THE SOCIETY OF THE BEE-HIVE

By MELLIFICIA. Thursday, January 9, 1913.

CHICAGO society is all agog over the Oriental or Arabian Nights' ball, which will take place Friday evening. Society women there have been spending weeks in anticipation and preparation for the great event.

The ball will be for the benefit of the Chicago hospitals. It is a number of years since a large charity ball or a large fancy dress ball has been given in Omaha and social leaders are taking keen interest in the Chicago affair. A few Omaha women are the possessors of some wonderful Oriental costumes, but there is not a large enough number to make a ball of this kind a success here. Mrs. Luther Kountze has a beautiful Japanese costume, which she brought from Japan. Mrs. C. N. Dietz and Mrs. Gould Dietz both have some Oriental costumes, which they have collected in their tours around the world.

The late G. W. Lininger purchased many handsome costumes in Egypt and Indian, and Oriental jewelry, which is now in the Lininger collection in the possession of Mrs. G. W. Lininger and Mrs. F. L. Haller.

Most of the Chicago All Babas and Fatimas and the maharajahs are in readiness for the night, which promises to be a great success financially. A million or more in negotiable jewels will be on the floor.

Men will out rival women in dazzling make-ups. Both will have drawn freely on the treasure boxes of other countries, and baubles of great value will go to surpass all previous affairs of the kind in Chicago.

The dance no doubt will bring out an interesting lot of gems collected as fads. Since travel around the world and special visits to the orient have become so popular many of the Chicago women have made special collections of Oriental jewelry. The durbar was responsible for bringing many old gems of the Orient to American shores and the general wearing of these jewels has been made possible because the designers have turned to the far east for many ideas for modern gowns and head-dresses.

Mlle. Rosina Galli of the Chicago Opera company will dance at the ball which is given for the benefit of the Chicago hospitals. Others from the opera company who have accepted invitations are Count and Countess de Sinerios, Mario Sammarco, Mr. and Mrs. George Hamlin, Aurele Borris and Maggie Teyle.

Of the groups planned so far Mrs. Harold F. McCormick will represent the Queen of Sheba and will have a group of ladies in waiting.

Mr. and Mrs. John Borden will represent Aladdin and Princess Bud-dir Al Boudour.

Mrs. Fred B. Woodland will represent Fatima, the wife of Bluebeard, and will wear a wonderful costume of turquoise blue silk velvet, with blue chiffon bloomers lined with pale blue satin. Mr. Woodland will impersonate Bluebeard.

NEW COUNTY OFFICERS TAKE HOLD OF THE REINS

County Attorney George A. Magney and County Assessor Henry C. Gounonman went into office yesterday. Henry S. McDonald said he went into office as county commissioner, succeeding Peter E. Elzeaser, but Elzeaser says he still is a commissioner and McDonald is not. Since the Board of County Commissioners did not meet yesterday, having adjourned until January 14, there can be no test on the first district commission until that date.

James P. English, who retired as county attorney after eight years' service, will open offices in suite 1041, Omaha National bank building, as soon as the offices are ready for occupancy, in about two weeks. Until then he will remain in the county attorney's quarters in the county building, finishing up some odds and ends of work. Mr. English did not seek re-election.

McCarthy, who lives at 267 Poppleton avenue, and Ryan, whose home is in Council Bluffs, stole 200 cigars from a box car and were peddling them about the city when arrested. They said they found the cigars.

Vizzard says several more arrests will be made within a few days and hopes to put a stop to box car thefts which have been going on for some months.

METHODISTS MAY UNITE THE FOUR DIVISIONS

District superintendents of the Methodist church in Nebraska were summoned by resident Bishop Frank M. Bristol to a session at the Loyal for a conference on the consolidation of the four division conference bodies which are at present divided into four sections, Nebraska, north Nebraska (which includes Omaha), west Nebraska and northwest Nebraska. All but the latter expressed their desire for the consolidation before the meeting. A commission on the affairs of the church institutions held a business meeting in the afternoon. Dr. J. B. Trimble of Storm Lake, Neb., addressed the gathering in the morning.

TO FORM SECOND ASSOCIATION

Lincoln Club Back of Plan for South Platte Teachers to Secede.

TO DISRUPT THE ORGANIZATION

Nebraska School Review Advocates Harmony and Commends the Action of Directors of the Association.

An attempt now being made to form a second state teachers' association of the teachers in the South Platte district. Fostered by the Lincoln Commercial club and school representatives who padded the registration list of the last teachers' convention in Omaha in order to influence the selection of the next convention place, will, if successful, disrupt the state association and lower the standard of the organization, according to the Nebraska School Review, which earnestly advocates harmony.

"Only by united effort—by the co-operation of every teacher in the state—can the Nebraska association maintain its high standard, which it has attained after years of diligent endeavor," says the Review.

"It is to be desired that every teacher who is approached on the subject will consider well before giving his time and influence to the formation of a new association, which can have but one result—that of limiting the usefulness and influence of the Nebraska State Teachers' association."

The Review criticizes the Lincoln Journal and News for attempting to "smooth over" the act of padding the registration lists and suggests that the association unearth the motive behind the attempt

TO FORM ANOTHER ASSOCIATION.

It completely indicates Omaha of the charges of corrupt practices.

Referring to the juggling of the registration lists the Review declares, under the caption "Gang Control or Not?"

"The wholesale attempt of the Lincoln Commercial club, through the secretary, working in conjunction with the superintendent of schools of Lincoln, to influence the selection of the next meeting place of the association, by registering and paying for the registrations of L&L teachers, who did not attend the Omaha meeting, was met by the only action which any body of self-respecting men could have done, in canceling the registrations and refunding the Lincoln Commercial club the money they had paid for this purpose.

"The attempt to determine the next meeting place of the association by the illegal registration of teachers is an insult to every teacher in the state of Nebraska," continues the article, after lauding the executive committee for its prompt action in the matter and praising Nebraska teachers. "And we have no hesitancy in predicting that the teachers will resent it as it should be—by a clean cut expression of their desire in the premises."

The Review is of the opinion that the attempt will be to establish the referendum more firmly in favor with the teachers, "who believe in a fair deal to all."
