SOME WAYS OF WOOLING SLEEP

Simple Means of Gaining the Friendship of "Nature's Sweet Restorer."

If you are a brain worker you require eight hours' clear sleep, a quiet day-end and a quiet week-end. And you need to be careful over your food and digestion. There is intimate connection between digestion, nerves, brain and sleep.

Pleasure! There are two kinds. One exhausts or excites, the other is recreative. See to it that your pleasures, especially your evening ones, are not of the sort that "take it out of you."

Then there's worry—the great hindrance to sleep. It's no good worrying! Do realize that. Put your worries from you. Don't go over and over your past day's work and don't begin, mentally, to do tomorrow's. Shut all this out—and sleep. Will power once more.

Other causes are late and heavy suppers, excess of tobacco, overheated rooms, a cold bedroom, cold feet, overwork, going to bed hungry, unoxegenated blood, stimulants, reading in bed and too much blood pressure on the brain.

That holds the key to the situation in nine cases out of ten. Remedies for the above-mentioned tendencies are given in the same order.

Alcohol, much or little, excites the brain. It is best avoided. Reading in bed helps and hinders. It depends. Read nothing exciting or anything which demands concentration. Both are bad.

So knowing that she and Mr. Jack will be making a home among a good, thrifty class of people, and that there will be all of the comforts of a city here, with the objectionable features eliminated, and also that the buying of a home place here can be considered as a good investment she has persuaded Mr. Jack to buy here and start to build a home.

MILLIONS TO AVERT FLOODS

Victims of the March Freshet Plan to Avert Future Disaster. The cities of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois that suffered so severely from floods last March have generally heeded the lesson taught by the great waste of life and property.

At Cairo, Ill., $750,000 is available for strengthening and raising levees. A sixty-foot stage is planned.

Indianapolis has appropriated $10,000 for a survey and $100,000 for repairs. Cleveland is formulating plans which, when carried out, will provide adequately against any recurrence of floods.

At Cincinnati the city and federal officials are working out plans for permanent relief.

Hamilton, O., which lost more than 100 lives and $5,000,000 in property is having a survey made, and will submit speedily to the voters of Butler county the question of an issue of bonds to insure permanent protection from inundation.

Brookville, Ind., is almost the only place that has taken no steps for future protection. The town was seriously damaged by the flood, and nearly a score of lives were lost. Its business men contemplate asking for state aid.

Evansville, Ind., is repairing its levees in an extensive way that is expected to avert the danger of another serious flood.

Prisoner a Power for Good. It is the testimony of Warden Meyer of the federal prison at Atlanta that Thomas M. C. Bram, who has served seventeen years of a life sentence, has been during that time a power for good in the institution.

The Poor Innocents. Little Anna was visiting the city for the first time. She had noticed the beautiful red and white swan boats as they passed through the park in the morning and her aunt had promised that after the shopping was done they should come back and have a ride.

MR. and MRS. JACK Select Their Homesite in Wearne Park Trust a Woman's Intuition Farther Than a Man's Best Reason

When Mrs. Jack made a critical investigation of the claims of Wearne Park, she immediately arrived at these conclusions: That lots in this tract were just as good as any that could be bought in the city. Not only that, but that they can be bought at a price that is lower than similar ground and improvements command elsewhere.
