Even in Face of Fairly Heavy Receipts it Maintains its Own-Car Shortage May Be-Factor in Prices.

OMAHA, Jan. 6, 1915
Comparatively little change of importance was noted in the wheat market during the past week. Before the holidays the market was extremely dull. The December option went out quietly at $44c being moderately strong at the last. The May and June worked fractionally higher on short covering. The September delivery was active and at times irregular. Toward the end of the week the market was firmer as a result of more bullish foreign news, and a better demand for cash wheat. Spring wheat receipts were less, but promise to increase with a better car situation. Another helpful influence, perhaps the most important of all, is the situation in the southwest, where the continued douth is beginning to cause decided apprehension concerning the winter wheat.

The Argentina situation is not much changed. Shipments this week show a small gain over those of a week ago. The new wheat in South America is just beginning to arrive at the terminals, and it will be two or three weeks yet before OMAHA, Jan. 6, 1915

The new wheat in South America is just beginning to arrive at the terminals, and it will be two or three weeks yet before the exports of this year's crop make any substantial increase in shipments. So far as the American movement of spring wheat is concerned it is generally admitted to be surprisingly large for this season, but the distributive movement is equally large and stocks in storage are not burdensome. The demand for wheat from millers is more than ordinarily active, for the season. One of the best judges of each markets stated that with any considerable break in prices from the present level a good export would result. Cash wheat unchanged to be higher.

Corn was dull throughout the whole of last week, with prices fairly steady, even in the face of fairly heavy receipts, which have been limited to the capacity of receivers to handle them. This car shortage ceivers to handle them. This car shortage is getting to be a serious question and eventually may prove quite a factor in price making, the only variation being early in the week, when confirmation of large export sales of the preceding week started a decided covering movement among the professional traders. The actual demand for real corn is the chief element of strength in the face of bearish sentiment, which appears to be greatly in the majority among the traders. Export sales are moderate and considering the abundant supply at hand fall to nave any lasting influence on quotations. Cash corn. 40% higher.

Business in oats was restricted to a small volume and values were narrow last week. Receipts are too heavy for the market to carry and show much snap. Cash oats, \( \frac{1}{2}\) c higher.

Clearances were wheat and flour equal to 175.000 bushels; corn 205.000 bushels and oats 20,000 bushels.

NEW YORK, Jan. &-Quotations moved

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—Quotations moved in an uncertain way on the stock exchange today and speculative sentiment was confused, becoming more bearish as the session advanced. The supreme court ruling against the Union Pacific plan for distributing its Southern Pacific stock had a depressing effect. Union Pacific was the feature of the day's dealings. In the fore part of the session it was the strongest of the favorite stocks, rising 2 points. There was said to be some buying of this stock on the expectation that the supreme court would sanction the distribution plan and the general market moved up fractionally TR.—Steady (Treat, 144) (Age 25) (Age 2

HOGS-There was more or less depression in hogs with the packers doing their best to cheapen the cost of their droves. As shipping and speculative demand was very light again this morning rew offerings changed hands on that account, thus leaving a moderate supply almost entirely at the disposal of the packer buyers, there is no supply almost entirely at the disposal of the packer buyers. Early in the morning some good heavy grades sold steady but the majority of the sales had a weak and lower tendency, the general run of all the hogs selling anywhere from steady to as much as a nickel lower. The good heavy hogs wer in best demand, consequently were picked up before the light and mixed kinds which suffer most of the decline. The range of prices for the majority of the olferings was very little different from the close of last week, as $7.0007.25 included the bulk of the sales. While the range was about the same work box range was about the same more hogs sold nearer the lower figure than on Satsold nearer the lower figure than on Sat-urday, thus making the general market a shade lower. Slowness was an out-standing feature and everything was not cleared until well along towards mid-

About @ cars or 4.839 head were reported in, the supply being 1.316 head short of inst Monday but about the same as two weeks ago. There were around 1.700 head monarchy.

ing launches were driven ashore last night on the California coast near Point of Rocks, fifteen miles south of this city, and ten men probably were drowned. One of the wrecked boats was the United States immigrant launch Elizabeth.

There was a total of twelve men on board the three vessels, and only two are known to have reached shore. One of the lost boats was the fishing power boat Old Nick of San Diego. The name of the third, a sloop, has not yet been learned

As the number of occupants of the sloop was not learned, the total loss of life may never be known, but at least seven men were drowned. The seas carried nway every trace of wreckage with the exception of a rudder and a plece of the upper works of a boat believed to have been the launch. The known dead are:

SPANISH REACTIONARIES LOSING THEIR PRESTIGE

MADRID Jan. 6.-The bulk of opinion sees in ex-Premier Maura's withdrawal from activity signs of the complete defeat of reactionary politics in Spain. The reorganized conservatives seem to be tending towards liberalism, while the dynastic liberals, accentuating their progressive tendencies, appear desirous of reconciling the advanced element with the
