

SOCIETY-BEE-HIVE

By MELLIFICIA. Tuesday, February 4, 1913.

THE EVE of Lent finds a great many people entertaining. Nearly everybody is participating in some sort of festivity, for, besides the social affairs, a score of clubs are also taking advantage of the last day of grace.

The Tuesday Morning Musical club met this morning at the home of Mrs. O. C. Rodick.

The Amateur club met this afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. J. Mahoney, where an interesting program was arranged by Miss Eugenie Whitmore. Following this affair, Miss Whitmore assisted at a tea at the home of Major and Mrs. C. F. Hartmann of Fort Omaha.

The Omaha chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution were entertained this afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. D. Barkalow. Miss Carolyn Barkalow assisted, and left the latter part of the afternoon to attend the tea at Fort Omaha.

This evening the debutante set will be divided. Part of them will go to the Omaha club for the annual ladies' night, where dinner will be followed by bridge and dancing. About thirty others will go to the Field club for an informal Shrove Tuesday supper and dance.

Mrs. Arthur Crittenden Smith was hostess at a large luncheon party today at the Omaha club.

One society girl told me she was invited to five interesting social affairs today, and with the assistance of her motor car, she thought she could accept at least four of them, which included teas, a musicale and a party at the club this evening. She had to refuse a bridge party this afternoon, as that occupied too much valuable time on the day before donning sack cloth for Lent.

At the Field Club.

One of the jolliest and most interesting Shrove Tuesday affairs will be the supper dance given this evening by several of the younger bachelors. Following supper the evening will be spent in dancing in the dining room of the club. Those present will be:

- Misses—Helen Murphy, Marlon Kuhn, Louise Dinting, Clara Schneider, Nina Dietz.
- Misses—Margaret Schneider of Fremont, Mildred Butler, Marie Hollinger, of Fremont, Alice Jaquith.
- Messrs—Jack Webster, Harry Koch, Louis Meyer, Raymond Low, John Daugherty, Fred Daugherty, Robert Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pritchett, Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Brien.

Theater and Supper Parties.

Numerous theater parties were given last evening at the Brandeis, where "The Pink Lady" is the attraction. After the theater they had supper at the Omaha club. Mr. Hal Yates had as his guests Miss Daphne Peters, Miss Dorothy Hall, Miss Dorothy Morgan, Miss Katherine Thummel, Mr. Robert Morsman, Mr. Ware Hall, Ralph Peters.

In one party were Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Summers, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Crofoot and Mr. C. W. Hull. Together were Miss Louise Dinning, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Austin and Lieutenant Muncaster.

At one table were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McCormick and Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Kinsler. Mr. Frank Labor, the comedian of "The Pink Lady," was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Brien and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Towle.

Ne Notris Orpheus Party.

The Ne Notris club entertained at a matinee party at the Opera Monday afternoon, followed by tea at the Imperial. In the party were:

- Misses—Dorothy Weller, Etta Medler, Helen Garvin, Blanche Busk, Elizabeth Findley.
- Misses—Helen Johnson, Doris Duncan, Helen Konrad, Lucille Dennis.

At Fort Omaha.

Major and Mrs. Carl F. Hartmann were at home at a 5 o'clock tea this afternoon at their quarters at Fort Omaha in honor of the bachelors of Fort Crook. The rooms were attractive with a decoration of Killarney roses.

A number of young women from Omaha were invited to assist Mrs. Hartmann. Mrs. Blain poured tea and Mrs. Alvin Voris coffee, and those assisting were:

- Misses—Grace Huxter, Nannie Page, Edith Locke, Eugenie Whitmore, Hortense Clarke, Helen Epeneter.
- Misses—Katherine Moorhead, Caroline Barkalow, Frances Todd, Claire Helene Woodard, May Mahoney.

Celebrates Birthday.

Miss Bertha Motz celebrated her thirtieth birthday. The afternoon was spent with music, dancing and games. Prizes were won by Miss Geneva Kurz and Miss Florence Ellsworth. The living room was decorated in pink. Covers were laid for:

- Misses—Ruth Carlson, Florence Ellsworth, Anita Edmiston, Lola Gorman, Geneva Kurz, Agnes Peterson.
- Misses—Marjorie Robel, Vera Smith, Vera Sullivan, Mand Whitfield, Bertha Motz.

Farewell Dinner Party.

Mr. John Lutz entertained at dinner at the Grand hotel, Council Bluffs, in honor of Mr. Almont Lindborg, who leaves for Chicago.

Those present were: Messrs—Almont Lindborg, Rex Wheeler, Rouben Swanson, Martin Larson, B. Guren, Fred Haug.

Bridge Club Meets.

Miss Alice Carter was hostess for the meeting of the Debutante Bridge club this afternoon at her home. Two tables of players were present.

Miss Esther Byrne entertained the members of the Auction Bridge club today at her home. Two tables were placed for the game.

At the Omaha Club.

Mr. and Mrs. David A. Baum will entertain at one of the larger dinner parties this evening at the Omaha club, when Miss Carmelita Chase will be the guest of honor. Covers will be placed for:

- Misses—Carmelita Chase, Alice Carter, Katherine Thummel, Dorothy Hall, Pauline Bourke, Daphne Peters, Mildred Rogers, Margaret Greer Baum.
- Messrs—Gerald Wharton, Taylor Heleher, John Stewart, Lake Deuel, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Baum.

In and Out of the Bee Hive.

Mr. Louis S. Reichenberg returned from Cincinnati this morning. Mrs. Charles E. Daniels of David City, Neb., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McKelvey, and her sister, Mrs. Frank Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burns are spending the remainder of the winter at Louisville, Ky., as guests of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Godfrey and family. Miss Gertrude Whitmore of Oakland, O., is the guest of Mrs. Frank Ellis and Miss Harriet Wilson, and will leave Friday for Denver for a visit of two weeks, accompanied by Miss Wilson.

Slide Down Rope to Evade Police

During a raid upon Osthoff's chili parlor, 515 North Sixteenth street Monday night three patrons of the restaurant—one man and two women—eluded arrest by sliding down a rope from the dining room, which is on the second floor of the building. The man, the police say, is James Smith, proprietor of the establishment. The invasion was made by Sergeant Samuelson and Officer Good, and while one was watching the front door and the other was directing the revolvers down stairs, the trio made their escape in sight of both of them. A dozen men and women were arrested and those who appeared in court for trial were fined $10 and costs. The others forfeited their bonds.

Lad With Bullet in Brain Lies at Local Hospital

Henry Bontor, aged 28 years, of Elgin, Neb., is lying in St. Joseph's hospital with a .22-caliber bullet embedded nearly three inches in his brain. The bullet cannot be removed without Bontor dying. Little hope is entertained for his recovery, but should he live he will always carry the lead bullet.

Bontor was playing soldier with his 9-year-old brother Monday at Elgin, with an "unloaded" rifle. The younger boy undertook to show his brother how they do things in the Balkans and pointed the rifle at Henry's head and pulled the trigger. Henry fell to the floor. His parents rushed him to Omaha last night and he is under the care of Dr. C. C. Allison.

X-ray pictures were taken of Bontor's head and the bullet was located in the center of the brain. For a while it was thought Bontor would surely recover, but his condition yesterday was not so promising, although he has a fighting chance to recover.
