

MORE NOVELTIES FOR SHOW

List of Extraordinary Exhibits for "Made in Nebraska Show."

TO SHOW MINIATURE FACTORY

Scottabuff Sugar Company Will Send Small Model of Factory and Show Process of Sugar Manufacturing.

Quite a number of novelties in the form of exhibits have been arranged for by the state manufacturers, and will be seen by the public in the "Made in Nebraska" show in the auditorium from March 5 to 15.

A miniature model of beet sugar factory, which is to be sent in, and shown by the Scottabuff Sugar company, will undoubtedly attract a great deal of attention. This miniature sugar plant will be about eight feet in length and will be illuminated. In addition the Scottabuff company proposes to send a most complete and thorough illustration of the process of making standard granulated sugar from sugar beets. In sixty display jars the beets themselves, the beet juices, syrups, etc., in the process of transformation to the crystallized sugar will be shown.

While sugar is a well known article in the household, its process of manufacture is not so commonly known. An expert will be present in this booth to describe the process of manufacturing to the visitors.

There are several manufacturers of silos, but the principal one is the Nebraska Silo company of Lincoln, Neb. It is the largest one, and the standard point of output is greater than any other similar plant. This concern will have some miniature silos, together with photographs illustrating the use of the silo on Nebraska farms.

Right along these lines the Griswold Seed company of Lincoln and the Nebraska Seed company of Omaha will put in distinctive and yet entirely different displays illustrating the production of seeds in Nebraska.

In M. E. Smith company's booth live models will demonstrate up-to-date, beautiful goods made by this company. They have one of the largest booths of the entire show.

Originality and individuality will stamp the Hastings manufacturers' exhibit and the booth itself will form a great attraction as it will be made largely from brick turned out by the Hastings Brick Plants. A model in sugar of the new hotel now being built will be arranged for and put on by one of the Hastings candy companies.

Several cigar making firms will show "smokes" made in Nebraska. H. Beselin company of Omaha will be one of these demonstrating cigar manufacturers, while Tracy Brothers of Omaha will show a display of pipes "made in Omaha."

An exhibit of a bicycle made entirely in Nebraska by R. P. Coleman, and also in Nebraska a motor car made in this city will show two manufactured products that have not been credited to the state so far.

The Schmoller & Mueller company will display a piano "made in Nebraska."

THE FORTY-SEVEN TEST

An article must have exceptional merit to survive for a period of forty years. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was first offered to the public in 1872. From a small beginning it has grown in favor and popularity until it has attained a world wide reputation. You will find nothing better for a cough or cold. Try it and you will understand why it is a favorite after a period of more than forty years. It not only gives relief—it cures. For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

STREET CAR GOES ON WILD RUNAWAY TRIP WEDNESDAY

Motorman Peter Miller on the Albright-Benson street railway line and four other motormen and conductors had a hair-raising ride in a runaway car down the steep incline on Thirteenth street from Vinton to Leavenworth street, scraping the end of a caboose of a passing freight train under the bridge at the foot of the hill Wednesday evening.

The car was an extra from the Vinton street barn. Upon nearing the turn at Thirteenth and Vinton street the air in the tanks gave out and the pump in some manner became locked, putting the car on the car out of commission. Conductor A. L. Zimmerman jumped from the car, lost his footing and struck the curb, but escaped with a few minor bruises. Motorman Miller stuck to his post and tried every possible way to stop the car.

The car was going so fast it ran all the way from Vinton street and up the hill leading from Leavenworth street to Howard street. At Leavenworth street a long freight train had just pulled into the yards, and the runaway car grazed the rear end of the train. Upon reaching Howard street the car started back down the hill.

Although the car was fitted with a hand brake it did not stop the progress of the car when applied by Motorman Miller.

A Perfect Shampoo in Five Minutes

"Much depends on what you use when shampooing," says Mae Martin, in the New York Courier. "Great injury is often done to the hair and scalp by employing harmful mixtures for this purpose, while a simple thing like cantrox almost works wonders in cleansing the hair and scalp.

"After a cantrox shampoo the scalp is soft and pliant and the hair will have regained its original lustre and fluffiness and is easier to do up.

"Dissolve a teaspoonful of cantrox in a teacup of hot water and shampoo the head with this, then rinse thoroughly and dry. You will be agreeably surprised at the result.

"While cantrox is not expensive, you should be careful to get an original package."—Advertisement.

Quick Relief For Headache

Try Anti-Kemnic Tablets and be relieved of all pain—headache from any cause, excessive brain fatigue, indigestion, grippe, colic, over-indigestion, neuralgia, rheumatism, toothache, yield quickly to these wonderful pain relievers. Not analgesic, does not narcotize or habit-former.

ASK YOUR DRUGGIST FOR ANTI-KEMNIC TABLETS

Get a quantity at 10c and 25c Packages

Railroad Officials Here Surprised at New Developments

The demand of the Western Pacific made before the California State Railway commission, that it have something to say relative to what kind of traffic arrangements shall be made between the Union, Central and Southern Pacific roads over the old Central line between Sacramento and Oakland, comes as a complete surprise to Union Pacific railroad officials now in the city.

The Union Pacific men who are here declare that they cannot understand the motive that is behind the Western Pacific. However, they are considerably annoyed and express the fear that this new complication coming up at this time may delay the settlement of the details of the dissolution of the merger.

No matter which side wins before the California commission, local Union Pacific officials expect to see the question go all the way up to the United States supreme court for a final adjudication, which may mean a year or more before a decision is handed down.

Burlington Will Rebuild a Short Line in Wyoming

With the announcement that the Burlington will at once begin the construction of its Wyoming line from Powder River to Orin Junction, comes the further announcement of the rebuilding of the line from Guernsey to Hartsville Junction, a distance of ten miles.

The Guernsey line was built several years ago and since then has been used as a coal and iron road from the Guernsey iron mines. It passes through a very rough country and the grades are heavy. It is now proposed to take out the curves and bring the grade down to the minimum. This having been done, the little ten-mile stretch will form an important link in the Burlington's through line from Omaha to the Pacific coast, to be operated in conjunction with the Northern Pacific.

With the Powder River extension of the Burlington built and in operation, trains between Omaha and the coast are expected to run from Omaha to Alliance, thence down to Northport, where they will set onto the Guernsey line, running over to Hartsville, where they will run onto the Colorado & Southern and get to Orin Junction, at which they are still connected with the Powder River line, continuing on to Portland and Seattle.

South Omaha Police Arrest Three Boys

Police Captain John Dvorak of South Omaha, has made the arrest of Joe Belek, Edward and V. streets, John Delezal, Nineteenth and W streets and Marcel Novry, Seventeenth and M streets, all of whom are alleged to be implicated in thefts that have been going on in the railroad yards.

About $200 worth of merchandise was recently stolen from a Rock Island box car and in making their investigation the police have located and recovered about five sacks full of goods. They are of the opinion that there is a well organized gang at work and that Belek, Delezal and Novry are a part of it. All three are under age.

GOOD SAMARITAN BRINGS AID TO STARVING COUPLE

Starving and homeless, and her husband in the same condition except that he was also out of a job, Mrs. May Barbee, 20 years old and recently a mother, would have taken desperate means to gain a living yesterday but for the interference of an unidentified man who surmised her intention and brought her to the police station with her husband.

At the station the woman told a pitiful story of the misfortunes of herself and husband, and when she finished the station officers were touched, and they supplied the pair with sleeping quarters and a hearty meal.

Mrs. Barbee came here Saturday from Lincoln with her baby and husband, the father to secure a position in the check room of the Hotel Rome. They had but little money and they went to the home of Barbee's grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Brown, 343 Saylor street.

Mrs. Brown was unable to house the pair, but she did care for their needs as to an infant. They were discovered that the job at the Rome could not be had and he tramped the streets looking for another position. Yesterday the situation became desperate, and when Mrs. Barbee proposed a way out of their trouble she was overheard by the man who brought them to the station.

Police Sergeant Cook took the couple to a nearby restaurant and then arranged a place for them in the matron's department. Today he will attempt to find a job for Barbee, whom he believes to be really deserving of help.

POPULAR CONFUSION OVER THE BRANCHES OF SERVICE

An illustration of the popular confusion that exists in the minds of many people as to a distinction between the navy and the marine corps came up when the police called the local navy recruiting station. "We've got a deserter from the navy down here that gave himself up," said the police officer. "Come down and see what you want to do with him." Chief Yeoman Gaustad went to the police station and engaged the man in conversation. At the end of a half hour's questioning, Gaustad asked, "What branch of the navy service were you in?" "Me?" cried the astonished deserter. "I was never in the navy. I was a private in the marine corps." "Good night," said the navy man, as he turned to go.

ST. JOSEPH PASTORS WILL ATTEND PRIZE FIGHT

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Feb. 20.—A committee of pastors of local churches planned today to attend a prize fight here tomorrow night for the purpose of obtaining information to lay before the grand jury.

Important Bills to Be Considered at Lincoln Tonight

For a meeting to consider the Lee consolidation bills and the Howell water district bill the Douglas county delegation to the state legislature at Lincoln has secured the supreme court chamber for tonight. John F. Breen of Omaha, who drew the original Lee bill, was summoned to the meeting by long-distance telephone this afternoon and left for Lincoln at 4:10.

Mr. Breen is wanted to explain the relation of the consolidation bills to the water district bill and to unravel the tangled web that has resulted from the introduction of the water bill and three consolidation measures.

Mr. Breen says if Omaha, South Omaha and suburbs are consolidated there will be no necessity for enactment of the water district bill.

ORDERED TO STOP SMOKING

Commissioner McGovern Posts Notice for Laborers of City.

WORKINGMEN ARE PEEVED

The More They Think Over the Order the More Peeved They Grow and Some Are Threatening to Quit.

Trouble hangs over the head of City Commissioner Thomas McGovern, all because he had a notice posted on the door of the city asphalt plant declaring the use of smoking tobacco by the crosswalk and intersection gangs was offensive to the head of the department and had to be stopped forthwith.

It was a sudden crowd went out in the crisp air yesterday, for they are generally addicted to the "bill" and believe it is a personal affront to deprive them of the right to inhale the velvety smoke.

Displeasure among the workmen grew throughout the day as each vent his hand into his pocket ever and anon for the "makins" and then remembered the commissioner's order.

It is a matter of speculation among the workmen now as to how long the order will be enforced. Some of them threaten to quit if it is not suspended. They say they do not waste much time rolling pipes and can work better when they smoke.

Irish People Give Banquet to Show Love for Emmet

Next to their patron saint, probably no one of Erin was more loved by the Irish people than Robert Emmet. The Irish people, until whatever land they may migrate, carry with them their love and admiration of this their youthful hero.

For some years past the Irish Fellowship club and the Emmet Monument association in Omaha have observed the anniversary of the birth of Emmet. The association have concluded arrangements to again observe the occasion as on former years by holding a banquet at the Henshaw hotel Thursday, February 27.

Emmet's birthday falls on March 4, but owing to the fact that there was some anticipated difficulties in securing a good speaker upon that date, it was determined to hold the banquet a few days earlier. Edward Dunn, recently the candidate for governor of the state at Iowa, will be the chief speaker.

Vocal solos will also be rendered by Miss Nell Donahue and Clinton R. Miller. It is expected the banquet will be the greatest success of any heretofore held in the city commemorating the birth of Robert Emmet.

Boarders at City Jail Engage in a Fight

E. Roach and R. G. Dudley, two guests at the city jail hotel for the last month, came home drunk Wednesday and started a row with the proprietor, Turnkey Andy Fahey. Andy remonstrated with the two boarders without avail.

The two star boarders were arrested and charged with drunkenness and vagrancy. Judge Foster discharged the prisoners in police court, although the two lodgers thought they would draw thirty days in the county jail and live in luxury until warm weather set in.

All those days when you feel miserable, headachy, bilious and dull are due to torpid liver and sluggish bowels. The days when your stomach is sour and full of gas, when you have indigestion; the nights when your nerves twitch and you are restless and can't sleep could be avoided with a teaspoonful of delicious Syrup of Figs. Isn't it foolish to be distressed when there is such a pleasant way to overcome it?

Give your inactive liver and ten yards of waste-clogged bowels a thorough cleansing this time. Put an end to constipation.

Take a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs tonight, sure, and let see for yourself by morning, how gently but thoroughly all the sour bile, undigested fermenting

BREATHE FREELY! OPEN NOSTRILS AND STUFFED HEAD--END CATARRH

Instant Relief When Nose and Head Are Clogged from a Cold. Stops Nasty Catarrhal Discharges. Dull Headache Vanishes.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm." Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it. Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By sprinkling the catarrh cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone. End such misery now! Get the small

K. C. BARTON CALLED TO REST

Young Omaha Millionaire Gives Up Fight After Long Struggle.

SISTER'S CONDITION IS CRITICAL

Mr. Barton Has Been Ill for Last Two Years and Has Been Confined to His Bed for Last Two Months.

K. C. Barton, son of the late Guy Barton died yesterday at his home, 3222 Farnam street, after a long illness, the last two months of which time he has been confined to his bed. Mr. Barton is survived by his wife and three children.

While Mr. Barton has been confined to his bed, his sister, Mrs. V. B. Millard, 125 North Thirty-ninth street, has also been seriously ill and fears are also expressed concerning her condition. She became seriously sick a week ago Tuesday, following an operation the previous Saturday. Relatives say the physicians offer little encouragement for her recovery.

DR. MAXEY TALKS ON TURKEY

Says Trouble There is Financial One in Nearly Every Sense.

NATIONS ARE INCOMPATIBLE

Turks and Balkans Are Separate Civilizations and One Government for Both is Not Reasonable.

The financial question is the biggest item in the solution of the Turkish trouble, according to Dr. Edwin Maxey, professor of public law and diplomacy at the University of Nebraska, who spoke on the subject before the Commercial club. He said if the Balkan allies could take over all the Turkish bonds they would get a free hand from the European powers and settle the troubles after their own ideas.

Dr. Maxey was introduced by Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock, who said in his introduction that he felt he needed introduction more than the speaker. "When I come back on hurried business trips," said the senator, "I find myself almost a perfect stranger."

Senator Hitchcock continued to say that the people of the United States as a mass are becoming more interested in international questions. He said the other nations were patterning after the United States and the cause of many of the troubles in foreign countries now is that the people are trying to establish governments more like ours. There have been twenty-six nations to develop in government and civilization largely in imitation of the United States since this government was established, and they are doing it, he said, because the United States has made a success of self-government.

Mrs. Harry D. Reed Dies Suddenly of Heart Failure

Stricken with heart failure, Mrs. Ellen M. Reed, wife of Harry D. Reed, aged 50 years, died suddenly at the family residence, 811 Farnam street, yesterday afternoon. For three weeks she had been ill with pleuro pneumonia, but had practically recovered and was up and about the house. Yesterday afternoon she was feeling better than for several days past, when suddenly she complained of pains in the vicinity of the heart and soon became unconscious, passing away shortly afterward.

The funeral will be held at the residence Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and will be private. Burial at Forest Lawn. Mrs. Reed was Ellen M. Fay, and was born in Waukegan, Ill. She was married to F. M. Greenleaf in 1883, he dying two years later. In 1899 she was married to Harry D. Reed in Chicago and came to Omaha, residing here ever since. She was a trustee of the First Unitarian church, president of the Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church and a member of the Dunder Woman's club. She is survived by her husband and three sons, Miles Greenleaf, Kenneth F. Reed and John S. Reed. The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Manfred Lallefors, pastor of the First Unitarian church.

A Serious Breakdown

results from chronic constipation. Dr. King's New Life Pills relieve headache, stomach, liver and bowel trouble. 35c. For sale by Benton Drug Co.—Advertisement.

Surely Take "Syrup of Figs" If Headachy, Bilious, Constipated

Sweetens your stomach, clears your head and thoroughly cleanses your liver and 30 feet of bowels of sour bile, foul gases and clogged-up waste.

food and clogged-up waste matter is moved on and out of your system—no nausea—no griping—no weakness. You simply can't have your liver inactive and your thirty feet of bowels constipated with sour, decaying waste matter and feel well. The need of a laxative is a natural need, but with delicious Syrup of Figs you are not drugging yourself. Being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatic it cannot injure.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna." Refuse with scorn any of the so-called Fig Syrup imitations. They are meant to deceive you. Look on the label. The genuine, old reliable, bears the name, California Fig Syrup Company.—Advertisement.

THE NEXT ISSUE OF THE Semi-MONTHLY MAGAZINE SECTION

will appear with the February 23d number of The Omaha Sunday Bee

It will be an unusually interesting number, as the following table of contents will show.

"TOLSTOY TO THE CZAR, THE KAISER AND THE KING OF ENGLAND."

By Countess Anastasia Tolstoy—Illustrations by Franklin Booth. When Count Leo Tolstoy died in 1910, the world lost its greatest writer. But Tolstoy was more than a writer. He was a moral force, the legitimate successor of the prophets of old. His lightest word was like an edict to the people of Russia, if not to its rulers, and was heeded by the thinkers of other nations. In our forthcoming issue we offer to the readers of The Semi-Monthly Magazine Section what is literally a word from the dead—Tolstoy's last message to humanity. It is in the form of a letter to the Czar of Russia, the German Kaiser, and the King of England, and was written at the invitation of these three monarchs. It is furnished to us by the Countess Anastasia Tolstoy, a near relative of the dead author, who took the letter from his dictation and personally delivered it to the Czar. Tolstoy foretells the present war in the Balkans, and warns the world of a still greater European conflagration that will take place during 1913. This is only one of his prophecies. The others are equally important. The article is illustrated by Franklin Booth, who stands today in the front ranks of American magazine artists. He has drawn a wonderful character study of Tolstoy and illuminating portraits of the three rulers to whom he addresses himself.

"THE CONFIDENCES OF ARSENE LUPIN."

Edith Swan-Neck—By Maurice Le Blanc—Illustrations by Adrien Machefer. This is the last and, incidentally, the best of our great series of Arsene Lupin stories. There is a new note in the incident of Edith Swan-Neck, because for the first time the police inspector Ganimard gets even with his enemy Lupin. Unaided he unravels an amazing mystery as a detective was ever confronted with. He does not altogether defeat his crafty foe, but that lends additional spice to the story. It is the reader who watches the duel of wits to its startling finish of a victory for both detective and thief. Adrien Machefer has done the illustrations.

"A DEEP PURPLE FINISH."

By Arthur M. Hopkins—Illustrations by R. G. Vosburgh. A story with a laugh in every paragraph. It tells of how an Italian barber became an Irishman, how he rose in the world, how a get-rich-quick scheme had him side-tracked for awhile, and how in the end he got even with a customer from Wall Street. The knight of the chair will have your sympathy throughout. You will wonder that you had never realized that there could be romance in the life of the man who gives you your morning shave. R. G. Vosburgh's illustrations are not less amusing than the story.

"WOMEN WHO MAKE POULTRY PAY."

By Edward I. Farrington—Illustrations from Photographs. An article of practical value to all women. Mr. Farrington tells of fortunes that have been made from eggs and chickens. He also issues a word of warning to those who may think that success is easy. All those who long to return to the simple life of the country should read it.

"FRESH FINDINGS FROM MARK TWAIN."

By Albert Bigelow Palne—Illustrations by Horace Taylor. Another installment of Mark Twain anecdotes by the late humorist's authorized biographer. There are epigrams, too, and homely words of wisdom that will remind you of Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn.

"IT HAPPENED OVERNIGHT."

By H. J. Peck. Our cover design for the next issue is a winter picture that will touch a sympathetic chord in every heart. If you can remember waking up in the chilly morning hours and finding the room invaded by a good old-fashioned drift of snow you will want to keep this picture and grin over it for many days to come. This interesting magazine will be given free with THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE of February 23.

Omaha's Greatest Clothing House

Men's Hats at prices that will amaze you

The styles and shapes are absolutely correct. Every color and size you may choose. We need the room. See them on display in windows. Broken lines of soft, stiff, velour and Scratch Up Hats that formerly sold up to

$3.00

are divided into two lots—on sale now at—

95c and $1.65

The Berg Clothing Co.
115 S. DOUGLAS

DR. MAXEY TALKS ON TURKEY

Says Trouble There is Financial One in Nearly Every Sense.

NATIONS ARE INCOMPATIBLE

Turks and Balkans Are Separate Civilizations and One Government for Both is Not Reasonable.

The financial question is the biggest item in the solution of the Turkish trouble, according to Dr. Edwin Maxey, professor of public law and diplomacy at the University of Nebraska, who spoke on the subject before the Commercial club. He said if the Balkan allies could take over all the Turkish bonds they would get a free hand from the European powers and settle the troubles after their own ideas.

Dr. Maxey was introduced by Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock, who said in his introduction that he felt he needed introduction more than the speaker. "When I come back on hurried business trips," said the senator, "I find myself almost a perfect stranger."

Senator Hitchcock continued to say that the people of the United States as a mass are becoming more interested in international questions. He said the other nations were patterning after the United States and the cause of many of the troubles in foreign countries now is that the people are trying to establish governments more like ours. There have been twenty-six nations to develop in government and civilization largely in imitation of the United States since this government was established, and they are doing it, he said, because the United States has made a success of self-government.

MISSOURI HOUSE PASSES WOMAN SUFFRAGE BILL

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Feb. 20.—The Missouri house of representatives today sent to engrossment the constitutional amendment granting suffrage to women. The senate already has taken similar action.

MOOSE FAIR IS NOW OPEN

Proceeds to Go Toward Bringing National Convention Here.

The Moose fair opened at 2 yesterday afternoon at the Moose hall, 46 South Seventeenth street, under the auspices of the Loyal Order of Moose. The proceeds of the big fair are to go to the local lodge to be used largely in an effort to bring the national convention of 1914 to Omaha. All the necessities that go to make up a live fair are in operation at the Moose fair and are expected to be in progress until Saturday night, when the affair will be wound up with a big dance. Women policemen are not the boast of the municipality of Omaha alone, for two sturdy women are acting in that capacity at the fair and are throwing their victims into the formidable looking jail in the corner, as fast as offenders appear. Even when everyone is behaving well the policemen arrest just the same and their pick is the first one who happens to cross their path. They do this just to keep in practice, and maintain the dignity of duty. The judge sits in the jail and pronounces sentence right and left without taking much testimony. Testimony is immaterial to him. It is all of the "incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial kind," and he refuses to admit it. Fines from a nickel up are imposed upon payment of which the trembling prisoner is released.

WOMEN POLICE ARE EMINENT

They Make It a Point to Arrest Everyone that Comes Within the Reach of Their Long Arms.

The Moose fair opened at 2 yesterday afternoon at the Moose hall, 46 South Seventeenth street, under the auspices of the Loyal Order of Moose. The proceeds of the big fair are to go to the local lodge to be used largely in an effort to bring the national convention of 1914 to Omaha. All the necessities that go to make up a live fair are in operation at the Moose fair and are expected to be in progress until Saturday night, when the affair will be wound up with a big dance. Women policemen are not the boast of the municipality of Omaha alone, for two sturdy women are acting in that capacity at the fair and are throwing their victims into the formidable looking jail in the corner, as fast as offenders appear. Even when everyone is behaving well the policemen arrest just the same and their pick is the first one who happens to cross their path. They do this just to keep in practice, and maintain the dignity of duty. The judge sits in the jail and pronounces sentence right and left without taking much testimony. Testimony is immaterial to him. It is all of the "incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial kind," and he refuses to admit it. Fines from a nickel up are imposed upon payment of which the trembling prisoner is released.

THE NEXT ISSUE OF THE Semi-MONTHLY MAGAZINE SECTION

will appear with the February 23d number of The Omaha Sunday Bee

It will be an unusually interesting number, as the following table of contents will show.

"TOLSTOY TO THE CZAR, THE KAISER AND THE KING OF ENGLAND."

By Countess Anastasia Tolstoy—Illustrations by Franklin Booth. When Count Leo Tolstoy died in 1910, the world lost its greatest writer. But Tolstoy was more than a writer. He was a moral force, the legitimate successor of the prophets of old. His lightest word was like an edict to the people of Russia, if not to its rulers, and was heeded by the thinkers of other nations. In our forthcoming issue we offer to the readers of The Semi-Monthly Magazine Section what is literally a word from the dead—Tolstoy's last message to humanity. It is in the form of a letter to the Czar of Russia, the German Kaiser, and the King of England, and was written at the invitation of these three monarchs. It is furnished to us by the Countess Anastasia Tolstoy, a near relative of the dead author, who took the letter from his dictation and personally delivered it to the Czar. Tolstoy foretells the present war in the Balkans, and warns the world of a still greater European conflagration that will take place during 1913. This is only one of his prophecies. The others are equally important. The article is illustrated by Franklin Booth, who stands today in the front ranks of American magazine artists. He has drawn a wonderful character study of Tolstoy and illuminating portraits of the three rulers to whom he addresses himself.

"THE CONFIDENCES OF ARSENE LUPIN."

Edith Swan-Neck—By Maurice Le Blanc—Illustrations by Adrien Machefer. This is the last and, incidentally, the best of our great series of Arsene Lupin stories. There is a new note in the incident of Edith Swan-Neck, because for the first time the police inspector Ganimard gets even with his enemy Lupin. Unaided he unravels an amazing mystery as a detective was ever confronted with. He does not altogether defeat his crafty foe, but that lends additional spice to the story. It is the reader who watches the duel of wits to its startling finish of a victory for both detective and thief. Adrien Machefer has done the illustrations.

"A DEEP PURPLE FINISH."

By Arthur M. Hopkins—Illustrations by R. G. Vosburgh. A story with a laugh in every paragraph. It tells of how an Italian barber became an Irishman, how he rose in the world, how a get-rich-quick scheme had him side-tracked for awhile, and how in the end he got even with a customer from Wall Street. The knight of the chair will have your sympathy throughout. You will wonder that you had never realized that there could be romance in the life of the man who gives you your morning shave. R. G. Vosburgh's illustrations are not less amusing than the story.

"WOMEN WHO MAKE POULTRY PAY."

By Edward I. Farrington—Illustrations from Photographs. An article of practical value to all women. Mr. Farrington tells of fortunes that have been made from eggs and chickens. He also issues a word of warning to those who may think that success is easy. All those who long to return to the simple life of the country should read it.

"FRESH FINDINGS FROM MARK TWAIN."

By Albert Bigelow Palne—Illustrations by Horace Taylor. Another installment of Mark Twain anecdotes by the late humorist's authorized biographer. There are epigrams, too, and homely words of wisdom that will remind you of Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn.

"IT HAPPENED OVERNIGHT."

By H. J. Peck. Our cover design for the next issue is a winter picture that will touch a sympathetic chord in every heart. If you can remember waking up in the chilly morning hours and finding the room invaded by a good old-fashioned drift of snow you will want to keep this picture and grin over it for many days to come. This interesting magazine will be given free with THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE of