

POOL HALLS MUST CLEAN UP

Social Service Board Has Eye on Outlying Places.

ALL THEATERS NOT SANITARY

Some Are Not Provided with Sufficient Fire Escapes—Owners, However, May Remedy the Evils.

"Where do children spend their spare time?" queries the social service board...

"Some of these neighborhood pool halls harbor boys who come there regularly to hear stories that ought not to be told..."

"If the others do not," said Mr. Sturges, "we are going to do what we believe is the best thing under such circumstances..."

Board is Unanimous. The board has been unanimous in everything it has agreed upon and we are of the unanimous opinion that the greatest service we can render is to keep the public informed...

Mr. Sturges said conditions in several theaters were very bad and in case of fire not more than a dozen of probably 50 patrons would be able to escape unharmed...

Many anonymous complaints have been received by the board, but it is the consensus of opinion among the members that such complaints be not heeded...

"We are not looking for trouble," said Mr. Sturges, speaking for the board, "because we believe there is a spirit of co-operation here and we ought to act simply to carry out what public opinion demands..."

Divorce With Alimony Common in Babylon Many Centuries Ago

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—In the city of Babylon during the reign of Hammurabi, about 2300 B. C., divorce with alimony was a common occurrence...

"Prominent members of clubs figured in divorce courts and scandals furnished the city with gossip," he says. "Having been granted a divorce, a man would pay alimony to his wife and publish the information..."

Cadet Who Marries Will Be Expelled

WEST POINT, N. Y., Jan. 10.—Cadets at the military academy appealed to-day upon what action the authorities would take over the marriage of one of the cadets yesterday in violation of the rule that cadets are not permitted to marry...

FIVE HUNDRED MOORS KILLED BY FRENCH ARMY

MOGADOR, Morocco, Jan. 10.—A French column commanded by Colonel Amédée Dreyfus de Divers today fought a severe battle with a large body of Moors...

PROCEEDINGS IN CASTRO CASE ARE POSTPONED

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The habeas corpus proceedings brought by Cipriano Castro to compel the United States government to let him land, were suspended today until Federal Judge Holt can decide whether Castro can be released from the island...

Wealthy Widow Induced by Spirit to Sign $30,000 Note

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Favorable reports of a midnight reading of the whims of fate in a boiling pot of herbs brought from the witch's cavern on an island in the West Indies induced Mrs. Isabelle Adams, widow of A. Adams, "policy king," to sign a note for $30,000 in favor of Mrs. Marguerite Gilbert...

"Hega," with insistent demands for money, was the shade who, according to Mrs. Adams' story of representations made to her, translated what the boiling pot had to divulge, after giving Mrs. Gilbert sums of $1,000, $300 and $500...

"Hega's son" might visit the island in search of fresh herbs and blossoms Mrs. Adams said she handed the plaintiff a $5,000 note in return for promised "protection" for herself and family during a trip to Mexico...
