

SMALLPOX SCARE IN IOWA

Disease So Prevalent Demand Made for Detention Hospital.

DISPUTE OVER THE EXPENSE

Mrs. Florence Gamble, Champion Heartbreaker of Iowa, Released by Judge McPherson—Temperance Workers Win.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—City authorities today admit they are scared over the epidemic of small pox that has been gaining force in the city for some time. Today six prominent men called upon members of the council and demanded the immediate opening of a detention hospital because of the large number of cases and impossibility of maintaining quarantine unless this is done. There has been a quarrel between the city and county officials as to which should care for the hospital. Today it became evident that unless extreme measures are taken the city will soon be in great danger.

Heartbreaker Released.
Mrs. Florence Gamble, champion heartbreaker of Iowa, who has received hundreds of letters from men in answer to her matrimonial advertisements, was today released from jail on a writ obtained from Judge McPherson, who decided she should go without bond. In her representations to the federal court it is said she represented she has three children, instead of two, as has been supposed before. She says she will go back to Boone and attend to her correspondence.

Temperance Men Win.
The temperance advocates in the lower house of the Iowa legislature won a decisive victory over the liquor forces today when the vote was taken on the memorial to congress asking for the enactment of the Kenyon-Sheppard bill prohibiting the shipment of liquor into dry territory. The resolution for the memorial was adopted by a vote of 70 to 24.

The senate designated tomorrow as "suffrage day" when it adopted a concurrent resolution to hear Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, president of the Illinois State Federation of Women's Clubs on the subject.

ALLIES ARE DRAFTING NOTE

The Turkish reply would not be delivered until Monday next.
The allied delegations will have to notify their respective governments and ask Mr. Edward Grey to convene a final sitting of the conference for the official rupture of the negotiations and also in order to thank the British government for its hospitality.

This will take at least three. Then the governments at Sofia, Belgrade and Cetinje must denounce the armistice.
Working with exceptional clarity this could be done the next day and hostilities could then be resumed on February 11 following the expiration of the four days' notice required.

Hope for Fall of City.
In the meanwhile the fortress of Adrianople may fall and this is expected to become the automatic solution of the problem.
The Turkish delegates remarked this morning that the Balkan allies had greatly tempered their original orders. They now seem, according to the Turkish, to trust to the outbreak of a counter revolution in Constantinople, forgetting that even should it occur, it will be a movement led by the military element and therefore, strongly against the cessation of Adrianople.

Osman Nisem Pasha, the leader of the Turkish delegation, remarked today with a peculiar smile.
"He laughs best who laughs last."
That the policy of the allies is to gain time is patent and does not deceive anybody. The delegates decided that the advantages to be derived from the resumption of hostilities would be in proportion to the risks they ran and that they would not take that step unless absolutely forced to do so. It is realized that even a partial reverse would have grave moral and material consequences apart from the loss of thousands of men.

In addition, the fact is not overlooked that there is danger of humania advancing from the rear and of Austria imposing on Serbia and Montenegro its conditions for remaining neutral. The only disadvantage in delaying decisive action is in keeping large armies inactive and on a war footing for a long time, thus heavily taxing both the financial and agricultural resources of the country.

HOUSE RAPS LOG ROLLING

Norton's Bill to This End Favored After Debate.
(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—The house went on record this afternoon after a lengthy debate favoring the bill by Norton to prohibit log rolling. Several of the members thought it an insult to the members to hedge themselves around by any such act. But H. R. 472, by Norton, was recommended for passage in the committee of the whole by a vote of 75 to 13. Duesendow of Douglas made the motion to postpone indefinitely the bill, which motion was lost. Simon and Foster also spoke against it. Lee spoke for it. Foster said: "Under this act could you not frame a man and put him in jail?"
As few of the members understood what that meant the remark failed to excite the house.

Power Over Water Companies.

Richardson of Lancaster has a bill for introduction in the house giving the State Railway commission authority over water power companies engaged in the manufacture of electrical currents or other power for commercial purposes. The present law, Mr. Richardson says, is not clear on this question. He believes that will be the legislation needed to settle the question.

DEATH RECORD

William O'Brien.
PLATTSBURGH, Neb., Jan. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—William O'Brien, an ex-veteran of the civil war died in this city Sunday morning at the home of his niece, Mrs. William Mooreley. Mr. O'Brien was born in Ireland in 1842, and came to America while a young man. He settled in Iowa and enlisted in the United States army from that state, fought through the war of the rebellion and was in many of the great battles of the war, being with Grant's forces in the Wilderness campaign. After the war Mr. O'Brien removed from Iowa to Nebraska, locating in this city. The funeral will occur Tuesday morning from St. John's Catholic church of which the deceased was a devoted member. Rev. Father Shine will have charge of the funeral services.
H. L. Merritt.
GLENWOOD, Ia., Jan. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—Tufus L. Merritt of this city, one of the best known pioneers of western Iowa, died at his home here last night. He came to Mills county when he was aged 11 from Cedar county, Missouri, and was in his seventy-eighth year. He leaves a wife and three children, Mrs. E. B. Hubbard of Springfield, Neb., and John and George Merritt of Glenwood. Besides the grandchildren living here reside at Whiteside, Cal. The funeral will be held January 28, at 2 p. m.

PREMONT, Neb., Jan. 27.—(Special Telegram.)

The state bar commission convened in Fremont this afternoon to investigate the charges of changing evidence against Attorney Frank Dolezal and P. W. Burton, preferred by former County Attorney Cook in the Louis Dosters murder trial. Fifty witnesses will be examined.
Deputy Attorney General Edgerton was the first witness to testify this afternoon, stating that the blood stains in the satchel alleged to have been tampered with apparently were fresh when it arrived in Lincoln. Seven witnesses testified that no blood stains were in it at the time of the trial.
The hearing will probably take two days.

OPPOSE SUNDAY BASE BALL BILL

Madison County Lines Up Against Bartling Measure.
(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Jan. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—Madison county lined up in the house today with petition protesting against the Bartling Sunday base ball bill. The petition, signed by W. V. Allen and 190 others, Custer county sent in a petition asking support of a bill, yet to be introduced, providing that a county may be divided when a majority of those voting on the proposition favor it. The petition was signed by about 30 and in several typewritten pages it was set out how much trouble Custer county had gone through trying to divide their county.
The joint committee appointed to report on the code as prepared by the code commission reported it had completed its examination and found the work of the commission well done and recommended that its work be adopted. The commission still has some bills under course of construction, so the committee will report on these before it is discharged.
