THE SOCIETY OF THE BEE-HIVE

By MELLIFICIA. Friday, January 31, 1913.

THREE youths of prominent local families were coming out of 'Chambers' dancing academy the other afternoon when they were joshed by three other boys in parodied greetings of "Hello, Silk Stockings," and "Why, there's Mamma's Pet," and similar sarcasms.

The first trio passed up the second, but the second followed the issue until it became just a little too irritating, and there ensued a boy to boy test. Contrary to your expectations, the aggressors were liberally punished and, in my opinion, I am mighty glad they were, for all people should be taught to respect the conventionalities of others. While they may not always see fit to participate in what others do, they should, at least, find it convenient to award each other courtesies.

Another point in the affair is the ability of a boy to take care of himself under any circumstances. While boys should not be encouraged to fight, it, nevertheless, should always be a part of their education to stand their own.

Frank Walters Pays Reward Money Twice

Years ago when Frank Walters, general manager of the Northwestern, was a superintendent of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Northern, with headquarters at Cedar Rapids, Ia., there was a town on the road, just over the line in Minnesota, named Walters. Superintendent Walters offered a prize of $100 for the first pair of twins born in the town of Walters. In less than one year he was called upon to pay the money and a week later another pair of twins arrived on the scene. The race had been so close that, rather than have an argument over the matter, Walters paid over another $100.

Items Found in the Final Round-Up

Friday night, January 31st, finished our inventory. At the last we unearthed several lots—which we decided to close out Saturday. Realizing that at this season we are between Hay and Grass, as it were, we were fully conscious that the prices and the values would have to make a strong appeal to the pocket book in order to awaken keen interest AND ACCOMPLISH OUR PURPOSE.

Starting at 8 A. M. we will put on sale in the shoe section 485 PAIRS of High Shoes. These will be offered in TWO LOTS. 197 pairs of especially high grade will be sold at, $3.85 THE PAIR

Not only are they worth $5.00 and $6.00 per pair, but we ourselves sold many, very many, pairs at those prices.

The second lot numbers 288 pairs—and they are excellent in point of style, workmanship and quality—in other words, fit to bear the name of "Thomas Kilpatrick & Co." inside every pair and well worth $4.00; these go at, pair, ..... $2.95

At 10:00 A. M.

Several very special sales. Women's Tailored Waists—madras and linen, pure white and neat stripes—splendid for immediate and spring wear. Sold similar styles and identically the same qualities up to $3.50. We will end them Saturday at, $1.69 EACH

JUNIOR SUITS

The last offering, various sizes, many styles, suitable for big girls or little women—moderate in weight, adapted to the Ides of March. Practical and popular. Some sold as high as $20.00; your pick Saturday, 10 A. M. .... $8.50

We rooted out from the reserve stock and gathered up from the retail department all odd lots and pieces of Platt Val. and Point de Paris Laces, Insertions and Edges. Some are matched sets. When we tell you that we sold them previously at 15c, 25c and some, indeed, at 30c per yard you will not let the grass grow under your feet in the getting to our store when you know that the selling price Saturday at 10 A. M. is, per yard. .... 5c

Candy--Good Enough to Eat--Opp. Elevator

Specials for Saturday—Black Walnut Taffy, made rich with high grade New Orleans molasses—crowded chunk full of black walnut meats. Saturday all day, 25c per pound—and they are worth 40c per pound.

Butter Scotch Patties. The very hint starts the gastric juices. Made from creamery butter, rich and pure. Delicious. Special, 15c the box. Fine for Sunday nibbling.

THOMAS KILPATRICK & CO.

He don't need drugs—he needs sunshine

Take him where he can get it every day--take him to FLORIDA, where he can be out-of-doors all day long; where the sun will drive the chill out of his blood; where the soft ocean breezes will coax the color back into his cheeks; where the tang of the salt air will give him the appetite a boy of his age should have. If you keep him here, he'll be sick all winter. If you take him to Florida he'll be playing pranks with the other children in less than a week, burying marbles in a cigar box and pretending they're Spanish pieces of eight. You need the trip, too; you're all run down.

"A long, tiresome journey? Not a bit of it! The Frisco runs a fast train right through from Kansas City to Jacksonville. It's called the KANSAS CITY--FLORIDA SPECIAL."
