Will of Edgar Allen Filed for Probate

Half of the estate of the late Edgar Allen goes to his wife and the other half to his four nieces, Misses Mabel L. Allen, Jacy M. Allen, Gerrrude Allen and Katherine Allen, under the will, which was opened in county court. Oscar and Arthur Allen, brothers of the testator, paper is the latest one to come out in are named executors of the will and trustees. They filed application for probate of the testament yesterday,

The Allen estate is estimated to be worth $300,000. It consists principally of stock in Allen Bros. company and Allen Bros, Realty company.

The will bequeaths the Allen home at Long Beach, Cal., valued at $9,000, to the widow. Her half of the main estate goes to her as soon as the will has been probated and claims paid. The other half goes to Mr. Allen's brothers, by them to be held in trust for their nieces, Each one of those return postal-card fetters on her thirtieth birthday, one-third on niece is to be paid one-third of her share came to Omaha. Not a alumnus in her fortieth birthday and the remainder on her fiftieth birthday

The will requests that Mrs. Allen sell none of her stock in the Allen companies without first offering it for sale to the brothers of the deceased. This request is made, the will says, because the testator believed it will be for the best interest of all concerned for the business to remain wholly in the hands of his brothers. The same request is made regarding the shares of stock to be reselved by the nieces from time to time

Oriental Rugs

Special Sale

THIS January Sale of Oriental Rugs is different from others held here-different because most of the stock is fresh—the rugs having just arrived. The prices on the new stock are cut just as low as they are on the rugs which we had before Christmas. The fresh arrivals make the assortment extremely large and give every householder an opportunity to get a rug of nearly any design and color and for any room, at just the price she wants to pay. See our rugs -selected by an expert and now in his charge. It is Omaha's greatest rug opportunity. Each price is so low that the values are the most surprising bargains of the season.
