

SOCIETY OBSERVES HOLIDAYS

Lenten Solemnities to Be Forgotten on Three of These Occasions.

DEBUTANTES REMEMBER POOR

Many Omaha People Are Leaving for Warmer Climates to Escape the Cold Weather Which is Expected Soon.

Social Calendar. MONDAY—Mrs. William McKeen, hostess of the Monday Bridge club; Omaha Society of Fine Arts exhibit at the public library...

Because so many holidays fall in Lent this year, the usual denials during this time are to be forgone just a little by holiday celebrations.

The first of these will be February 13, when the University club will celebrate Lincoln's birthday with the annual dinner given at the club.

Ordinarily St. Valentine's day precedes Lent and is generally celebrated by a number of social functions, but because society has not strictly observed the season this year, they will probably pass the saint's day without special recognition.

The next holiday will be Washington's birthday, which is duly celebrated each year at the Omaha club.

Debutantes Give Valentines.

Ordinarily when you think of valentines and debutantes a pretty picture arises in your mind of a charming young woman opening a violet colored box and taking out a beautiful bouquet of Daniel ("C") favorite flowers.

"This one will amuse that little sick boy," one debutante remarked. "Here are some I will send to those little children who recently lost their mother," said the other.

Seek Warmer Climates.

Omahans continue to leave for warmer climates to spend the latter part of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Kirkendall have gone to Beverly Hills, Cal., where they plan to remain for several weeks.

Miss Alice Kennard and Miss Amy King will leave the latter part of the month for a six weeks' trip to Panama, where they will visit friends of Miss King.

Among those who are planning a trip to California a little later are Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pickett and Miss Pickett, who may go the middle of this month.

Mrs. Victor Caldwell will leave today for California, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Albert Carroll, at Pasadena.

Mrs. W. H. McCord and her son James are in San Antonio for the winter. Mr. McCord returned Tuesday.

Mr. Luther Drake has gone for his annual stay at Augusta, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Ransom and Miss Anna Covell expect to leave for California in March. Mr. Ransom is at present at Excelsior Springs, where he is being treated for rheumatism.

Theater Parties. Numerous theater parties were given Friday evening at the Brandeis, when "The Concert" was the attraction.

All of the boxes were occupied. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Turner, Jr., had as their guests Misses Clara and Marguerite Schneider and Mr. R. B. Schneider of Fremont.

Miss Eugenie Whitmore had a box party, when her guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pritchett, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Whitmore and Lieutenant Wilson.

Mr. W. B. McCormick had as her guests Miss McCormick, Mrs. Glenn I. Wharton, Mr. Randall Nicholson, Mr. Gerald Wharton and Mr. Lawrence Brinker.

In another box were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Burns, Jr., and Miss Ella Mae Brown, Mrs. Day and Mr. Robert Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Swobe and Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Kinsler were in another box.

Smaller theater parties included Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Haldrup and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Clarke and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Baum, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Daugherty and C. W. Hull.

Remember Their Teacher. Among local pianists are a number of people who received part of their instruction from present-day masters.

In strict fulfillment, I came across a program last week, one given by the musical department of the Woman's club, with Mrs. Edith Wagner at the head, and in which all of the numbers of the program were compositions by her, old preceptor, the late Edouard McDow-

GOLDIE ALPERIN.

With the arrangements left in her hands, Mrs. Wassinger's thoughts turned naturally where they did and, writing Mrs. McDowell, she received a reply that contained many interesting personal notes on the life of the composer.

This same spirit has been manifested by many other faithful musical students.

Omaha Visitor Honored. Mrs. Frank D. Rubel, formerly Miss Mattie Pollock, who visited her sister, Mrs. Charles S. Elgutter in December, was elected president of the Liberal Union of Minnesota Women at the annual meeting in Minneapolis January 23.

The union was organized in 1888, is composed of members of various churches in Minneapolis. Its purpose is to sustain an interest in religion, ethics and philanthropy and to promote close fellowship among its members.

Students Active Socially. The Lenten season has not cast any great damper on the social life of the students at the University of Omaha.

The last week has been fairly bubbling with many pleasing festivities, and this week bids fair to overshadow it. Owing to the fact that examinations were over and the new semester just starting the young people felt free to seek relief from the grinds of the tests.

Thursday afternoon a number of the girls gave a theater party, Friday night a dinner party was given at the home of Stanton Sallisbury as a forerunner to the Bellevue game. Those present were:

Misses—Marguerite Harmon, Annetta Nourge, Effie Cleland, Fanny Williams, Katherine Case, Nellie Wood, Della Nelson, Agnes Nielsen.

Messrs.—Charles Frandsen, Andrew Dow, Paul Selby, George Parlin, John Butler, James VanAvery, George Perchival, Stanton Sallisbury.
