PROGRESSIVES PREVENT END OF ILLINOIS DEADLOCK

SPRINGFIELD, HL, Feb. 21.-Progressive leaders prevented today the election to the United States senate of I. Y. Sherman, republican, for the long term, and Frank H. Funk, progressive, for the short term. They refused to enter into a combination with the republicans until furnished the names of members whose votes would make such a combination successful. Upon their request being denled, they replied that they were not ready today to go on with the plans to elect senators.

Under a jointeresolution the two houses of the legislature adjourned until next Wednesday.
