

WOULD PAY COST OF ELECTION

Auditorium Company Puts New Proposition to the City.

ANXIOUS TO HAVE AN ANSWER

Directors Say that They Have Private Offers for the Building and Want to Know by First of the Year.

The Auditorium company is anxious to have the proposition settled as to whether the city wants to buy the building or not and that a decision may be reached as soon as possible the directors have decided to pay the cost of election, provided it is put to vote of the people before January 1. This decision was reached at a meeting of the directors Friday afternoon, by whose orders President F. A. Nash sent the following resolutions to the city commissioners:

"That the president of the Omaha Auditorium company be and he hereby is authorized to notify the mayor and city council of the city of Omaha that for the purpose of giving the city an opportunity to acquire said property and preserve the same for the purpose of a public auditorium, the proposition heretofore made to the mayor and city council be and hereby is modified to the extent that because of want of sufficient funds in the treasury of said city to pay the expense of an election the said Omaha Auditorium company will furnish the necessary money and pay the expense of an election to be held upon the proposition of the purchase of said property for said above named sum, provided said election is held before the first day of January, 1914.

"That in the event that the said city of Omaha does not decide by proper vote before January 1, 1914, to purchase said auditorium property in accordance with said proposition as hereby modified, that on or immediately after January 1, 1914, this board will then entertain and consider the proposition to dispose of said property to private ownership."

What She Wanted.

"I suppose," said the new saleswoman, "that you want a suit that will make you look attractive to your husband?"

"Attractive to my husband?" echoed the shopper. "I should say not. He wouldn't know if I wore a suit ten years old. What I want is something that will make my next-door neighbor turn a pale pink green with envy."—Buffalo Express.

Missouri Pacific May Construct a New Freight House

There is a rumor that among the improvements contemplated in Omaha by the Missouri Pacific a new freight depot is contemplated in the near future, though, when Superintendent DeBernardi was in the city a couple of weeks ago, discussing the proposition, he stated that it had not gotten beyond the talking stage. It had not even been authorized by the board, he said, and if built, it would be impossible to make a guess as to when construction work would be started.

It is known that next season the Missouri Pacific is going to double the size of the yards north of Webster street in order to handle the rapidly increasing business coming in over the Belt line, and this fact has given rise to the report of a new freight depot.

Ryder Commends Police Officers for Their Bravery

Police Commissioner J. J. Ryder has issued a proclamation to the entire police force in which he commends Officers H. A. Cunningham and E. B. Ferris for bravery in a fight with a burglar in the basement of a restaurant on Farnam street and says he will ask the city council to take formal cognizance of the bravery of the two men.

Policemen are thanked by the commissioner for their services during the Ak-Sar-Ben festival.

Speaking of Officers Ferris and Cunningham, Commissioner Ryder says "that such occurrences are to be expected in the day's work of a police officer does not detract from the real merit of their conduct."

Connell Says He Will Continue to Vaccinate Pupils

"Vaccination of public school children will be continued on the same principles the Board of Health has followed since I have been in office, and regardless of any action the Board of Education or any of its officers may take," declares Dr. H. W. Connell, city health commissioner.

A. J. Burdin, a member of the school board, asked the president of the board and the superintendent of schools to order the practice of vaccination stopped.

"Children are not compelled to submit to vaccination," continued Dr. Connell, referring to Burdin's charges. "It is optional with them. They must either be vaccinated or quarantined for the incubation period of the disease. As to the recent vaccination of school children I want to say that every one was vaccinated on the written request of their parents."

The Board of Education has nothing to say about vaccination, and it is not necessary for any member to try to dictate to me, for I'm going right on doing my duty without dictation from any source. I need no advice from the Board of Education.

"As to the question of whether vaccination is dangerous to health, I may say that there are 350 physicians in this town, and the majority of them will approve of vaccination."

No charge is made to parents for the vaccination of children, the expense being borne by the city.

ists who understand the value of witty dialogue, situations and actions, and last but not least novelties that do not require forced explanation to make an audience rally or respond with deserved approval. The company contains Frankie Heath, Mabel Clark, Claire De Vine, Francesca Ward, Harry La Van, George Howard, Hal Pine, Joe Holland, Joe Fred, Joe Perry, etc. A number of the latest dancing fads are introduced. The music, which has been especially composed for the production, is a veritable treat in itself. Ladies' dime matinee daily starting tomorrow—and the ladies are going to like fascinating Frankie Heath.

The long-heralded all-girl bill at the Empress has arrived, and will be an innovation in the line of a theatrical performance, so far as Omaha is concerned. The performance is headed by Roehm's Athletic girls, in a classical demonstration of the physical arts. Boxing, wrestling, fencing, bag punching, etc., seem to come as natural to these girls as to any of the so-called "stronger sex." The Bonnat sisters will present a singing, dancing and ventriloquist novelty, with many changes of costume. Vera De Vassini, the Italian nightingale, will entertain with a number of the grand opera master pieces, as well as some of the more popular airs. Dudley and Parsons, the eccentric singing and talking comedians, in a number of character sketches, will complete the performance. Four chances are offered daily. The shows begin at 1, 3:30, 7:30 and 9:00 Saturday and Sunday evenings; a special 8:30 supper show is presented. Some reserved seats are available, for the people who have decided that it was impossible to gain admittance to the Empress.
