MIKADO WILL DISSOLVE DIET

Body Passes Vote of Censure on the Katsura Cabinet.

WILL APPEAL TO THE PEOPLE

Call for General Election Will Be Issued Soon—Suspension Comes After Nokay Session of Two Hours.

TOKIO, Feb. 5.—Most exciting scenes were witnessed during the dispersal of the Japanese Diet today after a vote of censure on the government under Prince Katsura had been carried. The exits from the chamber were thronged with people who cheered the members of the constitutional party when they assailed Saburo Shimada and other so-called renegades of the national liberal party. They were thrown out of their rikhas when they attempted to drive away, but efforts to duck them in the canal were frustrated by the police.

It is expected Prince Katsura will immediately dissolve the Diet and call for a general election, meanwhile retaining office.

The order suspending the session was issued by the emperor himself. It was read to the house after a debate which has been very noisy and had continued for two hours.

The resolution expressing lack of confidence in the cabinet was introduced by Yukio Otsuki, former mayor of Tokio and leader of the constitutional party. He spoke eloquently, making a bitter attack on Katsura, whom he charged with ignoring the constitution and riding rough shod over the wishes of the people.

Prince Katsura's reply was brief. He pointed out that he had accepted the premiership at the command of the emperor and offered precedents for the course he had pursued.

The attitude of the opposition is very determined and the only outlet from the present deadlock appears to be the selection of a new Diet and a redistribution of the parties.

The finance minister in the course of today's sitting explained the items of the budget. He said the government recognized the expediency of reducing the national financial expenditures and postponing for the present some of the undertakings planned. Every encouragement, he said, would be given to industrial enterprises. Industrial and financial conditions, he declared, were encouraging, the foreign trade of Japan having increased during the last year by $2,000,000.

Hermann Favors Amendment of the Amateur Rules

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 5.—The national base ball commission at its next meeting will discuss the question of amateur athletics and will seek to revise the present rules which declare an amateur athlete a professional if he plays professional base ball, according to a statement by August Hermann, president of the national commission here today. The discussion will be a result of the recent Thorpe ruling.

"The stand which the rulers of amateur athletics take against professional base ball," said President Hermann, today, "is a relic of the dark ages. Thirty or thirty-five years ago the professional ball player was regarded with suspicion and marked prejudice. Until recently unpleasant memories of the Hall-Devlin-Nichols-Craver scandal of 1877 still cling to the game and its representatives. It was while the game was still in this unhappy position that the laws that still govern amateur athletics were formulated. Base ball since these times has advanced to a standing of integrity and public confidence—the amateur laws have practically stood stock still.

"The college boy who goes out and plays base ball in the summer months should not be confronted with the alternative of either deliberate falsehood or the penalties now inflicted by the amateur rules.

"Both common justice and the honor we owe to the game demand that some early action should be taken—and the governing forces of base ball should be the first to cope with the situation. Of course, the time between now and the schedule meeting is limited; concerted, definite action may not be possible, but we can at least formulate plans for the immediate future."

MINNEAPOLIS WRITER THINKS REFORMING OF NEBRASKA TEAM SLOW

The Bee's suggestion of more coaches to assist Edward Stehm groom the Cornhusker foot ball players for battle next fall is attracting attention in Minneapolis and St. Paul, the home cities of the University of Minnesota. The Minneapolis Journal's sporting writer does not believe Nebraska will be able to lick the Gophers next fall. He says the grand chance for this achievement was last season; that now it is too late. One wonders why the Cornhusker coaching system was not reformed before last fall. The Minneapolis writer scribbles the following:

Nebraska is having a high old time over its foot ball coaching. They seem to have set their hearts upon the overthrow of the Gophers next fall and are planning ways and means for bringing about the defeat of Dr. Williams' stalwarts when he takes them to Lincoln in October. They are talking about employing five or six assistant coaches to uphold the hands of Jumbo Stehm and promoting other ditto things when the Gophers descend upon their ballkick.

We might slip the Cornhuskers a slight hint that they had their best chance to pull off something like that last fall, but spilled the soup down their own necks ascending the stairs of golden opportunity. If the crack Cornhuskers' team of last year couldn't whup the green Gopher team of that period, they needn't build any airship garages upon their castles in Spain for next season. The material looks rather promising just now for 1913, and there is a substantial smattering of veterans coming back. They had their chance to win the long-coveted victory in their hands last fall. This year—well, if nothing goes wrong, this year is going to be a different story in Minnesota foot ball.

High Cost of Living is Held Responsible for Many Divorces

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 5.—"The high cost of living is responsible for the majority of marital troubles and divorces," declared Mrs. William B. Derr, president of the Housekeepers' league, in an address yesterday before the Home and school league. Nothing leads to divorce so quickly as the squabbles and quarrels which arise in a home because the money does not reach," continues Mrs. Derr. "Women, as a rule do not know where to buy and they are easily gulled on prices."

The speaker advocated a system of co-operative stores as a means of reducing the cost of food products.

Conditions in this country have reached such a point," said Mrs. Derr, "that co-operation among consumers in the purchase and sale of food products is absolutely necessary if prices are to be lowered. A co-operative store puts the profits in the hands of the people who should benefit. At present the food supply passes through too many hands before it reaches the consumer."

She said the Housekeepers' league has under way plans for establishing stores on a co-operative basis throughout Philadelphia and she hopes to interest similar organizations in other cities in the movement.

The Housekeepers' league, under the direction of Mrs. Derr recently conducted a campaign against the high price of eggs in this city during which thousands of dozens of storage eggs were disposed of by the league at 24 cents a dozen. She declared tonight that consumers had been saved nearly $300,000 by the "crusade."

CEMENT PUT TO ODD USES

Midwest Show Reveals Many Novel Trade Ideas.

GREAT CROWD AT AUDITORIUM

Opening Night Brings Over Thousand Persons to Inspect Exhibit of Machinery and Products.

The Omaha Auditorium last night was found converted into a gigantic foundry where engines puffed and spat, chains clanked and cog wheels ground and rattled. It was the formal opening of the seventh annual Midwest Cement show and exhibits of the material in nearly every stage of development and the machinery that evolved them also were on display. Things the average man never dreamed would be found made of cement and concrete comprised a large part of the show and the great crowd—exhibitors say it was the largest attended opening night of any show held this year in the United States—passed through the aisles, taking keen interest in everything there.

There were sights for the youngsters, such as miniature concrete houses with doll inhabitants and small cement blocks from which anything could be made, and there were sights for the grownups, such as cement caskets, lawn seats, cement "marble" and above all huge machines at work making these things.

While these sights were to be seen on the main floor of the Auditorium an interesting moving picture entertainment was in progress on the stage. The government's official moving pictures of the construction of the Panama canal, "the eighth wonder of the world," and a long reel of the Kookuk dam in process of building were thrown on the screen there. The Know Omaha film was also a part of this entertainment.

As the crowds pushed through the aisles looking over the numerous sights, Green's band entertained them with a lively musical program. Nearly 1,000 persons attended the opening and the promoters of the show declare that before it is ended, Saturday night, that figure will have doubled.

Chicago Bandits Take Victim's Overcoat

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—That seems to be a nice, warm overcoat you are wearing, old top," observed one of two highway-men who held up and robbed J. H. Hamilton of Billings, Mont., early today as he descended from an elevated train in the downtown district. "He a good sport and take it off, can't you see me shivering?" With a big revolver poked against his ribs, Hamilton decided to give up the coat. The robbers also took $100 from the Montanan. He was given a breakfast at a nearby police station.

Remarkable Catarrh Cure

Gets Right into the Affected Parts and Stops Gathering in Eyes, Nose, Throat and Lungs.

"Nine-tenths of humanity suffer with catarrh but do not know what catarrh is," said an expert doctor, specialist in blood analysis. It is treated locally by cause nature tries to drive it out of the system. But nature must have help. Nasal catarrh is merely an outlet, and it is folly to expect a cure by inhalants or local applications. If a stream is polluted at its source it is ridiculous to waste time in purification at its mouth. By a long series of elaborate experiments at the Swift Laboratory it is definitely known that catarrh can be cured by the simple process of inoculating the blood with antitoxin remedies that stop inflammatory conditions throughout the mucous linings of all the organs of the body. This is done with the famous Swift's Pure Specific, or as it is widely known, S. S. S. It is taken into the blood just as naturally as the most nourishing food. It spreads its influence over every organ in the body, comes through all the veins and arteries, cleans all mucous surfaces to exchange inflammatory acids and other irritating substances for arterial elements that effectively cleanse the system and thus put an end to all catarrhal pollution. S. S. S. cleans out the stomach of mucous accumulations, enables only pure blood-making materials to enter the bloodstream, cleans with these food elements to stimulate the circulation, and in less than an hour is at work throughout the body in the process of purification.

You will soon realize its wonderful influence by the absence of headache, a decided clearing of the air passages, a steadily improved nasal condition, and a sense of bodily relief that proves how completely catarrh often infests the entire system. You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 per bottle. It is a remarkable remedy for any and all blood affections, such as eczema, rash, lupus, leprosy, psoriasis, boils and all venereal diseases. For special advice on any blood diseases write in confidence to The Swift Specific Co., 137 Swift Bldg., Atlantic, Ga. Do not delay to get a bottle of S. S. S. at your druggist.

DRISCOLL DEFEATED BY LITTLE JOHNNY KILBANE

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Johnny Kilbane of Cleveland, featherweight champion, outpointed Young Driscoll of Brooklyn in a ten-round bout here tonight.

Kilbane had the better of every round, hooking lefts and rights to the head with an occasional upper cut and short jabs to the body.

For the first three rounds, Kilbane scarcely closed his gloves, but as the fight went on he hooked many a hard blow to the head. The best that could be said of Driscoll was that he was game and tried to fight back every inch of the way. Kilbane missed several left and right hooks to the head and also misjudged a few right hand uppercuts. He forced the pace from the third round on, however, did not receive a damaging blow in return and the bout was easily his from beginning to end.

Kilbane weighed 126½ and Driscoll 134½.

FRED WILLIAMS WILL COACH NOTRE DAME

Byrne Will Be at Old Stand

Stoney Byrne, the hungry little third-sacker of the Pittsburgh Pirates, is one of the best guardians of the difficult corner in the national league, as well as being a reliable batsman. As he has returned to Manager Clarke that he is in the best of condition, there is little danger of his being supplanted this season.

FORMER CHIEF SHIPPY ESCAPES FROM HOSPITAL

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Former Chief of Police George M. Shippy of this city escaped from the Alexian brothers' hospital this afternoon shortly before the hour set for an examination into his sanity. The mental examination was determined upon at the instance of Mrs. Shippy, the patient's wife.

Shippy when head of the police department suffered a nervous shock from which he never fully recovered. Lazarus Averbuch, a demented youth, entered the chief's home with the intent of assassinating him. The latter's son intercepted the intruder and was himself wounded, while the chief of police shot and killed Averbuch.

The incident weighed heavily on his mind thereafter and his nerves were further unstrung when a scandal involving protection of gambling and other illicit commerce broke.
