

THE SOCIETY OF THE BEE-HIVE

By MELLIFICIA. Thursday, February 20, 1913.

W HILE there has been a lull in the social gaiety of Omaha since Ash Wednesday it has been by no means a time of idleness. Many of the young women have devoted several hours each day to sweet charity.

The Social Settlement will give "The White Pilgrim" April 7, when the cast will include members of the Settlement.

The Visiting Nurse association will give its annual luncheon early in April. This association will also give a play later in the month, but the date has not been decided upon.

March 4 will be "tag day" for the Wise Memorial hospital. Many of the prominent society women of the city will spend several hours that day tagging people with buttons, on which will be a picture of President-elect Wilson. The tagging will last during the morning hours.

The trustees of the Child Saving institute have postponed their play, which is usually given each spring, and a date in the early fall is now being planned for the annual benefit.

One of the large affairs which is given for charity is the annual card party, given by the women of the Creche. This affair will be given earlier this year than usual. It is now planned for shortly after Easter at the Country Club.

Closing Days at Art Exhibit.

The art exhibit of the Omaha Society of Fine Arts closes Thursday evening at the public library. The hostesses for today are Mrs. W. H. Hancock and Mrs. N. P. Jensen for the morning; Mrs. Charles G. McDonald, Mrs. Waite Squier and Mrs. MacMillan Harding for the afternoon; and Mrs. J. O. Yelver, Mrs. Frederick House, Mrs. Jesse Palmer and Mrs. Alfred Darlow.

Celebrate Golden Wedding.

Cornel and Mrs. J. Francis Hopper celebrated their golden anniversary at their home, 62 North Forty-first avenue, Wednesday. They held open houses both in the afternoon and evening. Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Hopper, Miss Ada Hopper, Mrs. George A. Keeline of Council Bluffs, Mrs. W. H. Lafferty and Mrs. Arthur Keeline assisted at the reception. Francis Hopper, Jr., aged 12 years, was the only grandchild present at the affair.

Brownell Hall Notes.

The young women of Brownell are greatly interested in athletics. Wednesday afternoon the basketball teams of the school, known as the Odds and Evens, namely, the Evens being the members of the classes of 1914 and 1915, and the Odds 1913-15 and '17, played a most exciting game. The score resulted in a tie of 8-8. The following are members of the teams:

Anniversary Club.

Mrs. Charles Wetmore entertained the members of the Anniversary club Tuesday afternoon. Cards were played and the prizes were won by Mrs. M. D. Bal-four, Mrs. E. Jackson and Mrs. Snyder. Mrs. Ostrom, Mrs. Snyder and Miss Dieck were the guests of the club. Two weeks hence the club will be entertained by Mrs. J. Jensen.

Personal Gossip.

Mrs. T. J. Kimball and her daughter, Miss Arabella Kimball, are both ill with an attack of grip. Mrs. Kimball and Miss Kimball had planned to leave March 1 for Orlando, Fla., but have postponed their trip for a time.

In and Out of the Bee Hive.

Miss Katherine Moorhead will spend the week-end at Fort Crook as guest of Major and Mrs. John Singleton Switzer. Miss Katherine Pond of Minneapolis is spending two days with Miss Myra Breckenridge, a former classmate at Smith college. Miss Pansy Higgins, who has been spending two or three years in the south, has returned home for a few weeks, called by the illness of her mother, who broke her wrist. Miss Ola Belle Hervey and Miss Helen Shedd returned home this morning from a house party at the home of Miss Adelaide Thomas in Tekamah. All of the guests were members of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Mr. Joseph W. Thomas is expected home from New York the latter part of the week. He was called to New York by the illness of his sister, Mrs. Charles Haldane, who is now convalescing. Mr. and Mrs. Haldane formerly resided in Council Bluffs, where Mr. Haldane was a law partner of the late John N. Baldwin.

At Fort Crook.

Captain and Mrs. Louis Nuttman of Fort Crook entertained the officers and ladies of the post at a bridge dinner Wednesday in honor of their guest, Mrs. John Hill of Atlanta, Ga. Other out-of-town guests were Miss Virginia Tobin of Frankfort, Ky., and Mrs. C. D. Moller of Fort D. A. Russell, the guests of Lieutenant and Mrs. Walter Scott Fulton. The game began at 4 o'clock, followed by dinner served at 1 o'clock from small tables. The centerpieces were of sweet-peas.

Major and Mrs. John Singleton Switzer will entertain at dinner Friday evening for Major and Mrs. Charles French. Those present will be: Major and Mrs. Charles French, Dr. and Mrs. H. M. McClanahan, Captain and Mrs. Samuel Noyes, Captain and Mrs. Coleman, Major and Mrs. Switzer, Miss Katherine Moorhead, Captain Howell, Lieutenant Hayes, Lieutenant Wilhelm.

Club Members Entertained.

Mrs. Robert Gantt entertained the members of the Tuesday Bridge club at luncheon Tuesday. The decorations were in American Beauty roses. Following the luncheon bridge was played and the score was won by Mrs. William Ramsey. Mrs. Russell Harris will be the hostess two weeks hence at the next meeting.

CONNELL HEARING MONDAY

School Board Resolution Formally Presented to Commission.

MAYOR STOPS ALL ARGUMENT

Refuses to Let Board Members Re-iterate Their Grievances When the Health Commissioner is Absent.

Hearing on a resolution passed by the Board of Education asking the city commission to remove Health Commissioner Connell from office for statements made before the Schoolmasters' club reflecting on the moral condition of the high school, will be had at the meeting of the committee of the whole Monday.

A committee from the school board consisting of President E. Holovitchner, Attorney Carl Herring, Members J. L. Jacobson, C. T. Walker and Alfred C. Kennedy formally presented the resolution to the commission. Jacobson and Kennedy spoke and Mayor Dahlman, chairman of the commission, refused to hear other speakers, because Kennedy attacked Connell in too personal a manner.

At the close of Kennedy's speech Dr. Holovitchner asked that Jacobson be given a hearing. "If you're going to say such things," declared the mayor, "you must wait until Connell is present. I refuse to listen to any more statements like Mr. Kennedy has made."

Witnesses to Be Heard Monday.

It was agreed that witnesses would be heard at the meeting Monday who would testify as to what Connell actually said at the Schoolmasters' meeting. Connell says all he said was reiterated in a letter of explanation published in The Bee. Others deny that he stopped with the local navy appealing for enlistment at the Schoolmasters' meeting. Connell told the Board of Education that Connell covered the case in his letter, but he believes he made his statements a little stronger before the Schoolmasters.

RECRUITING STATION IS PUZZLED OVER APPLICANT

Whether or not Mr. Adams, a very polished little "gentleman" from Fremont, who applied for enlistment at the local navy recruiting station, was not in reality a nice little lady instead of a "Mr. Adams" is now puzzling those in charge of the recruiting station. Adams came tripping into the recruiting station with "his" trousers pressed out just so, and with his mouth puckered up as though he were just ready to say "prunes." "He" sought to enlist in the navy. It was no trouble to pass the examinations as to eyesight, color blindness, and citizenship qualifications. But Adams was "nix" on the physical examination.

The applicant asked if it were really quite necessary to disrobe to be examined as to physical fitness. As all applicants are weighed without any clothing on, it, of course was. Adams then went to the corner of the dressing room, equipped and liberated a moment, asked again if it were quite necessary to disrobe, and then vanished out of the side door.

WHAT'S BECOME OF 'EM

George R. Purvis, who used to carry the colors for the Omaha Guards, is holding down a clerical job in St. Louis. Former Senator John M. Thurston, one of our most brilliant contributors to public life, holds forth in a law office at the national capital.

W. S. Summers betook himself to the Puget Sound country after the capital accumulated as United States district attorney was exhausted, and when last heard from was steering a law practice in Denver.

Matthew H. Collins, police commissioner here for many years, after supervising the operation of a Virginia farm for several years, is now in business in Chicago.

Judge W. W. Keyser, who sat on the district bench, is teaching law in the Washington university law school, located at St. Louis.

Judge Jacob Fawcett, while calling Omaha his home, has to live in Lincoln in order to draw his salary as supreme judge.

Major Grote Hutcheson, once popular adjutant for the military headquarters here, was at last accounts with his troops in the Philippines.

HAIR FADING, TURNING GRAY, FALLING? APPLY A LITTLE SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR.

It's Grandmother's Recipe for Dandruff and Restoring Color to Hair.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also cures dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays skilled chemists do this better than ourselves. By asking at any drug store for the ready-to-use product—called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy"—you will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Some druggists make their own but it's usually too sticky, so insist upon getting "Wyeth's" which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is the best remedy for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and to stop falling hair.

Folks like "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" because no one can positively tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly, says a well known down town druggist. You dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This requires but a few moments, by morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two is restored to its natural color and looks even more beautiful and glossy than ever.
