HOUSE CERTIFIES GEORGE G. HENRY ON CONTEMPT CHARGE

New York Banker Who Refused to Testify in Money Trust Committee May Be Punished.
WIDE QUESTION IS OPENED
He Challenges Right of Congress to Investigate Banks.
GEORGE F. BAKER TESTIFIES
He is Asked About Affairs of First Security Company.

IT PAYS 226 PER CENT A YEAR Corporation Was Formed for Purpose of Transacting Business Banking Act Forbids National Bank Doing.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The question whether the house money trust committee may investigate the affairs of national banks was started on its way to the courts today when the banking and currency committee unanimously voted to certify to Speaker Clark for contempt George G. Henry of New York, New York banker, who refused to tell the money trust committee the names of twenty-four officers of national banks who made $6,000 out of a syndicate to market California petroleum stock. The speaker presented the certification to the house and that body voted to certify to the United States attorney for the District of Columbia, with authority to proceed with the criminal action, involving fine or imprisonment. The case ultimately involves the right of congress to compel testimony in connection with its legislative affairs.

Over Two Hundred Per Cent a Year.
George F. Baker of the First National bank of New York, popularly referred to as "the biggest man in Wall street since J. Pierpont Morgan retired from active business," was the principal witness before the money trust committee today, telling of the organization of the First Security company, which holds the stocks of various banks throughout the country. The company was organized, he said, to do business which the government claimed the bank set forward. The First National bank to do. Mr. Baker said that in the last four years a dividend of 226 per cent had been paid. He said he saw nothing "improper" in a voting trust as a method of management.
Mr. Baker testified that when the securities company was organized the three bank stock and other bank stock held by individuals "in the interest of the First National" were turned over to the company.

List Placed in Record.
Mr. Undermyer wanted a list of the stocks.
"I had rather not make these public," said Mr. Baker. "They are our private business. I am perfectly willing, however, to let the committee go over the list and place in the record such stocks as it believes pertinent to the inquiry." Mr. Undermyer, with Mr. Baker and his counsel, went over the list and finally placed in the record the following list of stocks held by the First Security company:
Missouri First National bank, 500 shares; Missouri Trust company, 200 shares; Bankers Trust company, 1,200; Fidelity Trust company, 400; Astor Trust company, 30; Chase National bank, 2,500; Liberty National bank, 900; New York Trust company, 250; National Bank of Commerce, 4,000.

HELEN GOULD WILL WED SHEPHERD NEXT WEEK
NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—The marriage of Miss Helen Gould to Finley J. Shepherd of St. Louis is expected to be celebrated next week. It is stated that Miss Gould has fixed the date of the wedding and that invitations will be issued within a few days, but as these are to be confined to near relatives and friends and a home wedding in preference to a church affair, the arrangements will be kept as private as possible.
The wedding will be held at Miss Gould's country place at Irvington-on-the-Hudson. The date of holding it at her Fifth avenue residence in New York having been abandoned because of the publicity that has attached to the announcement of her engagement.

SAYS DISEASED BEEF IS SOLD TO CROW INDIANS
WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Sales of diseased beef to Crow Indians with knowledge of interior department officials was charged today by Mrs. Helen Pierce Gray, an investigator, before the senate Indian affairs committee hearing on Senator Townsend's resolution to direct the interior department to send the Crow records to the attorney general for investigation. Mrs. Gray declared that beef of cattle with lumpy jaw sold to the Indians by license of their lands had produced lumpy jaw in the Indians. Senator Townsend declared he was convinced gross frauds had been perpetrated on the Indians and that investigation should be made.

Women Who Destroy Mail Are Sent to Jail For Eight Months

LONDON, Jan. 9.—Sentences of eight months imprisonment were passed in the Old Sessions today on May Billinghurst and Louisa Gay, militant suffragettes recently engaged in a campaign of destruction of the mails. Miss Billinghurst is a cripple, unable to get about except in a tricycle, already has been imprisoned on several occasions in connection with the suffrage campaign.
Evidence given today showed that letter boxes throughout the center and the west end of London had been damaged, together with their contents, by means of acids and sticky fluids of various kinds.
In some cases inflammable matter such as rags soaked in lamp oil had been inserted through the slits in the boxes for the admission of mail. Many valuable documents had been destroyed in this way. This included money orders, contracts, checks and bank notes.
It was a matter of difficulty to capture the perpetrators of the outrages in the act, as in most instances the destructive fluids were passed into the boxes in unmarked bottles contained in ordinary envelopes.

Negro Accused of Taking Archbold Letters Located

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—William W. Winkfield, a negro, who, while an employe of the Standard Oil company, assisted in purloining what are known as the Archbold letters, was indicted today. The letters, which were paid for by the Standard Oil company, were found in a box at his residence in the city. He had been caught with the letters and Charles Stump, an office boy, and Charles Stump, taking letter copy books from the files one day in 1901 or 1902. They promised to "let him in on the deal" if he would keep quiet, he declared today, and F. A.
Donahoe, Winkfield's attorney, explained that his client accepted their proposal because the company had refused to raise his salary, although he had worked for it for seven years.
"I don't know how much they got," Winkfield said, "but if I was to have received a third of $24,000 I don't get it. I cannot say whether the letters published were the ones stolen by Stump and Morell."
Winkfield was summoned to testify Saturday before the committee investigating campaign expenditures on the letters and their alleged sale to William R.
Hearst.

Andrew Gonzales Will Be Executed for Murder of His Wife

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Andrew Gonzales will be hanged here January 27 for the murder of his wife, despite the efforts of attorneys that he shows symptoms of insanity. President Taft, after an exhaustive investigation declined today to extend clemency to the condemned man, holding that his condition is not such now and was not such when he committed the crime as to exempt him from the responsibility for murder in the first degree.
The case created a puzzling question of ethics for officials—the propriety of hanging a probably insane man, although he may have been sane when the crime was committed.
The murder was a brutal one, Gonzales cutting his wife's throat on the street as she was returning from an errand on which he had sent her while preparing to take her life.

House Folding Clerk Found Dead in Gotham

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—C. L. Swords, clerk of the folding room in the house of representatives at Washington, was found dead a midnight in a small room at a Seventh avenue lodging house under conditions which led the police to start an investigation today.
Swords, a middle-aged man, dressed in good clothes, was found by an employe of the house sitting upright in a chair, dead.
Official papers and a ring were the means of identification.
A physician reported death as "probably due to heart failure," but that was not satisfactory to the police who do not understand how a man of Swords' type came to be in such a place. It is probable an autopsy will be ordered.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—C. L. Swords, folding clerk of the house, found dead in a New York lodging house last night, was 40 years old and was born in Victorsburg, Miss. He leaves a widow. His body probably will be cared for by the house.

Woman Executed For Smoking Opium

SHANGHAI, Jan. 8.—Death as a punishment for opium smoking was meted out today to a woman of this city who persisted in the use of the drug despite the stringent manifesto issued by the government on Christmas day, prohibiting the people from indulging in the habit. By order of the governor of the province the woman was taken to a public place and executed by shooting this afternoon in the presence of a large crowd of spectators.

MANAGER OF ST. LOUIS CLUB KILLED BY FALL

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 9.—Paul Luddecke, manager of the Bellevue Country club, whose membership is made up of some of the wealthiest persons in St. Louis, was found dead today under a second story window of the club house. His neck was broken and death was instantaneous.
Apparently he had jumped or fallen from a second story window, and was found lying in the street. It is believed he was on his way to work. He was a well-known club member and was found by the janitor of the club.

WOMEN IN QUARREL OVER WILSON IDEAS

President-Elect's Views as to Free Trade Election in Democratic League.

MRS. CROSBY LOSES OFFICE
Mrs. Ayres Elected President of National Organization.
LOSER SCORES NARROW MINDS
Says She Intends to Tell Mr. Wilson All About It.
MRS. SCOTT RESENTS INSULT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Questions whether President-elect Wilson is a free trader and a single tax advocate, and whether he, together with Senator Orin-man of New York, had endorsed Mrs.
Steven R. Ayres for the presidency of the Women's National Democratic League, caused discussion in debates at the second day's session of the convention of that organization here today. These subjects precipitated a clash between Mrs. John Sherwin Crosby of New York, the retiring president of the organization, and Mrs. M.
T. Scott, president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution.
Mrs. Scott had appealed to the platform from which to make her speech nominating Mrs. Ayres, when she was asked by the president to step down and speak from the floor. The announcement caused much disquiet among the delegates. Mrs. Scott after declaring she had been insulted began her nomination speech, in which she made the statement that Mrs. Ayres had been endorsed for the office by President-elect Wilson and Senator Orinman.
Nominating and endorsing speeches displayed much feeling at times, and it was with difficulty that the chair was able to maintain a semblance of order. The greatest show of feeling came when the election for president had been completed and the announcement made that Mrs.
Ayres had been elected.
"Canstic Speech by Loser." At this point Mrs. Crosby from the chair said:
"I am very glad, ladies, that you have elected a new president. Regarding the statement referring to Mr. Wilson I wish to say that both Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are friends of mine, and I know he would not interfere in an election of this organization. I propose that he shall hear how his name has been brought into this affair. I have lost the election because of the question of whether I am a free trader and single taxer or not, and since this is the case I do not care to preside over such a narrow-minded set of women."
Mrs. Crosby's statement was made after Mrs. Scott had risen to a point of personal privilege and attempted to defend herself.

Revolt Breaks Out Among Democrats in Illinois Senate SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 9.—Insurrection broke out among the democratic senators today when John E. Madigan of Chicago, who had bolted the party conference, had bolted the party conference, declared his intention to prepare a resolution demanding the resignation of Walter I. Manny, democratic leader of the senate.
Manny is charged by Madigan with violating an agreement to appoint Cleary a member of the committee on committees.
The senate adjourned until Saturday for a perfunctory session at which another adjournment will be taken until next Tuesday.
Senator Walter Clyde Jones, progressive, stated today that he and his associates are ready at any time to form an organization with the progressive democrats and progressive republicans. He thought the best plan was for progressives and republicans to combine and elect I. V.
Sheehan for the long term and a progressive for the short term.

Petition of Yeiser Attacked by Kennedy

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 9.—(Special.)— Crawford Kennedy has filed with the secretary of state an objection to the petition filed by John O. Yeiser asking that the name of Theodore Roosevelt be placed upon the republican ballot in Nebraska in 1916.
Mr. Kennedy avers the laws of Nebraska do not contemplate that the name of a candidate be placed upon the ballot three years before the election. He states that the petition is a fraud upon the republicans inasmuch as Theodore Roosevelt is not a republican, but belonged to a different and distinct party.
He prays that the secretary of state disregard the petition.

Hoagland Favors Referendum Vote

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 9.—(Special.)—Senator W. V. Hoagland of North Platte is opposed to the legislature taking any action in the university removal question.
"I think that the only way to solve the matter," said the Senator, "is to put it up to the people by a referendum vote and let it be settled that way. It is a matter in which every voter in the state ought to have a chance to help settle and the legislature will have enough to do on its own without setting it up as a university removal matter."

ROCK ISLAND OFFICIALS CHARGED WITH GRAFT

ROCK ISLAND, Jan. 9.—Alleged grafting among county officials resulted today in the arrest of Supervisors S. H.
Wright and E. H. Steiglitz on charges prosecuted by Police Magistrate C. J. Smith.
Smith alleged that the two took money from the county, illegally. The county board has appropriated $500 to Smith to pay for the prosecution of the prosecution. It is believed that the money was paid to the officials of Sheriff O.

ROOSEVELT AGAINST FUSION

Colonel Says Progressive Party Should Make No Alliances.
WELCOMES ALL HONEST MEN Republicans and Democrats Are Asked to Come Into the Ball Moose Camp and Be Good.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Theodore Roosevelt replied today to a proposal advanced by Frank A. Munsey yesterday to bring the progressive and republican parties together. He said:
"I am simply speaking as one of the men in the ranks of the progressive party.
Personally I strongly feel that we should no more enter into a combination with the republican machine than with the democratic machine. I firmly believe that all good progressives who may happen yet to adhere to either the republican party or the democratic party will in the end see that the chance for honest government and for the practical achievement of social and industrial justice lies in the progressive party and only in the progressive party."
"We welcome all honest men who believe in our principles. If they come in with us they shall have exactly the share that any other people have of the party management. I hold that we are under the same obligations to ex-democrats like Judge Lindsey and Don Dickinson, as to any ex-republicans."
"To my mind the whole attitude of those at present responsible for the leadership and management of the republican party shows that it would be folly to try to combine with them."

The National Capital PIONEERS ELECT OFFICERS

Thursday, January 9, 1914.
The Senate.
The senate convened at noon.
J. N. Hulst of Little Rock, Ark., sworn in as successor of the late Senator Jeff Davis.

Closing argument of defense in trial of Judge Archbold began before court at 11 o'clock.
The House.
The house convened at noon.
Banking and currency committee voted to certify to speaker for contempt George G. Henry, for refusal to answer certain questions before money trust investigating committee.
Hearing of various interests on revision of schedule "B" of the tariff before ways and means committee.
Secretary Stimson advocated restoration of army cadets at hearing before military affairs committee.
Notice of contest of re-election of Representative Kent, first California district filed by H. G. Zimmwalt, defeated democratic candidate.
The other officers elected are: Vice presidents, Fred Krug, sr.; Lafayette ShIPLEY, John F. McArdle, Hans Anderson, Peter M. Gould, Mrs. Henrietta M.
Rees and Mrs. Mary E. Sorenson.
Mrs. Charles H. Plette was the unanimous choice for assistant secretary. Augustus Loebner was made treasurer.
A committee to arrange for the association's mid-winter social was named as follows: William I. Kierstead, Harry Claiborne, Joseph Rodman, Mrs. C. H.
Plette, Mrs. Josephine Carroll, Marlin Dunham, Mrs. R. L. Wright, Mrs. Julia Leach, Mrs. Sam Rees, sr.; Augustus Loebner, John A. Dempster and Mrs.
Albert Sorenson.
The association passed a resolution excluding other organizations from the room donated in the court house by the county commissioners. It was pointed out that the association intends to decorate the room with photographs of former presidents and deceased pioneers and equip it with handsome furniture which would be too valuable to entrust to organizations which might use the room.
Mr. Kierstead announced that he had a large picture of Edward Bowen, who would donate to the organization to be hung in the association's quarters.
A committee will be appointed by the association to pass on pictures submitted.
Thirty-five new members were enrolled in the organization. Among them was Edward Black, an early settler and old newspaper man of Omaha.

Quarter Million Bail Bond for Tveitmoe and Clancy is Filed

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 9.—Bail bond in the sum of $200,000 for the release of Olaf A. Tveitmoe and Eugene Clancy, the convicted dynamite conspirators sentenced to six years in the federal prison at Leavenworth, were filed here today with the United States district commissioner.
The bonds will be forwarded to Leavenworth, Kan., where they must be signed by Tveitmoe and Clancy before they are admitted to Judge Anderson, who tried the case.
LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Jan. 9.— Warden McClanahan of the federal prison here said this afternoon he had received no notification of the acceptance by a federal court of bail bonds for the release of Olaf A. Tveitmoe and E. A. Clancy. If the usual procedure were followed, he said, the completed bonds would be sent by mail and several days must elapse before the men could be released.

Secretary Stimson Argues for Canteen

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—In favor of the restoration of the army canteen, Secretary Stimson, Surgeon General Torney, Brigadier General Waterhouse and Representative Harthold of Missouri appeared today before the house military affairs committee to urge Mr. Barthold's bill for that purpose.
Secretary Stimson said that without the canteen conditions were worse than when the sale of beer and light wines was allowed at army posts.
Secretary Stimson testified that the government was anxious to clean out the red light district in Colon before the Panama canal opened for traffic. He said that on his recent visit to Panama he attempted to open negotiations for the government to buy ten acres comprising the district, but was unable to do so despite his offer of a high price. Such acquisition would have to be by treaty with Panama.
Surgeon General Torney, U. S. A., said at the Presidio in California there had been much interference among soldiers because of the large number of saloons just outside the post.
"When one comes into the army," said General Leonard Wood, chief of staff, "from families where drinking is permitted and he goes to a place where they can hardly drink it puts them in a precarious situation." He is in favor of the canteen under restrictions as proposed by the legislation.

Injunction Granted Against the Eastern Lumber Combine

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—The government's petition for a permanent injunction against the Eastern States Retail Lumber Dealers' association, alleged to be a combination in restraint of trade, was granted today by the federal district court. Final arguments for and against the injunction were heard a few weeks ago.
NEW YORK COURT DECIDES SUIT AGAINST LUMBER
NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Attorney John B. Gleason lost his suit today against Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw to recover $20-000 counsel fees for defending her son, Henry K. Thaw, at his first trial for murder. The federal court ordered a decision in Mrs. Thaw's favor, with costs.

MOREHEAD TAKES ON DUTIES OF GOVERNOR AS CROWDS APPLAUD

Simple Inauguration Ceremony in Watched by Large Assemblage in House Chamber.

NEW GOVERNOR READS MESSAGE Makes Many Recommendations to Listening Legislators.

ALDRICH PRESENTS HIS VIEWS Retiring Governor Makes Some Suggestions for Changes.

BOTH RECOMMEND ECONOMY
Messages Attle in Many Particulars, with Slight Divergence on Some Points and Wide Difference on Others.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Jan. 9.—(Special Telegram.) —Before a joint session of the legislature and in the presence of a crowd which completely filled representatives hall and the gallery for the supreme court, retiring Governor Morehead was inaugurated Governor of Nebraska and the candidate elected in November took the oath of office. The outgoing governor, Chester H. Aldrich, and the incoming executive delivered their recommendations to the legislature.
Chief Justice Rees administered the oath and it was subscribed to by all the officers except Attorney General Martin, who was in the supreme court, trying a case in which the state was a party. Mr. Martin took the oath before Miss Murphy, a notary in his office.
Representative hall was in no way decorated for the occasion and there were no frills about the affair.

Two Governors Appear.
President Pro Tem. Kemp of the senate presided and after the roll call he at once introduced Governor Aldrich, who delivered his message, requiring almost two hours. Then the oath was administered to Governor-elect Morehead, who read his message, which was brief.
He received considerable applause, as he progressed, raising his fist each time when he advocated making a reformatory out of the Soldiers' home at Milford.
Instead of the home at Grand Island, recommended by the outgoing governor, Secretary of State Wait, during the merit, voiced his opposition to both suggestions.

Both Governor Aldrich and Governor Morehead received the closest attention and both could be heard distinctly at the far corners of the chamber. Mrs.
Aldrich and her daughter and Mrs. Morehead and her son and daughter were in the audience, as were many visitors from the state.
From Omaha and South Omaha were Mayor Dahman, Tom Flynn, Leo Stridger, Joe Butler, John Mahoney, Vin McDonough, Harry Fiehrer, ex-Senator Tanner, John Franek, Edv Pivonka, Rudolph Yechout and W. E. Stoecker.

After the adjournment of the joint session both branches adjourned until Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.
Morehead's Recommendations.
In the opening sentences of his inaugural address, Governor Morehead cautioned the legislators to be careful about appropriations. "Economy is a public virtue, as well as a private," said the governor. He suggests that appropriation bills be made a special order in the house beginning on the twenty-fifth day of the session, and continue at the head of the house calendar until disposed of, thus getting them over to the senate in good season for thorough consideration by the upper house.

For the new board of control the governor says he will endeavor to name honest men who have succeeded in their own business. In the matter of legislation, the governor recommends Opposition to the removal of the University from the city campus to the state farm.
A law to permit county boards to employ as well as private firms.
The abolition of contract prison labor; convicts to be employed on roads or farms, or in making clothing and other articles for state uses.
To make it a felony to illegally traffic in opium within the penitentiary.
To convert the Mildford soldiers' home into a reformatory and improve the Grand Island home to the extent necessary to take care of all the old soldiers and sailors of the state.
A new and comprehensive road law.
