nine races. On these nine, however, he won five firsts, three seconds and one third.

Two Games at Beatrice. BEATRICE, Neb., Oct. 9.—(Special.)—A double-header foot ball game has been arranged for next Saturday at this place. The regular eleven will play the South Omaha team and the second high school eleven will meet the Wymore team. Both local teams have been training hard this week for these games.

WAGES PAID OVER STATE SHOW MUCH BETTERMENT

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 9.—(Special.)—A comparison of figures to be found on file in the office of the bureau of labor and industrial statistics shows that the employees of the different manufacturing institutions in the state of Nebraska, so far as reported for 1912, show a considerable advance in the amount of money received by each employe for the year's work.

In 1911 it is found that 1,109 institutions employed 22,886 persons, paying them $14,925,077 for their services, or an average of $62.14 each for the year.

Taking up the year 1912 the report shows that 1,162 manufacturing institutions employed 26,792 persons, to whom they paid $15,822,294, or an average of $59.14 each for the year.

The cost of the material used in 1911 by the 1,109 manufacturing institutions was $168,428,753.

It is found that in 1912 the 1,162 manufacturing concerns used material which cost $133,333,361, but the manufactured product was valued at only $156,367,663.

It will be observed that while the wages of the persons required to produce this product have increased from $62.14 to $59.14 for the year, the cost of material has increased materially and the articles produced show a much smaller aggregate value than in the preceding year, half cent.
