Interurban Road Given Permission t to Issue Its Bonds

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Feb. 25 - (Special Telegram.) Permission has been given the Omaha. Lincoln & Beatrice Interurban Rallway company to issue 5 per cent bonds to the amount of $2,250,000 and stock to the amount of $550,000.

The application for authority to issue the stock and bonds was filed with the railroad commission some two months ago and several hearings were had on it. The Nebruska Power company intervened and a hearing was given that company. The order in the case and the opinion was written by Chairman Henry Clarke. The money will be used to build the road. The issue is subject to several conditions, as follows:

First-An accurate account of the proceeds of stock and bond sales shall be kent to be audited by the commission. Second-The construction company shall

ELECTROCUTED BY VIBRATOR

Wife of Des Moines Business Man Killed by Shock.

BODY DISCOVERED IN BATH TUB

Water, Forming Conductor for Electricity, Sends Current Through Woman Sufficient to Cause Death.

DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. bathing at her home here this afternoon Mrs. E. B. Austin, wife of a prominent business mas, was electrocuted by a 'massage vibrator' which she had been using. The hody was discovered by the year-old daughter of the couple when she returned from school. It was partly submerged in the bathtub and a dec burn across the breast and neck caused Coroner Lee to decide that death was que to a shock from the vibrator.

It is believed the water in which Mrs. Austin had been bathing formed a conductor and sent the electric current through her body in sufficient force to

Bridge Arbitrary Case is Argued by Attorney General

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 25 .- Attorney General Wickersham appeared before the United States court for the eastern district of Missouri today and asked that the St Louis terminal charge, known as the bridge arbitrary, be abolished.

This arbitrary, the government conends, is a bridge toll levied by the Perninal Railway association on coal shipped from Illinois fields into St. Louis and constitutes a discrimination against St

The request was a clause of an inter ocutory decree submitted to Circuit Jedges Sanborn, Hook and Smith, sitting as the district court, to make effective the decree of the federal supreme court destroying the alleged terminal monapoly The arguments before the court today brought a sharp clash between the attorney general and Henry S. Priest, counse for the Terminal association.

W. R. McKeen Leaves Million and a Half to Six Children

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Feb. 25 .- The will of W. R. McKeen disposes of an estate estimated at $1,500,000. It is divided equally among six children, Frank, Craw ford, Benjamin, William, Mrs. Mary Pugt and Mrs. Edith Cutter. A trust fund of $60,000 in created for another daughter. Mrs. Anna Shuler, wife of Valentine Shuler of Indianapolis. The four sons are named as executors. A bequest of $1.000 a year is made to Mrs. Sarah J Isham, a sister, who lives in Chicago to be paid by the children out of their shares of the estate. The will was made eight years ago this month. There had been no expectation of piblic or charitable bequests, because Mr. McKeen had given so largely in this respect during
