Southern Pacific in Steady Demand and Rises Two Points on Rumor of Approach of Agreement in Dissolution Proceedings.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29. Gains made by NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Gains made by the standard stocks on yesterday's rise were considerably reduced today. Appar-ently the most pressing requirements of the short interest had been satisfied and the demand fell off, with a resultant weakening in market values, particularly among leading stocks, such as Reading. Union Pacific, Steel, Amaigamated and the Hill shares. The specialties fared better. Although the breaking off of the peace

Although the breaking off of the peace negotialions had been definitely fore-casted and the news had no pronounced influence on speculative movements, bear traders utilized this with some effect. A ctor considered by many detrimental to the general movement was American Can stocks. Can common sold today at $93, as compared with 231, last Wednesday. as compared with 28½ last Wednesday. The preferred in the same time rose from 110% to 129. The spectacular fluctuations in these issues apparently were the result of bold manipulations, and the standard issues today did not follow their lead. A few stocks, however, developed conspicuous strength. Southern Pacific was in steady demand and rose over 2 points, buying having been stimulated by rumors concerning approach. buying having been stimulated by concerning approach of an agreement in the negotiations for disgolution of the Harriman merger. Ulthous Central was stronger on the appearance of the Destronger on the appearance of the De-cember report showing a net increase of during Monday and Tuesday were felt at all other live stock centers as well as on the local market, and as a result greatly the local market, and as a result greatly decreased receipts showed up this morning. The local supply did not exceed twenty cars, or 4.500 head, which is only about one-third of the receipts of last Wednesday, and about half of what they were two weeks ago. It was slightly less than on the same day one year ago. Buyers seemed very indifferent again this morning and, as yesterday little or nothing was doing in the early part of the forenoon. They were apparently awaiting further advices from eastern trade, which was reported slow, with a weak tendency was reported slow, with a weak tendency early in the morning. What little bidding was done locally during the first hours was not at all encouraging for any im provement in the trade, though many salesmen were expecting prices very closely to steady figures.

In the end buyers and sellers got to gether and the bulk of a light supply was
