United States Ambassador Wilson, who has taken such a keen interest in the establishment of the new administration, was in council with both General Huerta and Diaz and was made the recipient of frank confidences by both. One Change in Cabinet.

The cabineet at first agreed upon by Huerta and Diaz was confirmed in all respects except in connection with the ministry of finance, in which Esquival Obregon was substituted for Carlos G. De Cosio. The names for the portfoliou were suggested partly by Man and partly by Huerta. Apparently none of those closely con

Many of the deputies belong to the modern radical school and are inclined to look on General Huerts and his government with considerable suspicion. The wording of the joint resignation of Prancisco Madero and Jose Pino Suares was made public today. It is in marked contrast to the usual verbose documents written in such cases. It says:

"In view of the events which have occurred from first to last in the nation and for the greater peace of our country we make this formal resignation of ou posts of president and vice president."
