

FIGHT FOR CONFIRMATIONS

Republicans Plan to Hold Senate in Continuous Session.

DEMOCRATS TAKE UP THE GAGE

They Will Not Permit Action on Any Nominations Except in the Military and Diplomatic Services.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—After a caucus of republican senators today, in which a plan to fight for confirmation of President Taft's hold-up nominations was agreed upon, Senator Smoot moved an executive session of the senate, with the idea of holding the session as long as a quorum could be kept. The republicans had promised to remain in their seats to hold the quorum and to repeat the motion every day. The democrats were equally determined to permit no confirmation other than army, navy and diplomatic, and a lively struggle was probable. The republicans declined to consider the proposal made by the democratic caucus for a joint committee of ten to go over the nominations and select some for confirmation. The proposal found no support among the republicans. In executive session, Senator Martin, democratic floor leader, stated that the democrats would continue to oppose action on the majority of the Taft appointments. He declared that the democrats did not fear the effect of a filibuster on legislation, adding that if any appropriation bills failed of passage before March 4, they could be passed in the extra session. The republican caucus presented a solid front to resist upon confirmations. Senators Dixon and Polk, who have joined the progressives, were not there, but other republicans classed as progressives were present, and apparently in accord with the plan of the caucus, which held that each case must stand on its merits. It was decided to revoke the agreement to proceed first with army and navy appointments, the republicans holding that the democrats had not shown good faith by their deliberate manner of proceeding with them.

Harriman System Now Has but Five Weeks More in Which to Carry Out Court Order for Dissolution.

According to an agreement reached between the attorney general of the United States and counsel for the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific, the latter road will turn over to the Union Pacific the railroad known as the Central Pacific, which connects Ogden, Utah, with San Francisco, thus giving the Overland a through line to the coast from Omaha. This agreement is said to conform with the recent decision of the United States supreme court. The agreement will provide: That the Southern Pacific will turn over to the Union Pacific the Central Pacific road. The Southern Pacific will retain the railroad running from Sacramento to Portland. The stock of the Southern Pacific, valued at about $42,000,000, held by the Union Pacific, will be divided between the stockholders of the Union and Southern Pacific. The above, with slight differences to be agreed upon in conference, is the general plan for the basis of a decree which the circuit court is to be asked to put into effect. But five weeks remain for the actual dissolution of the Harriman system, the plan to be submitted to the circuit court for the district of Utah, that court having power to decide if the plan submitted is in accordance with the decision.

Balkan Delegates Sign Final Note; Serb to Deliver It

LONDON, Jan. 28.—What may be the last note delivered by the peace delegates of the allied Balkan nations to the Turkish plenipotentiaries was finally signed today by the representatives of the Balkan league, but no date was fixed for its presentation. The delegates unanimously approved the draft and entrusted Stojan Novakovic, leader of the Serbs, with its presentation. "When the moment is considered opportune,"

The Balkan allies apparently are not ready to burn their bridges behind them, but seem hopeful that something will turn up to avert the definite rupture of peace negotiations. WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—In response to an appeal from the Constantinople chapter of the American Red Cross for aid for suffering noncombatants of the Balkan war, the committee of the society here today cables $10,000—all that was possible because of the depleted condition of the treasury.

EXTENSION GIVEN DAIRIES

Omaha Milk Commission Gives Certified Dairies Seven Days.

OWNERS PROMISE CHANGES

Proprietor of the Arwood Says He is Installing New Cooling Machinery Which Will Correct Faults.

By a vote of 3 to 2 in a secret session of the Omaha milk commission last night five members decided that the permit of the Arwood and Friesland farm dairies to sell certified milk would be extended seven days, during which time tests would be made and if the milk is not up to the standard fixed by ordinances the permits will be revoked at a meeting of the commission next Monday night. City bacteriologist Langfeld, who reported poor condition of milks sold by these dairies, refused to vote for an extension of time, saying the condition of the milk was "intoxicable." Prof. C. F. Crowley stood with Langfeld, Dr. R. W. Connell, Dr. S. R. Towne and Dr. C. W. Pollard voted to extend the time and give the dairies an opportunity to correct their faults. "You may say that this commission wants certified milk sold here," said Dr. Connell. "For that reason we are not revoking the permits of these dairies. We want the dairies to know that they can have milk of a certain standard to feed their babies day after day. When these standards are not lived up to we will be compelled to revoke the permits. The Arwood dairy has offered an excuse which we believe justifies us in this action."

INDIGESTION AND RHEUMATISM

People With Good Digestion Do Not Have Rheumatism.

The blood is the product of digestion. Whatever sort of food is digested in the stomach is absorbed into the blood. If the food is badly digested this is also absorbed into the blood. If the food enters in the stomach before digestion or during digestion, the acids are absorbed into the blood. These acids in the blood produce a condition known as rheumatism. The acids are liable to produce microscopic crystals. These crystals are deposited in the ligaments and cartilages, causing rheumatism of the joints. Sometimes the bones, producing periodic pains every time a storm approaches. Sometimes in the muscles, producing lumbago, stiff neck, myalgia, and muscular rheumatism generally.

Pe-ru-na Corrects Digestion

The reason that Pe-ru-na relieves such cases is easy to understand. Pe-ru-na corrects digestion. Pe-ru-na corrects digestion partly by hurrying it. Pe-ru-na does not furnish any artificial digestant. It simply assists Nature in doing its own digesting.

Good Digestion Stops Rheumatism.

The first thing to do is to secure good digestion, then if it is necessary specific medicines for rheumatism may be taken. But until the digestion is made perfect it is of little or no use to take medicines for rheumatism. To produce good digestion Pe-ru-na should be taken.

Sage Restores Gray Hair to Natural Color

The old idea of using Sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers had dark, glossy hair at seventy-five, while our mothers are gray before they are fifty. Our grandmothers kept their hair soft and glossy with a "Sage Tea," which also restored the natural color.
