of such election. In case the vacancy exists during the session the governor shall appoint a member of the same party as the former incumbent.

When asked this afternoon regarding the matter Gyernor Aldrich said he had not looked up the law evering the question of vacancies and therefore could not tell just what was required, but from what he had been told he thought he would probably call an election if it was necessary after he had received official notice of the vacancy. As far as the appointing of a successor to Mr. Taylor was concerned, if it was found necessary he said he would leave that matter to Governor Morehead.
