

Brandeis Theatre Announcement

THE management takes pleasure in announcing that all first class attractions are now playing the Brandeis Theatre.

Never in the history of Omaha Theatricals has the public been offered as splendid attractions as during this season, and we desire theatre goers to appreciate the fact that they must support these offerings to the fullest extent in order that we may book as high class attractions the following season as will positively appear here this year. If, however, the public fails to patronize this season's offerings to the extent they should, then the booking syndicates of the east will refuse to send to Omaha the same splendid line of attractions next season as they are doing at present and you the public will have no one but yourselves to blame for the class of attractions you will receive in the future. The most pronounced successes that have played in New York, Boston and Chicago will be presented in Omaha during the months of January and February—which list we quote below:

Fritzi Scheff with "The Love Wager" and big company.
"Gypsy Love," the big musical success.
"The Chocolate Soldier" with magnificent singing cast.
"The Bohemian Girl," big production, sixty people.
"The Butterfly on the Wheel," an English comedy.
"Louisiana Lou," the Chicago musical success.
David Belasco's production, "The Concert," with Leo Dietrichstein in the original role.

Kitty Gordon, the famous English beauty in "The Enchantress" and company of seventy-five people.
"The Blue Bird," Materlink's spectacular fantasy.
DeKoven Opera Co., in Robin Hood.
"The Pink Lady," with Hazel Dawn, Alice Dovey and Frank Lalor.
Charlotte Walker in "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine."
Madame Calve.
Sothorn & Marlowe, in Shakespearean repertoire.

Seats may be reserved for any of the above mentioned attractions which will appear during the next two months if request is accompanied by check or money.

The first of March we will publish a list of the attractions that will play the Brandeis Theatre during March and April.

TESTIFIES AGAINST NOLEN

Bank Cashier Identifies Him as Man Who Presented Draft.

WITNESSES RECOGNIZE HIM

Much Damaging Evidence Collected from Men Who Have Come in Contact with Forger in the Last Few Years.

United States Attorney F. S. Howell spent yesterday morning in an endeavor to prove that checks signed by E. K. Chambers and cashed at Decatur, Ill., were in truth signed by Diggs Nolen, who is on trial in the federal court on a charge of using the mails to defraud. George E. Haverstick, assistant secretary of the United States National bank and president of the Commercial club, was called to the stand and qualified as an expert on handwriting. He was asked to identify the signatures of several alleged forged checks as being written by the same person.

Another one of Nolen's deals was brought to light in the trial. W. A. Hammer, assistant cashier of the Midland National bank of Decatur, told of cashing a draft for $1,200 which was presented to him by E. K. Chambers. He identified Diggs Nolen as being the man who presented the draft and to whom the money was paid. J. J. Smith, a saloon keeper of Decatur, said he knew Chambers when he was in that town, but could not identify Nolen as being the same man.

SEATS SELLING RAPIDLY FOR CREIGHTON CONCERT

Sale of seats for the Creighton club concert January 15 at Boyd's theater has far surpassed the sale of any of the preceding festivals of the club, and Manager Charles Hamilton has been assured of a packed house.

Interest in the concert has reached a high degree among the students of the arts department and classes are vying with each other in the disposal of tickets. The freshman class of the college department is in the lead. A recent mass-meeting showed the spirit and many enthusiastic speeches were made. Past performances, musical and athletic, were held up as incentives for a hearty support of the club this year.

John Beveridge, chairman of the program committee, promises a unique program. The club itself is putting in a last strenuous week and is rehearsing every evening. John A. McCreary, actor, will sing the tenor solo in the "Nin of Nidafos," the feature number to be given by the club.

Life-sized portraits of Miss Christine Miller have been prepared by the Camera club of the arts department and have been put on display in Omaha and Council Bluffs.

Women Find Dresses in the Loot at the McBee-Perry Depot

It was through a tip received from the Omaha police department that Council Bluffs officers were given the opportunity of arresting John Perry, the much-wanted man in connection with the discovery of the loot depot at the Frank Melice home. The Omaha police learned that Perry had crossed the bridge for Council Bluffs late Tuesday night to take a Burlington train for St. Joseph at 11 o'clock.

Detectives Callaghan and Lane went to the Union Pacific transfer station shortly before four and found Perry sitting in the waiting room. Thirty or forty people were in the room when the officers approached Perry with drawn revolvers. This precaution was necessary, for Perry is known to be quick on the trigger and is rarely known to be without a gun. The last time the police arrested him he was equipped with three. Under the present circumstances they were reasonably certain he would try to shoot his way to freedom.

Perry put up a stiff fight and succeeded in partly drawing a revolver before he was overpowered. The arrest created a sensation for a few minutes, for the waiting passengers believed the officers were engaged in a wild western holdup, and there was decided danger for a few moments of interference.

When the man was subdued and handcuffed and the officers showed their stars the excitement subsided.

Perry was found to be armed with a .38-caliber Colt's and declared while on the way to the station that if he had known the men were officers they would never have got within ten feet of him, for he would have killed both of them.

ORCUTT STOCK BOUGHT BY BIG OMAHA FIRMS

J. L. Brandeis & Sons company and E. E. Smith & Co. have purchased the entire stock of the E. H. Orcutt & Son company, 364 Farnam street, for $23,750. The Orcutt concern did a wholesale and retail business in carpets, rugs and other floor coverings and draperies. The transaction is one of the largest of the kind in Omaha for some time. The sale was made by William A. Maurer and David D. Miller, trustees.

WANT A TECHNICAL SCHOOL

Southwest Improvement Club Will Ask School Board to Act.

HOLOVITCHNER ADVOCATES IT

President of Board of Education in Speech Last Night Outlined the Needs of School District and Pleads for Trades School.

Following a speech by President E. Holovitchner of the Board of Education, the Southwest Improvement club in a meeting at Twenty-fourth and Leavenworth Wednesday night unanimously passed a resolution requesting the school board to at once take steps to establish a technical high school at a cost of $50,000 or whatever sum is necessary.

Dr. Holovitchner said the technical high school has ceased to be a fad or an experiment and is rapidly becoming one of the necessities of modern education.

"There are three kinds of modern education," said the doctor. "One is the academic, the other the commercial and the third the industrial. We need the trades school in Omaha now—we have established the other courses."

OLD-TIME HACKMAN FOUND NEARLY DEAD FROM DISEASE

Suffering from disease and alone, having had no food or water for ten days, Dave Kerry, one of the old time hack drivers of Omaha, was found at 8 o'clock last night under a pile of hay in the left of the Palace livery at Seventeenth and Davenport streets. He was barely alive when Emergency Officer George Emery and Chauffeur Harry Buford carried him down stairs to the patrol wagon to take him to the emergency treatment hospital at headquarters. He was so weak that he could scarcely talk.

25 cent "Danderine" for Falling Hair and Dandruff—Grows Hair

Don't pay 50 cents for worthless hair tonics—Use old, reliable, harmless "Danderine"—Get results.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; essentially producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast.

It was given him and that was the last seen of him until one of the men jabbed a pitchfork into a pile of hay in one of the stalls. A groan came from beneath the pile and the frightened employee called other attaches. The police were then notified.

According to old time policemen who knew Kerry, he was once a prosperous hackman with a good business. His mother, Mrs. Margaret Kerry, and several other relatives live at 2313 Douglas street, but the son has not lived at home for several years.

When he revolved a bit at headquarters he said that he had crawled into the pile of hay about ten days ago and had been there since without food. He was unable to eat when offered food by Dr. Foltz.

Water Rate Battle Approved by Women Who Desire Ballot

Women of the Omaha Suffrage association have endorsed the position The Bee has taken regarding Omaha water rates. At a meeting in the council chamber in the municipal building yesterday afternoon The Bee's demand for a reduction of rates was commended.

A motion was made that the association write a letter to The Bee regarding the high rates charged since the city had obtained ownership of the water works. A discussion followed this motion, and it was suggested by Mrs. George Covell, president, that each member, as an individual, write to The Bee. This was thought wise owing to the fact that the members did not want to incur anyone's disfavor before the ballot has been gained.

Mrs. C. R. Davis of Pacific Junction, who made a stirring speech for woman's suffrage at the farmer's convention held in Omaha not long ago, was the speaker of the afternoon. Plans for the suffrage entertainment to be held at Metropolitan hall Tuesday evening, January 14, were discussed.
